LOCAL.

Over 11,000,000 bushels of coal, contained in 294 coal boats and 285 barges, were conveyed down the Ohio. In addition 14 barges of steel products, about 35,000 tons, were taken down. Additional shipments aggregating about 7,000,000 bushels can be sent out.—Page 1.

Many papers read before the various sections at the scientists' convention.—Page 5.

The Eastern Manual Training association is in session at the Third ward school, Allegheny.—Page 4.

Officers Coulson and Roger O'Mara will assist the police bureau on the Fourth.—Page 3.

The meeting of Pittsburgh common council next Monday night some action will probably be taken on the water famine matter. The idea seems to prevail that it is not good policy to start the fountains till the estimates have been materially reduced.—Page 14.

The executive committee which has charge of the Greater Pittsburgh celebration of the Fourth of July will today hold what will probably be its last meeting. Everything is in readiness for the coming of the president and a celebration that will be a record breaker.—Page 1.

The Democrats hold conventions to elect delegates to the county meeting and the Fusion ticket is to be indorsed. Several hard fights occurred, but the Fusionists were victorious. Large police forces were needed to preserve order.—Page 1.

JOLLY TIME AT CLOSING OF CONGRESS

The President and His Cabinet Assist at a Happy Windup.

HOUSE VICTORY ON NAVAL BILL

A PARTING DEBATE ON THE PHILIPPINES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., July 1.—President Roosevelt, attended by all the members of his cabinet except Secretary Root, who is absent, went to the capitol today to assist congress in reaching a final adjournment.

The senate had been killing time in a semi-comic discussion of the Philippine question growing out of a proposition from the Democratic members of the committee on the Philippines to send a committee to the Philippines to make an investigation of the conditions there. As soon as it was announced that the president had reached the capitol the senate took a recess. The president's coming was heralded by a long list of nominations and a brief executive session was convened to confirm them.

In the midst of President Roosevelt's work of signing bills he took time to write his autograph in numerous albums, upon cards, and to greet many callers brought to him by senators and representatives. Under the leadership of Sergeant-at-Arms Dan Ragsdale all the senate pages called upon the president in a body to pay their respects. The president had a pleasant word for each little chap as presented.

Nothing More to Be Done.

A few minutes before the bells jingled for final adjournment the journal committee of the two houses, composed of Senators Allison and Cockrell and Representatives Payne and Cannon, marched solemnly into the president's room to announce that the congress was ready to adjourn, and to inquire if the president had any communications to make before the session closed. The president replied laughingly that he had no further suggestions, and wished the committee well.

During a short executive session one of the senators undertook to ask Postmaster General Payne inside, under the belief that a member of the cabinet was entitled to be present; but Mr. Payne was escorted out again and informed that while the president was entitled to enter the executive sessions the privilege did not extend to his cabinet.

The conferees of the two houses on the naval appropriation bill reached an agreement at 12 o'clock on the one point left in dispute after former conferences. This point related to the contention as to whether any of the proposed new war vessels should be built in government navy yards.

Uncle Sam to Build One.

The house originally had provided that half of them should be constructed in government yards and the other half by contract. The senate provided for the construction of all by contract. The compromise agreement authorizes the construction of one battleship in a government yard and also others in case of emergency. Both houses adopted the report.

The senate adopted the conference report on the Philippine government bill without very serious opposition, and then when the decks of the senate were cleared for adjournment, Mr. Carmack called up his resolution providing for a continuance of the investigation of the Philippine committee and for a visit to the Philippine islands by the committee during the present session. This started the trouble, and for more than an hour a battle of words was waged.

Mr. Spooner delivered a scathing denunciation of the minority of the Philippine committee for what he declared was an attack upon the American army. Mr. Carmack denied that any attack had been made upon the army and declared that any fool could charge such a calumny, and a parrot could be taught to repeat it. The resolution was referred to a committee, thus effectually killing it.

Democrats Thank Mr. Frye.

Just before adjournment the usual resolutions were adopted, including one offered by Mr. Cockrell, the venerable Democrat of Missouri, cordially thanking President Pro Tem Frye for "the dignified, impartial and courteous manner in which he had presided over the deliberations of the senate."

After the adoption of the resolution Mr. Frye delivered a feeling address in response and the senate adjourned without day.

Amid a scene of enthusiasm that has not been paralleled since the stirring days of the Spanish war, Speaker Henderson at 5:30 this afternoon declared the house of representatives adjourned without day. In doing so he said no house of representatives since the adoption of the constitution had done as much work as this one. The speaker thanked the members for their courtesy during the session, and they gave him a remarkable demonstration of their friendship and good will.

While the cheering and applause were still in progress the members on the floor began singing "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." It was taken up by the correspondents in the press gallery over the speaker's chair, and by the spectators in the surrounding galleries, and soon the vast hall was ringing with the swelling chorus. Other patriotic airs followed as the members exchanged farewells, "The Star Spangled Banner" alternating with "Dixie."

The Speaker Sings "Dixie."

The speaker came down from his rostrum, his appearance on the floor being greeted with "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and a perfect rush of members to grasp his hand. Standing in the area in front of the clerk's desk, he, too, joined in the songs, and there was a wild scene when Gen. Hooker of Mississippi, the old one-armed Confederate veteran, took his

BILLION DOLLARS COVERS THE WORK OF THIS SESSION

That Includes Expenditures Authorized for Beginning of Panama Canal Work.

THE CHAIRMEN'S FIGURES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., July 1.—The first session of the Fifty-seventh congress, just closed, has approached very nearly the billion dollar mark. The cost is largely a matter of bookkeeping.

It is admitted by Chairman Cannon of the house committee on appropriations that it will be $900,083,837, and the $50,000,000 appropriation for the isthmian canal is added to the other appropriations. If the $13,000,000 in bonds authorized for the construction of the isthmian canal is added, the total cost will be $1,030,193,837. Each member of the house committee on appropriations figures the actual total out differently.

Senator Allison, chairman of the committee on appropriations, presented a statement showing the total appropriations for the session by bills as follows:

Chairman Allison's Estimate.

Agriculture	$ 5,208,960
Army	91,530,126
Diplomatic and consular	1,907,925
District of Columbia	8,647,826
Fortifications	7,208,855
Indian	9,143,992
Legislative, etc.	25,598,381
Military academy	2,427,224
Navy	78,678,968
Pensions	139,842,230
Postoffice	132,416,548
*Rivers and harbors	26,726,442
Sundry civil	60,125,350
Deficiencies	28,035,911
Miscellaneous	2,690,981
Isthmian canal	60,130,000
Permanent annual appropriations	123,921,229
Grand total	$800,193,837

*Exclusive of contracts authorized.

The total last year was $730,838,575.

The statement of Chairman Cannon of the house committee shows in part:

An analysis of this table shows that the total estimated expenditures forecast by the executive departments aggregated $776,848,518; that the total appropriations made, exclusive of $50,130,000 toward an isthmian canal, aggregate $750,068,837.

The expenditures for the past two fiscal years 1900 and 1901 show that during that period there has been applied to the sinking fund more than $119,000,000, a sum greater than the law actually required, and which exceeds the whole amount applied to the extinguishment of the public debt during all of the nine fiscal years from 1881 to 1889, inclusive.

Two Administrations Contrasted.

During the four years of President Cleveland's last administration, from 1893 to 1896, inclusive, only $13,400,047 was applied to the payment of the public debt, while during the same period that administration issued bonds to the extent of $262,315,400 in order to raise money wherewith to pay current expenses and maintain the public credit. An analysis of the table which I submit shows that the appropriations made in the regular annual bills for ordinary expenses of the government, payable during the fiscal year 1903, aggregate $605,502,705, which, together with the sums carried under permanent appropriations and exclusive of the amount required by the sinking fund, makes a total of $685,425,835. In the nature of things, and in the light of past experience, this entire sum will never be expended, but probably will be reduced by the neighborhood of 10 per cent. The receipts of the government, as now estimated, on the basis of the revenue reduction legislation enacted at this session, amount to $840,520,650. The expenditures to be made under the appropriations of this session will not exceed $690,000,000, or a sum approximating $40,000,000 less than the revenues which we expect to derive under the revenue laws as revised by this congress.

Representative Livingstone, the ranking Democrat of the appropriations committee, submitted a statement showing, with the inclusion of the isthmian canal, river and harbors and other prospective expenditures, appropriations of over $1,000,000,000 during the past session.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA REVIEWS COLONIALS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, July 1.—The following bulletin was posted at Buckingham palace at 7 p. m.:

"The advancement in the king's condition is maintained. His appetite is improving and the dressing of his wound is less painful. His majesty is still easily fatigued on the least exertion."

Queen Alexandra, the prince and princess of Wales and other members of the royal family reviewed the colonial troops today. All the colonial premiers, Indian princes and other guests of the nation were present, to say nothing of peers and members of the house of commons without end.

The troops marched quickly past the queen's carriage, the prince of Wales receiving the salute. The prince of Wales conferred medals and crosses on those who had merited the honor, shaking hands with the recipients of the Victoria Cross.

The steady progress of King Edward is fully maintained, and his majesty takes light nourishment with keen enjoyment. He is allowed a light cigar a day. The king's grandchildren are allowed a brief daily visit to his bedside, while a scarcely less welcome and even more enthusiastic visitor to his majesty is his Irish terrier "Jack," which is allowed in the king's room a short time every afternoon.

There is some talk in official circles of a public thanksgiving service at St. Paul's cathedral when the king is sufficiently recovered to attend. This proposal, if carried out, will be quite apart from the coronation.

AN ORGANIST SHOT BY DEGENERATE BOY.

Robbery the Motive of the Crime Committed by Grandson of Well-Known Oyster Dealer.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 1.—Fred J. Crowell of the launch Florodora was fatally shot on the Meadows this morning by William J. English, aged 15 years, of Germantown, Philadelphia. Crowell is known all over the country as a church organist.

Tonight it was learned that robbery was the motive of the shooting. Young English knew that Crowell had received $40, and shot his victim to secure possession of the money.

English was arraigned this evening before Recorder C. C. Babcock and held for a further hearing on Friday evening. He is a grandson of Joseph J. English of the Philadelphia oyster firm of J. & J. English. The boy is accused of stealing valuable sporting goods from Edward M. Graham, son of Dr. Graham, the well-known Philadelphia pathologist. Young Graham came to Atlantic City this afternoon to swear out a warrant against English and was greatly shocked when he learned of the shooting. He found the stolen property at the police station, the officers having recovered it.

BIG RECORD FOR ONE DAY IN THIS PORT

Over 11,000,000 Bushels of Coal Sent Down the River Yesterday.

THREE TOWBOATS MEET ACCIDENTS

Barges Lost in Two of the Mishaps, and the Lookout Drops Her Wheel.

SHORT-LIVED STRIKE MARKS THE START

No more important or more animated, bustling scenes were ever witnessed in the Pittsburgh harbor than those which yesterday attended the shipment of millions of bushels of coal to the south. Never before in the history of the river coal business were such panoramic scenes presented to the eyes of Pittsburghers. Thousands of persons thronged the Monongahela river bridges watching boats make up their tows of coal and steel products. The maneuverings of the boats by skilled pilots presented a beautiful picture.

From sunup until sunset over 11,000,000 bushels of coal were moved and the parade of coal tows was the finest and largest ever sent out of Pittsburgh in a single day. All along the banks of the Ohio were grouped hundreds of persons to watch the boats go by.

Independent Concerns Active.

A large number of men were brought from down-river points by the coal combination. Some of these were captured by the independent companies. The independents took full advantage of the rise to get out all the coal for which they could get towboats.

The Monongahela Consolidated Coal & Coke Company were the largest shippers. Capt. Samuel S. Brown, master of transportation for the company, had full charge of the movement of the boats. He is a veteran at the business.

C. Jutte & Co. were the next largest shippers, followed by the A. R. Budd Coal company. The large amount of fuel which the independent concerns shipped was a surprise to some of the rivermen. The independents according to rivermen, are getting stronger every day and it is said that within the next six months they will be in a position to ship much more coal.

Three accidents were reported to the coal fleet, two of the steamers belonging to the coal combination. The Dave Wood struck an obstruction in the trap, at Sewickley, and sank two barges of coal, which went to pieces, proving a total loss. The Hornet No. 2 hit the island bar at Brunots, in Glasshouse riffle, yesterday morning, sticking part of her tow and sinking one barge. The stranded barges were floated, but one barge which had the end of it knocked out, was left there.

Lookout in Two Accidents.

The third unfortunate steamer was the towboat Lookout, belonging to the Clyde Coal company. She was purchased only last Saturday. This boat figured in two sensational occurrences. The first was shortly after noon when she ran into the steamer Elizabeth, head on, while the boat lay at her landing, and broke her rudder stock. The accident prevented the Elizabeth from going to Morganiown yesterday.

Later in the afternoon while passing under the Smithfield street bridge with part of her tow, the Lookout dropped her wheel off. The wheel is said to be undamaged and an effort will be made to replace it today. The loss of time is the most serious feature of the accident. All things considered, however, rivermen say that the run so far has been most successful.

Many of the steamers which left yesterday will return for additional tows, so that the boats will be going out at intervals today and also tomorrow, for there will be plenty of water in the rivers. A 16-foot stage is anticipated and there will be good shipping water until Sunday. There was 14.5 feet in the harbor last night.

Many of the boats tied up last night at Safe Harbor, while others turned their tows of coal over to the larger boats, the big ones going on south with it, the smaller boats returning to Pittsburgh for additional tows.

How the Fleet Got Away.

The towboats left Pittsburgs in the following order: Juniata, 5 barges; Voyager, 6 barges; Charley Hook, 5 barges, Valiant, 12 barges; Ironsides, 12 barges; Clifton, 5 barges; Margie, 5 barges; Sam Brown, 9 barges, 2 models of iron; Cruiser, 9 barges; Ed Roberts, 11 barges, 1 model barge; J. C. Risher, 5 barges; Josh Cook, 11 barges, 1 of rails; Hunter No. 2, 5 barges; Joseph Walton, 13 barges; Harvester, 12 barges; Jim Wood, 11 barges, 1 of rails; Tom Lysle, 5 barges; Fred Wilson, 5 barges, 2 of iron; Mariner, 12 barges; Tom Rees, 11 barges, 1 of iron; Little Fred, 5 barges; Fallie, 8 barges; Chas. Brown, 8 barges, 1 model of iron; Iron Age, 12 barges, 1 model of iron; Gleaner, 6 boats, 10 barges, 5 flats; James Moren, 11 boats, 1 model of iron; Coal City, 11 boats; Sam Clark, 6 boats, 7 barges; Alice Brown, 10 boats, 4 barges; Tornado, 6 boats; Tom Dodsworth, 10 boats, 1 barge; Raymond Horner, 10 boats, 2 barges; Frank Gilmore, 6 boats; Boaz, 10 boats, 2 barges, 1 of steel; Enterprise, 6 boats; W. H. Flint, 6 boats; Robert Jenkins, 5 barges; Pacific, 11 barges, 1 of iron; P. M. Ffell, 15 barges; John Moren, 6 boats; Exporter, 12 boats, 1 barge; Juniata, 5 barges; Harry Brown, 11 boats, 2 barges; Clifton, G. M. Moredock, J. C. Risher, Tom Lysle, Belle Moren, Voyager, each 4 boats; Nellie Walton, 6 boats; Defender, 12 boats; 2 barges; Joseph B. Williams, 11 boats; Maggie, 4 boats; G. W. Thomas, 8 boats; Darling, 8 barges.

Up until the time this report closed the shipment aggregated 294 coal-boats, 266 barges and 14 barges of steel products, towed by 58 towboats. The total shipment of coal amounted to 11,074,000 bushels, not taking into consideration the flats taken out by the boats, which are used chiefly as fuel transports. The basis of this calculation was made by figuring coalboats as containing 25,000 bushels and barges 14,000 bushels, which is regarded as a conservative estimate.

Here's Hoping That He Doesn't Return for the Celebration.

HOT TIMES AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS

Hardest Battle Was in Meeting in the Third District.

PRIZE FIGHTERS TOOK A HAND THERE

Delegates That Were Chosen.

The following are the delegates to the Democratic county convention, chosen yesterday:

First district—John Geisler, Robert Peck, Harry Jordan, James H. Stewart. The last two have a half vote each.

Second district—Henry Meyer, Charles B. Hollar and John B. Brown.

Third district—Peter Hority, D. J. Boyle, John F. Ennis, Andrew Hopkins and John Boland. This district is entitled to three delegates and there will be a contest.

Fourth district—P. J. Barry, Patrick Kearns and George S. Fleming.

Fifth district—J. M. Guffey, George W. Guthrie, C. A. Fagan, W. J. Brennen, T. J. O'Leary, James O'Connor, W. C. Bryant, M. E. O'Brien, John A. Bleichner, A. J. Kunzler, J. T. Ferjack and C. F. Fisher.

Sixth district—C. P. Mayer, J. G. Stivens, C. B. Payne, S. R. Fife, C. L. Stevenson and G. A. Conrad.

Seventh district—J. W. Redinger, E. G. Boyle and Joseph S. Evans.

Eighth district—J. E. O'Donnell, James A. Wampler, W. A. McDavitt, C. D. Abbott, M. L. Thomson and D. J. McCarthy.

Two Democratic conventions were held in the Third legislative district last night and two sets of delegates will ask for admission to the county convention. The Martin and Boyle factions fought for almost four hours. Blows were struck, but the coroner did not get a case.

The convention was held in common council chamber and several hundred men from the hill district were on hand to back their favorites, no matter how rough the house became. It remained for Jack McClelland, the prize fighter, and Ed Dunn to do the only real fighting. The Martin people say that even this bout was a fluke and was arranged in order to break up the Martin convention.

Dennis J. Boyle had been designated by the county chairman to call the meeting to order, but he was too slow and the Martinites gained possession. They transacted all their business and then fell back upon oratory to hold the hall until after midnight, so that Boyle could not hold his convention. Boyle stood this until 10:30 o'clock and then called his gang into the reception room and speedily transacted the business. He says that the convention will seat his men, and it probably will, because he represents the machine end of the contest.

Eight Conventions Held.

Each of the eight legislative districts held conventions yesterday to elect delegates to the county convention. The three country divisions convened in the morning and got through their business without a riot. It had been expected that the Fourth district would terminate in a riot. This was prevented yesterday morning by the withdrawal of John J. Sweeney as a candidate for assembly, leaving a clear field for W. J. Ryan.

The principal fight was in the Third district, but there was plenty of ginger in the Fifth. This convention elected Col. J. M. Guffey a delegate to the county convention. He does not usually participate in the local gatherings.

The fights yesterday were all caused by the opposition to the renomination of James A. Clark for commissioner. Alderman John A. Martin led the battle against him. Clark will control almost the entire convention, however. The following are the 35 delegates and how they line up on the question of Clark:

First district—John Geisler, Robert

GEORGE W. GUTHRIE ACCEPTS SECOND PLACE ON TICKET

Consents to Be Democratic Candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

SAYS IT IS A CALL TO DUTY

George W. Guthrie has accepted the nomination of lieutenant governor at the hands of the Democratic state convention. All doubt concerning his action was removed last night when he issued a formal statement of acceptance.

It is probable that the acceptance would not have come yesterday had not Guthrie and Col. Guffey chanced to meet. They had not been together since the Erie convention. The candidate had thought that the colonel should call, but the national committeeman had been too busy to get over to Diamond alley.

Col. Guffey was at Democratic headquarters yesterday afternoon. The headquarters are almost opposite the law offices of Mr. Guthrie. Some of the friends of Mr. Guthrie prevailed upon the colonel to call upon Mr. Guthrie, and he did so. They were together for several hours. After the meeting Guthrie said that he had decided to accept. Later in the evening he sent out this statement:

"This nomination was made not only without my consent, but against my earnest protest. However, in a campaign involving such important issues as this one does, no citizen has a right to refuse his services in any capacity in which he may be called upon to serve, and as the party unanimously nominated me for this position, I feel it my duty to accept."

LARGE JOB CUT OUT FOR PHILANDER KNOX

He Will Be Required to Investigate Title to Panama Canal and Send Probers to France.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—The cabinet was engaged today, at the suggestion of Secretary Hay, in the preparation measures to carry out the terms of the isthmian canal law. The government must determine the sufficiency of the title that can be conveyed to the United States by the Panama Canal Company, a treaty must be negotiated with Colombia conferring the necessary rights, and a technical commission must be appointed to carry on the actual work of construction.

It was decided to refer the matter of title to the attorney general. Recourse may be had by him to the French courts to secure from some high tribunal a satisfactory affirmation of the sufficiency of title, as the interests involved are too great to base the title upon the mere opinion of an individual lawyer, either French or American.

The attorney general may attempt to secure from the French government, directly through the chamber of deputies probably, some legislative declaration which shall have the force of law and effectually affirm the legality of the acquisition of the canal property by the United States. It will be necessary for the attorney general to send to France some thoroughly competent person who can, if need be, retain local French legal talent to aid in his work. Assistant Attorney General Russell has been suggested as well qualified for such a post and some one or all of the members of the isthmian canal commission may go to Paris.

There is some reason to believe that while no formal assurances have passed the French government has managed to let it be known to the president that it is willing to do everything that is necessary to quiet this question of title.

COLON, COLOMBIA, July 1.—The news of the passage by the United States congress last week of the Spooner Panama canal bill, and the signing of the measures by the president, is still the all-absorbing topic on the isthmus, and is generally considered to mean a final triumph for the Panama canal.

Dividend Increased.

The Fifth Avenue bank declared a semi-annual dividend yesterday afternoon of 3 per cent, which will be a total of 6 per cent for the year. This is an increase over the dividends of last year, which was 5 per cent. In addition to this, the board increased the surplus fund $5,000.

STEEL COMBINE'S BEST STATEMENT OF ITS EARNINGS

Income for Six Months Ended June 30 Footed Up to $64,407,153.

OLD BANNER MONTH WAS THRICE BEATEN

By E. W. HARDEN,
Staff Correspondent.

New York, July 1.—The report of the United States Steel Corporation, issued after the meeting of the directors today, is the most favorable statement of earnings put out since the combine was organized. The earnings for the six months ended June 30 were $64,407,153, and for the first quarter of the current fiscal year of the corporation $37,691,696. The latter sum compares with the estimate of $38,000,000.

At today's meeting the regular quarterly dividends on the preferred and common stocks were declared. The common dividend is payable September 30 and the preferred dividend August 15.

The only other business of importance transacted was the election of James Gayley a member of the executive committee to fill a vacancy.

The statement of the United States Steel Corporation came fully up to expectations and reflects the wonderful prosperity that iron and steel industry is enjoying. The earnings for the three months ended June 30—$37,691,696—compare with $26,363,840 in the corresponding period of last year.

Comparison by Months.

The earnings for the first quarter of the current year, as compared with the similar quarter of 1901, by months, are as follows:

	1902.	1901.
April	$12,320,766	$7,356,744
May	13,120,930	9,012,749
June	12,250,000	9,994,747
Total	$37,691,696	$26,363,840

In other words, the earnings of the steel corporation for the three months ended June 30 last exceed the earnings of the corresponding quarter of last year by $11,327,856. This increase in three months is sufficient to pay half the dividends on the common stock for the entire year.

This remarkable increase is due largely to the fact that navigation on the great lakes opened much earlier this year than last year, the earnings of the United States Steel Corporation through transportation sources being very large.

As aforementioned, the total net earnings of the steel corporation, after deducting each month the expenditures for ordinary repairs, renewals and maintenance of plants, interest on bonds and fixed charges of subsidiary companies, were $64,407,153. After deducting from this sinking funds on bonds of subsidiary companies, depreciation and reserve funds, there remains a balance of profits for six months applicable to payment for United States Steel securities of $37,610,697. After dividends and interest payments and sinking fund for bonds are provided for there remains a balance over all of $20,463,433.

Banner Month Thrice Beaten.

It is interesting to note that the earnings of the steel combine in either April, May or June of this year exceed the preceding banner month, October, 1901, when earnings were reported as $12,205,774.

The statement of the United States Steel Corporation and its subsidiary companies for the six months ended June 30, 1902, in part, is as follows:

	Net Earnings
January, 1902	$ 8,969,016
February, 1902	7,858,582
March, 1902	10,135,858
April, 1902	12,320,766
May, 1902	13,120,930
June, 1902 (estimated)	12,250,000

Total net earnings (after deducting each month the expenditures for ordinary repairs, renewals and maintenance of plants, also interest on bonds and fixed charges of the subsidiary companies) $64,407,152

Since last year the Shelby Tube Company has been taken over by the corpo-

ALL DETAILS FOR FOURTH ARE COMPLETE

POLICE GET ALL KINDS OF ORDERS

Program of Amusements Announced Leaves Nothing to Be Desired.

THE DECORATIONS WILL BE GORGEOUS

The executive committee in charge of the Greater Pittsburgh Fourth of July celebration at Schenley park will meet in the office of City Recorder Brown at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon to perfect any details in connection with the celebration that have been overlooked. At this writing there does not appear to be a single point that has not received attention, and it is expected that about the only report to be given out in connection with the afternoon's meeting will be that everything is in readiness for the reception of President Roosevelt.

Police Arrangements Completed.

Police arrangements for the Fourth were completed yesterday. Philip Denmel, superintendent of detectives, has secured the services of the front office force of Allegheny, and with the score of detectives from other cities, will have men in plain clothes at all the vantage points. "We will have all the railroad stations cared for, and incoming trains will be carefully watched," he said. "Men will also be detailed to watch the downtown streets, hotels and crowds in the park. At the same time," he continued, "people ought to look out for themselves and give no opportunity to the thief to ply his trade. The storekeepers and men who own big business blocks should have their watchmen report for duty that day, the same as they do at night, to guard against fire as well as robbery. The private householder should also help out a little by having some member of the family or a servant about the premises all day. I would suggest also that at night they leave a light burning in a bed room, as a burglar fears nothing so much as a light. While we think we can care for the crowds we want the people to do their part. There will be more than half a million of them here that day and nearly half of them strangers, so we will want a little extra help."

List of the Details.

Director Leslie of the department of safety issued a long list of orders relating to the day through Superintendent John McAleese of the bureau of police. Vehicle traffic will be closed at 8:45 a. m. on Liberty avenue from the Union station to Fifth avenue, and on the latter street from Liberty avenue to St. Pierre street until after the police lines are dropped. Traffic on Wood and Smithfield street, across Fifth avenue, will be closed at 9 a. m., and no vehicles will be allowed to stand within 100 feet of the lines on the side streets. Police cards will be void on that day, and special cards will be issued to those entitled to them for passing the lines. Badges issued to committeemen will also entitle the wearer to go through the lines, but not to stand within the ropes.

The police and "white wings" are empowered to arrest those who fire pistols or fireworks of any description in congested treets during the parade.

Police Inspector Fred Will will be in charge of 150 men on the line of the parade from the station down Liberty avenue, along Fifth avenue to Grant street; Capt. Robert Denniston, with 60 men, from Grant street to Soho street; Inspector Henry Whitehouse, with 80 men, from Soho street to St. Pierre street, and Inspector William McShane, with 50 men, on St. Pierre street to the Junction hollow bridge. Inspector Robert Gray, with 51 men, will be in charge about the bridge and speakers' stand in the park, and will be joined later by officers who are relieved after the parade has passed them. Capt. Grant Smith will have charge of an escort of 16 mounted men, who will precede the parade proper.

Must Not Be Ornamental.

The patrolmen on duty along the line of parade are particularly charged to "face" the crowd and assist in keeping the people beyond the ropes, rather than to watch the parade. They are also to prevent any throwing of paper streamers from office buildings or other places; to note the window from whence they come, and report later, that prosecutions may follow.

Inspectors Whitehouse and Gray will be in charge of 150 men at the park in the evening and assist those in charge of carriages and wagons for sightseers. The roads in the park will be closed at 8:30 a. m., except by way of the Steele and Murdoch entrances, and vehicles will not be allowed below the police lines. In the evening only the Steele and Greenfield entrances will be used for entrance and exit will be by the Murdock and Greenfield gates.

At the race track, where the sports begin at 2 o'clock, Capt. Cramer, with 50 men, will be in charge. Details will be made wherever else they are needed.

The matrons from Nos. 1, 2, 5, 6, 7 and 8 police stations will report at No. 4 station at 8 a. m. They will be placed in the park where required.

Lieut. McAvoy, with 20 men, after the parade passes Liberty avenue and Sixth avenue, will go to the residence of H. C. Frick, where he will have charge of the grounds. Capt. Smith, with 35 men, will be in charge at the Hotel Schenley.

Seats for the City Fathers.

As no accommodations were made for councilmen and city officials at the Schenley park ceremonies, Director McCandless of the department of public works took the matter in hand yesterday and arranged for a sufficient number of seats in front of the speakers' stand. The councilmen and city officials of Allegheny will be cared for in the same way. A number of park benches will be roped off in front of the stand and a ticket entitling the holder to a reserved seat there will be sent to each member of councils of both cities, as well as heads of all departments and bureaus. Director McCandless adopted this plan after vainly trying to those he believes are entitled to hear the president, but for whom he could obtain no positive assurances.

The sub-committee on amusements has completed a round-up of varied attractions which promises something for nearly every moment of the day in Schenley park. It will practically be a continuous performance from 9:30 a. m. until 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

There will be something "doing" on all sides and fun-loving visitors will have to be very active in order to see everything. As one of the members of the committee expressed it last night: "A three-ring circus won't be in it for a moment with us when we get started on the Fourth. There will be so much going on that it will take a man with a pair of eyes in the back of his head to keep track of everything."

Program of the Fun Makers.

The program outlined for the day is as follows:

9:30 a. m.—Balloon ascension by Mlle. Zeno near Fireworks hill.

10 a. m.—War dance at the Indian village, led by Sh-Qua-Heh-Wa, chief of the Cuscarora tribe. The Indian village will be located near the band stand, across the Panther Hollow bridge.

10:30 a. m.—Concert by the Indian band. Boys' sports at Snyder's orchard.

10:45 a. m.—Parade of wild west show, cowboys, Indians, etc.

From 11 o'clock a. m. until 12:15 p. m., during the period the president is at the speaker's stand, there will be no amusements in operation in the park.

12:15 p. m.—Prof. Highler will make his cannon parachute jump near Fireworks hill. He will be shot out of the mouth of a cannon when the balloon has reached an altitude of about 2,500 feet, descending with the aid of a parachute.

12:30 p. m.—Wild west show at the race track oval.

1:30 p. m.—Athletic sports will commence at the race track and continue until 4:30 p. m.

2 p. m.—Mlle. Zeno will make her second leap from a balloon.

2:30 p. m.—Boys' sports at Snyder's orchard.

2:45 p. m.—Sherrell's perilous flight down a wire rope leading.

3 p. m.—Indian war dance by a band of 50 Indians at the Indian village.

3:30 p. m.—Burnham will give his famous bounding rope act at Flagstaff hill, opposite the president's stand.

4 p. m.—Concert by the Indian band at the grave of La Crosse by full-blooded Indians, at the Indian village.

4:30 p. m.—Wild west performance at the race track.

8 p. m.—Second balloon ascension by Prof. Highler near Fireworks hill.

8 p. m.—Parade of all Indians, cowboys, Indian band and wild west show through the park.

7 p. m.—Concerts by all the bands in the park at various points.

8:30 p. m.—Attack on the Indian camp by cowboys.

8:45 p. m.—Grand display of Pain's fireworks.

During the entire day Punch and Judy shows, magicians, acrobats and other amusement makers will perform at Panther Hollow, Snyder's orchard, Flagstaff hill and in other parts of the park.

Hang Banners on the Outer Walls.

The indications are that Pittsburgh is once more in the gone of "a pleasant spell of weather," and it is expected that by today the business community will begin to hang its banners on the outer walls—in other words, start the work of decorating. There is not another community in this country enjoying a greater degree of prosperity than Greater Pittsburgh, and it is proper that she should wear her most pleasant aspect on an occasion when she is honored by a visit from the nation's chief executive. It will pay to decorate. It will make Pittsburgh talked about and advertise her, and the more people hear of her the more they wish to see her. And when they come to see they usually spend freely.

It is fair to assume that Fifth avenue will present such a mass of waving color as to utterly eclipse all former efforts in a decorative way. Yesterday morning it was announced that the Frick building would be decorated from top to bottom.

More Money Is Needed.

About $3,500 more is needed to complete the celebration fund and only 48 hours remain in which to contribute it. Chairman W. A. Carr would be better able to enjoy the Fourth if he knew when he locks up tomorrow evening that the $25,000 wanted was all in.

Yesterday's contributions were as follows:

Rissmiller & Tooker	$ 25 00
Moreland Trust Co	25 00
Ft. Pitt Malleable & Grey Iron Co	10 00
Thomas Bryen	5 00
Joseph Hebler	10 00
H. F.	5 00
Keeling-Ridge Co	100 00
Fred Heil	10 00
F. W. F. Lovejoy	50 00
Benj. Clark	1 00

This makes the total to date, $21,266.

The Allegheny Fourth of July celebration fund was increased $182 yesterday. The late contributions follows:

Calvin Wells, $50; cash, $15; Hering Bros., $5; cash, $7. H. W. Oliver, $50; C. F. Kirschler, $25; Patterson Coal & Supply Company, $20; Pauline Miller, $10. Total, $2,105.

LAWSUIT IN SIGHT.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Contract With Western Union Not to Be Terminated Without a Battle.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—There was an air of mystery today about the execution of the right of way contract between the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the Postal Telegraph Company, which, by common report, was to have gone into effect July 1, covering the trunk line privileges now held by the Western Union Telegraph Company east of Pittsburgh and Erie.

It was admitted in President Cassatt's office that the proposed new contract with the Postal company had not yet been executed. No move was made by the Postal company to establish a physical connection with the Pennsylvania railroad right of way.

There have been rumors for several days that the purpose to terminate the Western Union contract would involve litigation and that the company's legal experts in New York were engaged in painstaking preparations for the prospective combat in the courts.

BROOKLYN SAILS.

Carrying Remains of Lord Pauncefote to England—Salute in Honor of Ambassador.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., July 1.—The last rites attendant upon the removal of the remains of the late British ambassador, Lord Pauncefote, from this country to England, were held in Annapolis this afternoon. They consisted of an escort of honor composed of marines attached to the naval academy and seamen from the cruiser Brooklyn, from the railway station to the naval academy wharf.

The body bearers were eight sailors and eight marines. A caisson manned by the members of the Fourth battery, U. S. artillery from Fort Meyer, Va., bore the casket. A salute of 19 guns was fired as the body was placed aboard the Standish, which conveyed it to the Brooklyn, anchored in the offing.

The Brooklyn, with Rear Admiral Coghlan's pennant at her peak, weighed anchor at 6:35 and proceeded slowly down the Chesapeake.

H. J. Heinz on Two Committees.

DENVER, July 1.—W. H. Harthorn, chairman of the executive committee of the International Sunday School conference has announced the committees in charge of the work of the association. The Rev. J. S. Stahr of Pennsylvania is on the Lessons committee and H. J. Heinz is on the central committee and the committee to attend the jubilee of the London Sunday School union.

MINER KILLED BY SHOT FROM DEPUTY'S GUN

Officers Claim They Were First Fired Upon by Crowd of Strikers.

Was Discovered by Peddler in Early Morning—Friends Claim He Was Innocent Victim—Union Pickets Turn Back Men Going to Work.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 1.—The William A. colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company at Old Forge was the scene of a shooting affray early this morning, which resulted in the death of one man. The victim was an Italian laborer, Anthony Guisseppe, aged 27. He had been in this country about nine months.

When the miners' strike was declared he went out with the other laborers. He had not been seen in the vicinity of Old Forge for some weeks. Early this morning a peddler discovered his dead body in the roadway just outside of the barricade of the William A. colliery. There was a bullet wound in his throat. A doctor said death was instantaneous.

The coal and iron policemen at the William A colliery claim that last night shots were fired through the fence at the special officers. The men behind the barricade responded, and it is thought the Italian was killed then.

Claim He Was Innocent.

The friends of the dead man claim he was an innocent victim. Their version is that he was walking in the roadway near the colliery fence when he received a bullet intended for another.

When the coroner completes his investigation some of the deputies employed at the colliery may be placed under arrest. The guard at the colliery was doubled tonight and Sheriff Schadt swore in a special posse to preserve order. When darkness came 1,000 people collected in the vicinity of the mine, but no attack was attempted.

HAZLETON, PA., July 1.—Fearing that attempts would be made by some of the companies to resume operations this morning, strikers' pickets were stationed at each colliery and men that reported for work were turned back. Here and there non-unionists who persisted in attempting to go through the lines of pickets were roughly handled.

POTTSVILLE, PA., July 1.—Several hundred strikers assembled on the streets of St. Clair today and headed by a drum corps paraded around town. They then separated and marched to the various highways and paths leading to the washery of the St. Clair Coal Company, which commenced operations yesterday. Workmen on their way to the washery were stopped and were requested to return home. This many of them did, but enough reported for work to permit the washery to operate.

JOLLY TIMES AT CLOSING OF CONGRESS

place by the side of the speaker, and together they sang "Dixie."

Mr. Candler, a Mississippi Democrat, jumped upon a desk and let out a yell of joy that fairly shook the rafters. For almost an hour the jubilation continued. All this time the spectators remained standing in the galleries, watching the animated scene below and joining in the singing.

The general good feeling in the house had been heightened by the victory won over the senate on the item in the naval appropriation bill for the building of a battleship in a government yard.

The closing hour was occupied with a spirited debate between Mr. Cousins of Iowa and Mr. Richardson, the Democratic leader, over the report on the investigation into the charges made by Capt. Christmas concerning the sale of the Danish West Indies. Mr. Cousins ridiculed Mr. Richardson for bringing the matter to the attention of congress. Richardson defended his course.

QUAY'S TRIP BEGUN.

He Refuses to Say Whether or Not He Will Stop at Harrisburg to See the Governor.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—(Special.)—Senators Quay and Penrose left at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Philadelphia, where they will have a conference with the local leaders. From Philadelphia they will proceed westward to attend Pittsburgh's celebration of the Fourth of July. Senator Quay will spend about two weeks in Pittsburgh and Beaver. Senator Penrose will return here early next week. Senator Quay, before leaving, declined to say whether he would stop at Harrisburg to call upon Gov. Stone.

HARRISBUGH, PA., July 1. (Special.)—Attorney General Elkin was at his office today for the first time since the Republican state convention. Mr. Elkin has been resting at his home in Indiana, Pa., with Public Buildings Superintendent Eyre, who reached here with Elkin this afternoon. The attorney general said he was here to attend to his public duties and not to attend a political conference.

THE PRESIDENT'S SUMMER.

Will Go to Oyster Bay from Pittsburgh. West Virginia Visit.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—(Special.)—It has about been decided that President Roosevelt will not return to Washington from Pittsburgh on Saturday, and that he will go from Pennsylvania direct to his home at Oyster Bay. He will not be in Washington again, except for short intervals, until late in October or early in November.

The president today promised Senator Elkins that he would stop in West Virginia either going or returning from his northwestern tour and make a speech or two in that state. The place to be selected and the date will be arranged with Secretary Cortelyou later on. The president had a cordial talk with Senator Elkins, who assured him that West Virginia would elect five Republicans to the house this fall. Senator Elkins said his invitation to the president was extended in behalf of the people of the state, who held the president in high esteem. Senator Elkins told the president that the failure of the senate to act on the Cuban reciprocity bill would not affect the Republican vote in that state in the least.

Death Caught a Brakeman.

W. H. Webber, a brakeman, was killed last night on the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad bridge between McKees Rocks and Duquesne. He was 28 years old and lived near Altoona.

Diving Dogs and Aerial Artists

At traction parks. See Laville's acrobatic and comedy dogs perform and hear Phinney's big band play this afternoon and evening at Kennywood. Against James A. Clark.

Third district—John F. Ennis, Andrew Hopkins and John Boland.

Seventh—Joseph S. Evans.

In the Third district there will be a contest. John Ennis is on both slates, and he says that he will be against Clark.

How Martin Won.

The Third district was called to meet in common council chamber at 7:30 o'clock. Sixteen sturdy policemen were present to preserve order. Dennis J. Boyle was named as temporary chairman by Chairman Alcorn. He was present, and shortly after the appointed hour ordered the police to clear the then crowded room. Everyone was to be ejected and the delegates were to be admitted later. Alderman John A. Martin thought he saw an attempt to pack the convention against him. He called to his delegates to remain in the room. There was a shout for Martin and a rush into the chamber. Boyle was then asked to call the meeting to order and declined. Joseph Little, a Martin man, rapped for order and proclaimed M. Kane the provisional chairman. Kane assumed his duties and named secretaries. Boyle appeared surprised, but did not mix in. He had been outwitted and decided that the only thing to do was to take a back seat and hold a convention of his own after Martin had finished. The Martin people next appointed a committee on contests that withdrew to a corner and in about five minutes had thrown 15 Boyle delegates off the roll and reinsted them with friends of the squire. This done, Andrew Hopkins was elected permanent chairman. He announced that 55 out of the 58 precincts were represented. A committee of five was authorized to name candidates for assemblymen. The chair named Joseph Butler, Thomas Kenna, J. S. Todd, Thomas Kane and Andrew Hopkins.

Resolution Committee Prompt.

A committee on resolutions held a short meeting in the corner, and then made a report. Fusion with the Citizens was indorsed on an equitable basis. The county convention was called upon to name two Democrats for county commissioner. The candidacy of J. J. Miller for orphan's court judge and George H. Stengel for register was indorsed. Another resolution declared for at least one Democratic candidate for assembly in the district. A change in the county rules that will give just representation to the rank and file was demanded with a yell of approval.

The convention elected John F. Ennis, Andrew Hopkins and John Boland as delegates to the county convention. They had no opposition. This ended the business of the meeting, but Martin decided to hold the hall until midnight. Boyle and his friends remained in the room, but did not attempt to interfere with the proceedings. In order to keep possession Martin ordered oratory. George H. Stengel was called and was told he could talk for two hours. Stengel is in sympathy with the Martin convention, and has served notice on Clark that Martin's delegation must be seated in the county convention or there will be trouble.

Chill for Pattison.

In the course of his speech Stengel mentioned the name of Robert E. Pattison. There was no applause. Almost the same thing happened when James E. O'Donnell tried to get applause for Pattison.

In order to keep up the oratory a number of men made short speeches. Martin was among the number. He had been talking for some time when Jack McClelland and Ed Dana, who were seated near Boyle, suddenly jumped to their feet and started to fight. The police mixed in and finally stopped the trouble. Martin called to his people to remain in the hall, as it was a scheme of the opposition to get possession. He started to speak again, and Boyle, tired of waiting called to his men to follow him to the reception room. They did so and in about 10 minutes Boyle had completed the roll, appointed a committee to name candidates for assembly, named himself, John F. Ennis and Peter Harity delegates to the county convention and adjourned the meeting. There were a number of the men who had participated in the Martin convention in the Boyle gathering. After Boyle had adjourned his meeting Martin brought his convention to a close.

Wrangled in the Fifth.

The Fifth district convention was held in select council chamber. While the friends of Clark were in control, Patrick Foley and a few others were not in accord with the majority. W. J. Brennen presided and the slate named above was put through. Tim O'Leary was secretary.

James McKenna nominated Dr. W. C. Bryant for assembly, hoping to break the fusion slate. Charles Fagan named the fusion candidates. The roll call showed 91 votes for the fusionists and 45 for Bryant. During voting Chairman Brennen had a man thrown out of the convention.

When nominations for county delegates were in order the slate of 12 was put in. Foley named 8 others, but failed to get enough votes for them. After the nominations had closed, a couple of men tried to put in slates and were ruled out by Brennen. The chair was denounced as a dictator. The delegates were instructed to vote for the indorsement of the fusion ticket.

Want a Legislative Place.

The Democratic convention in the First legislative district, held in the Allegheny common council chamber last night, was presided over by James H. Stewart and William L. Spangenberg was secretary. A resolution was adopted endorsing the fusion ticket, and a committee was appointed to confer with the citizens' committee on a candidate for the legislature from the First district.

The Citizens' party has already selected a candidate, but the Democrats want a Democrat nominated. Richard McCormick, Harry Jordan and John Voelker were selected as the committee. John Giesler, Robert Beck, Harry Jordan and James H. Stewart were nominated for delegates to the county convention. There were three to elect. Giesler and Beck had 15 votes each, and Stewart and Jordan nine and a half votes each. Stewart and Jordan will each have a half vote in the convention. The Democratic state ticket was endorsed.

The convention of the Second legislative district was held in Allegheny council chamber. John H. Keane presided, and Andrew O'Connor was secretary.

Action in Second District.

The Citizens' party county ticket was endorsed and it was decided that the president of the convention be authorized to appoint a committee of three to confer with a committee from the Citizens' party regarding the nomination of a candidate for the legislature. Henry Meyer, Charles B. Hollar and John Brown were elected delegates to the county convention.

William J. Ryan was last night nominated by acclamation as a candidate for the legislature in the Fourth district, at a Democratic convention held in the Ralston schoolhouse. In a letter to the convention John J. Sweeney withdrew from the contest, and Magistrate Bernard McKenna, in behalf of the Sweeney faction, promised firm support for Ryan, saying that no enmity existed in the Democracy of Allegheny county. Perfect harmony prevailed and the squad of policemen detailed to preserve order had little to do.

A resolution was adopted calling on the county executive committee to solicit George W. Guthrie to accept the candidacy for lieutenant governor. The Erie platform was ratified and the county committee was instructed to use its best endeavors to effect an agreement with the Citizens' party.

Chairman Alcorn has not fixed a date for the county convention. It may be held this week.

In the Sixth.

The Sixth district convention was held in select council chamber, Pittsburgh, yesterday morning. Caspar Mayer of Bridgeville presided. There was no trouble about the temporary roll and Mayer explained this by saying that there are no Judases in the Sixth. The slate of delegates given above, with the exception of the name of G. A. Conrad, was offered. Edward Connelly was the last man on the list. There were a number of nominations made and Conrad was among the number. He was elected.

Chairman Payne of the resolutions committee submitted a set of resolutions. The Democratic state platform was indorsed and George W. Guthrie was called upon to accept the nomination for lieutenant governor. A committee of three was authorized to certify nominations and fill vacancies. A resolution was adopted indorsing fusion on the county ticket, but demanding Democratic representation on the legislative ticket. Effort will be made to have the fusionists agree to the substitution of a Democrat for one of the Republican nominees.

Quiet in the Seventh.

The Seventh district convention was held in Allegheny City hall, with George A. Koehler in the chair. There was no trouble over the roll. James A. Clark, Dr. W. E. Johnston and Alderman John A. Martin, the three candidates for county commissioner, made speeches in which considerable ginger was injected.

Alderman Martin said that he was opposed to ratifying the work of the Democratic committee of 10 because it had held three star chamber sessions. He also claimed that it did not have the support of the party. He announced that he would rather vote for an honest Republican than a dishonest Democrat.

Clark defended the committee of 10 and said that its action should be indorsed. He declared that there was nothing dishonest about the fusion movement.

Dr. Johnston asked the convention to work in harmony with the Citizens.

The convention then indorsed the fusion county and legislative tickets. There were three delegates to the county convention and the anti-Clark man elected one. A committee was appointed to fill vacancies.

Met at McKeesport.

The Eighth district convention was held in McKeesport yesterday morning. J. E. O'Donnell was the chairman. There were no contested seats. In all of the other conventions a resolution was adopted urging George W. Guthrie to accept the lieutenant governor nomination.

The one fight in the convention was over the nomination of a candidate for assemblyman. Samuel G. Bailey, a Republican, has been nominated by the Citizens. There was a motion made to indorse him, which caused a long discussion. Many delegates thought it would be better to have a straight Democrat in the district. Finally a vote was taken on whether the convention would nominate. It was decided by a vote of 83 to 32 that the matter be left to a committee. Five men will be named to wrestle with the question, and it is altogether probable that Bailey will be indorsed. There was no contest for delegates to the county convention and the slate went through.

WINDOW GLASS DIVIDEND.

It Was Declared at Yesterday's Meeting of Directors.

The board of directors of the American Window Glass Company held a meeting yesterday and declared a quarterly dividend of $1.50 a share on the common stock. This is the fourth successive quarterly dividend, so that for the last twelvemonth the stock is on a 6 per cent basis. The dividend is payable on July 15 to stockholders of record on July 6.

The owners of the new window glass blowing machine, who are stockholders in the company, made a proposition to the directors to sell the company the exclusive use of the machine in the United States. The board took the proposition under consideration. It is declared that all the directors think the offer is very liberal, as they believe the machine is a commercial success. No public tests have been made, but the machine has been fully tested by the owners.

Bedford Teachers Re-Elected.

The Bedford sub-district school board, Twenty-ninth ward, last evening re-elected E. W. Talby principal. The old corps of teachers was retained.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OF CAPT. AND MRS. ACKARD AT HOMESTEAD

Capt. and Mrs. A. C. Ackard.

The golden wedding anniversary of Capt. and Mrs. A. C. Ackard of Homestead was celebrated yesterday. The aged couple are among Homestead's oldest residents and for many years Capt. Ackard was one of the best known river captains on the Monongahela river. He was born near West Newton 71 years ago and has spent the greater part of his life in the vicinity of Homestead. Mrs. Ackard was born at Wests Run, now Hays borough, 66 years ago. Her maiden name was Mary J. Lynch, her parents being pioneer settlers in Mifflin township. Capt. and Mrs. Ackard were married 50 years ago in Pittsburgh by Justice Steel. Mr. and Mrs. Ackard have five children living at present. They are Mrs. James D. Hays of Homestead, Thomas J. Ackard, Homestead; A. O. Ackard, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Edward Stewart, Marian, Ind., and Mrs. John F. Cox of Homestead. There are also nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The anniversary yesterday was held at the home of Mrs. John F. Cox, on Fifth avenue, and was attended only by the immediate members of the family.

TEACHERS LEAVE TOMORROW NIGHT

ALL READY FOR THE GAZETTE AND CHRONCILE TELEGRAPH TOUR.

Special Pullman Sleepers Have Been Engaged on the 7:10 Train on the Pennsylvania Railroad — Plans for the Fourth in New York.

The successful teachers in The Pittsburgh Gazette and Chronicle Telegraph contest will start on their trip through Europe tomorrow night. Besides the teachers who were successful in the contest there are a number of their friends who are bearing their own expense, so that there will be 34 in the party.

They will leave Pittsburgh on the train leaving the Union station over the Pennsylvania railroad at 7:10 tomorrow night. All tickets have been supplied them, baggage tags have been furnished, and all is in readiness for the start. There will be quite a crowd at the station to bid them goodbye and bon voyage. Two of the finest Pullman sleepers will be required for the party.

On arrival in New York on Friday morning carriages already engaged will take the tourists to the Fifth Avenue hotel, where breakfast will be served. The entire day of the Fourth will be devoted to sight-seeing in New York. At 7 o'clock will be the parting dinner in a private dining room. One very important part of this meal will be just before the parting with the circulation manager of the two newspapers, who has gone to New York to see that there is not a hitch in the plans of starting. At the close of the dinner he will present to each of the teachers a purse of $50 in gold for spending money on the trip. British gold it is too, so that there will be no trouble in changing money on the other side. Nothing has been overlooked. In addition to the British gold there is $2.50 with which to pay sleeper fare on the return trip from New York to Pittsburgh. This is the only item of fare that has not been provided for by tickets.

When the presentation is over it will be time for members of the party to send the last goodbyes to friends by mail or wire. Carriages will take the tourists to the Atlantic Transport Company's landing at pier 28, North river, where the members will be assigned to their staterooms on the steamer Minnehaha, which will be their home for 10 days.

Before all have awakened on Saturday morning hawsers will have been slipped and the big steamer will have been warped from her dock by two or three little wheezy tugs and headed for the Narrows. Before noon the last view of the United States will have disappeared in the distance.

On July 15 the party will be heard from in England. Letters will come regularly from the party, so that all of the friends and acquaintances of the teachers will be fully informed as to the movements of the party, and of the many wonderful and beautiful sights that are seen.

CONGRESSMEN GO HOME.

A Number of Them Plan to Help Pittsburgh Celebrate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—(Special.)—Representatives Graham, Jack and Sibley left for their homes tonight, but will be in Pittsburgh on the Fourth. Representative Dalzell, also will be on hand at the celebration, but will return here to attend to some departmental matters. Representative Evans will leave for home tomorrow, as will also Representatives Hall and Acheson. Representative Bates will leave on Thursday night and go home via Pittsburgh.

Other members of the Pennsylvania delegation have signified their intention of being in Pittsburgh to help celebrate on Friday. The Eastern Ohio representatives and the delegation from West Virginia will remain here a few days to attend to departmental matters.

FIRM NAME CHANGED.

It Is Caused by Philander C. Knox's Cabinet Appointment.

The name of the distinguished Pittsburgh law firm of Knox & Reed has been changed to Reed, Smith, Shaw & Beal. The change is the result of the appointment of Philander C. Knox, the former senior member of the firm, to the position of attorney general of the United States. When this appointment came to Mr. Knox he resigned from the firm and the remaining partners decided upon the change in its name. The former firm has been in existence since 1877 and its members have been prominent in many of the most noted legal cases since that time.

The partners of the newly named firm of Reed, Smith, Shaw & Beal are Judge J. H. Reed, Edwin W. Smith, George E. Shaw, James H. Beal, George B. Mothersal and Samuel McClay.

STONE'S COMPANY IS GIVEN INCREASE OF STATE MONEY

Treasurer Harris Increases Deposit of Mercantile Trust to $100,000.

CLEARFIELD DOES WELL

Official's Home Town Has $50,000 More in Stock Than Before He Took the Office—Makes His Report for June.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Harrisburg, Pa., July 1.—State Treasurer Harris has increased the state deposit in Gov. Stone's trust company, the Mercantile of Pittsburgh, from $70,000 to $100,000 and added eight new depositories to the 62 favorite banks and trust companies in which the general fund was deposited on May 31.

Harris' report for June shows a balance of $10,424,871 72 in the general fund, exclusive of a balance of about $3,500,000 in the sinking fund. The regular and special appropriation to the schools, the amount of which is $5,750,000, became due June 1, and the demand by the school districts for their share of the fund is so great that the treasurer expects to begin payment within 30 days.

More than half of the 2,500 districts have filed their annual reports on which the payment is made in the department of public instruction, and of these Harrisburg is the only district which has been paid.

The balance in the general fund at the close of yesterday's business was the largest in the state's history, and has given Harris an opportunity to increase the state deposit in the Mercantile Trust Company and other favorite institutions. Cashier Pearce of the state treasury said tonight that all the bills for the quarter ending yesterday have been paid and that the indications are that the balance in the treasury at the close of the present month would exceed $11,000,000. The new depositories and the amount held by each are as follows: Clearfield Trust Company, Clearfield, $50,000; Mercer County National bank, Mercer, $10,000; Moshannon National bank, Philipsburg, $25,000; Monongahela Trust Company, Homestead, $25,000; National Bank of Jersey Shore, $30,000; Philadelphia National bank, Philadelphia, $100,000; Union National bank, Minersville, $20,000; Union Trust Company, Lancaster, $10,000.

Two of these institutions are in Harris' home county of Clearfield, and neither had a state deposit before he became state treasurer.

The list of state depositories in Western Pennsylvania and the amount held by each follows: Allegheny National Bank, Pittsburgh, $928,389 62; Freehold Bank, Pittsburgh, $454,622 12; American Trust Company, Pittsburgh, $150,000; Anchor Savings Bank, Pittsburgh, $135,000; Allegheny Trust Company, Allegheny, $50,000; Columbia National Bank, Pittsburgh, $250,000; Citizens National Bank, Washington, $25,000; Dollar Savings Fund & Trust Company, Allegheny, $50,000; Citizens National Bank, Latrobe, $25,000; Enterprise National Bank, Allegheny, $307,000; Exchange National Bank, Pittsburgh, $100,000; Colonial Trust Company, Pittsburgh, $950,000; Farmers Deposit National Bank, Pittsburgh, $200,000; Franklin Trust Company, $50,000; First National Bank, Somerset, $25,000; First National Bank, Uniontown, $110,000; First National Bank, Oakdale, $10,000; First National Bank, Donora, $35,000; First National Bank, Beaver, $50,000; Federal National Bank, Pittsburgh, $100,000; German National Bank, Allegheny, $50,000; German National Bank, Pittsburgh, $170,000; Keystone Bank, Pittsburgh, $50,000; Prudential Trust Company, Pittsburgh, $25,000; Second National Bank, Pittsburgh, $100,000; Second National Bank, Allegheny, $240,000; Title Guarantee & Trust Company, Washington, $50,000; Union Trust Company, Pittsburgh, $85,000; Union Deposit & Trust Company, Waynesburg, $50,000; Washington Trust Company, Washington, $25,000; Westmoreland Savings & Trust Company, Greensburg, $50,000; Warren Trust Company, Warren, $25,000.

Thinks It Is Silas Carter.

Superintendent of Police McAleese feels confident that Charles Butler, who was arrested in Mt. Vernon, N. Y., on Saturday on a charge of larceny, is Silas Carter, the slayer of Policeman James Sheehy. Last night he received word that Butler had been sent to the Kings county workhouse for six months. A photograph and measurements will be forwarded to McAleese at once.

Trehane's Letter Ignored.

George W. Perkins of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., when asked today if he would make any reply to the open letter addressed to him by John Trehane of London, on the subject of the $200,000,000 stock conversion plan of the United States Steel Corporation, laughed as he answered: "No, certainly not; what nonsense!"

In Wall street circles it was generally said that the Trehane letter was only a part of a bear attack on the company's stock, the leader of which is Thomas W. Lawson of Boston.

It was said today by a financier of some prominence that the rise of 3½ points yesterday in the price of the stock of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company was due to the probability that it is going to be absorbed by the United States Steel Corporation. According to the authority quoted, when J. P. Morgan & Co. purchased the control of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company from John W. Gates, they got it at a low figure because Mr. Morgan promised, in consideration therefor to take Colorado Fuel & Iron Company into the United States Steel Corporation. The passing of the dividend by Colorado Fuel, contrary to being the result of a disagreement between Mr. Gates and Mr. Osgood, as reported, was simply the result of a deal between them, so that a "short" interest in the stock might be caused among the public and traders. The turning of the property over to the United States Steel might be accomplished any time over night.

THE BOND LITIGATION.

It Will Be Taken Up by the New Jersey Court of Appeals, but Immediate Decision Not Expected.

TRENTON, N. J., July 1.—(Special.)—A preliminary conference of the court of errors and appeals to consider the appeal from the injunction granted by the chancery court restraining the conversion of $200,000,000 of preferred stock of the United States Steel Corporation into bonds, is to be held next Monday. It is not anticipated that a decision will be reached at this conference, but the case is almost certain to be disposed of at an early date.

Robert H. McCarter, representing Mirlam Berger, who secured the injunction, today filed a brief in support of his contention that the injunction should be made permanent. He severely criticises the proposed change, which he declares is for the sole purpose of enabling J. P. Morgan & Co. to make a commission of $8,000,000.

THE NEWSBOYS' BAND.

It Played to Several Thousand People at Highland Park.

The Chicago Newsboys' band, appearing this week at Southern park, moved over to Highland last night and gave a delightful concert to several thousand people. Under the direction of Conductor O. B. Reichert the youngsters forming this novel band played a program of popular airs in such an acceptable manner that every number on the bill was encored.

Recorder Brown has arranged with officials of the Pittsburgh Railways Company to allow the Schenley park concert tomorrow night to be given by Helen May Butler's band, of Providence, composed of 30 young women who are now playing at Oakwood park. The break in the traction parks' programs will be filled by Rocereto's concert band.

New Castle Man Struck Down by Robber; Two Trainmen Are Killed in Collision

STRUCK DOWN BY A ROBBER

New Castle Man Is Knocked Unconscious in His Residence.

ATTACKED IN DAY LIGHT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW CASTLE, PA., July 1.—James English of Crescent avenue was attacked at his home this afternoon, by a robber who knocked him down with a blow from behind and then ransacked the dwelling. Mrs. English came home and found her husband unconscious on the floor, while all about him were strewn the contents of cupboards.

Mr. English had been struck before he saw the intruder. His head was badly injured. The police have discovered no clue. The robbery took place in the heart of a fine residence district.

John Anderson of South Mill street this morning confessed to robbing the residence of Samuel Wilkinson of Shenango township, Sunday morning. He entered through a window and took $40 from a dresser, where four times that amount was hidden. Wilkinson discovered the theft yesterday. County Detective J. L. McFate was notified and last night arrested Anderson, who is 20 years old, and has spent three years in Morganza, having been sent there from Greenville, Pa.

WEST BRIDGEWATER, PA., July 1.—A chest full of account books, belonging to the American Cement & Tile Company of Detroit, Mich., was found on the bank of the Ohio river near here this morning, by Peter Winter of this place. There were also two bank books of the firm. The chest had evidently been stolen from a freight car, as it had been broken open. The books were in good condition.

Contractors Blamed for Death.

NEW CASTLE, PA., July 1.—(Special.)—Contractors Parke and Hamilton, of Youngstown, who are constructing the New Castle & Sharon Electric railway, were last night held accountable by Coroner Porter for the death of Father Taylor, who was killed on the road at midnight Sunday. The dead man was thrown off a flat car under the wheels of the work train when the train collided with an obstruction.

Clearfield Republican Ticket.

CLEARFIELD, PA., July 1.—The Clearfield county Republican convention here today indorsed ex-Congressman W. C. Arnold for congress and A. E. Patton for the state senate, nominated Harry Boultin and Fred Schofield for the assembly and W. C. Goss for county treasurer. B. F. Chase was re-elected county chairman. The convention was harmonious.

Earthquake at Rock Point.

NEW CASTLE, PA., July 1.—(Special.)—The Rock Point picnic grounds were visited by a violent disturbance last night. The earth rocked violently and the inhabitants were greatly frightened. The disturbance continued for more than a minute and the guests rushed from the Rock Point hotel, believing that the building was about to fall.

Farmer's Enemy Shoots Stock.

WOOSTER, O., July 1.—(Special.)—Daniel Leichty, a farmer living near Orrville, reports that when he went to his pasture field this morning he found five sheep and five cows suffering from gunshot wounds. Two of the cows and three of the sheep had to be killed. Leichty has suffered in this way from some unknown enemy.

Class Day at Clarion.

CLARION, PA., July 1.—(Special.)—This was class day at the State Normal school and this afternoon the cornerstone of the $15,000 gymnasium was laid, with interesting exercises. Ralph Long, for the seniors, made a speech for the class; Dr. John S. Shirley spoke for the trustees and the Rev. Horace R. Goodchild made the address of the afternoon. Tonight the alumni banquet was held.

EIGHTH U. P. CHURCH TO SELL ITS PROPERTY.

Trustees Were Authorized to Receive Bids—Will Build Near the Present Site.

The trustees of the Eighth United Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh were authorized at the annual congregational meeting last evening to receive bids for the church lot and building, with the purpose of selling the property and constructing a new church on another site in the same neighborhood.

The Eighth church is one of the few remaining down-town churches. Its location is at Locust and Van Braam streets. The congregation does not wish to move to the East End, as has been the plan of so many of the downtown churches, but prefers to stay near its present site and turn more toward the institutional methods favored by churches similarly situated. To do this, a more modern building will be necessary.

The report of the treasurer of the church, John S. Lambie, showed the finances to be in good shape, there being no debt, but on the other hand a considerable balance in the treasury. It was voted to expend about $500 in repairs to the church, including some fresco work. A $300 increase in the salary of the pastor, the Rev. Dr. J. M. Wallace, was also authorized. Dr. Wallace has been pastor of this church upward of 20 years.

In the report of the growth of the church a membership of 240 was shown, an increase of 27 during the year There have been no deaths in the congregation in the year past. The Sunday school has about 400 pupils. Of this E. S. Morrow is superintendent and S. B. Charters assistant superintendent.

ON THE VERGE OF BUILDING BOOM.

Contractors and Builders Rushing Extensive Building Preparations at Braddock Park.

Braddock Park property, put on the market a few weeks back, will see in a very short time the greatest building boom that has yet taken place in this vicinity. People who bought lots during the big sales are making mighty endeavor to get their homes under way. Every outlook points to a community of envious beauty.

But Braddock Park property owners say there is no section more worthy of a rapid growth. They point to its location as a basis for this claim. Braddock Park adjoins the boroughs of Braddock and Rankin, and lies between the boroughs of Swissvale and North Braddock, and abuts on the Pennsylvania railroad. They realize the further enhancement bound to occur when the new short line of street railway from Braddock to Wilkinsburg passes through the property.

It is an ideal location for the workingman. It is just far enough removed from the gigantic industries which line this section as to be free from soot and dirt—a great many of these works being within easy walking distance. It is also within 10 minutes' distance (5-cent car fare), of Homestead, where, but the other day over 15,000 workmen's wages were voluntarily advanced 10 per cent.

It is doubtful if there was ever before a property possessing such scenic grandeur put upon the market—surely no realty so worthy ever sold at figures so modest.

The manner in which the choice lots still left are being secured by the tardy purchasers predicts a clean sweep of the entire plan, and that before many days have passed.

EX-POLICE CHIEF IS SHOT DEAD

James Childers Killed by a Fire Lieutenant at Clarksburg.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLARKSBURG, W. VA., July 1.—James Childers, ex-chief of police of this city, was shot and killed in the Crescent saloon this evening by William Myers, second lieutenant of the city fire department.

Myers had been drinking, and was engaged in a row with Charles Hurst, when Childers interfered and Myers drew his revolver and shot Childers through the heart.

Childers was about 40 years of age and leaves four small children, his wife having died some time ago.

Myers was arrested and the coroner's jury returned a verdict that Childers came to his death by a gunshot wound by Myers.

PLANS NEAR COMPLETION.

Drawings for State Capitol to Be Submitted Saturday.

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(Special.)—The detail drawings of the $4,000,000 capitol building, on which Architect Joseph M. Houston of Philadelphia, and 40 assistants have been at work since early in May, will be completed Saturday.

Gov. Stone has called a meeting of the commission for July 9 at the executive chamber to take final action on the plans and prepare to advertise for a contractor.

A careful examination of the character of the soil in Capitol park for the foundation for the proposed building has been made by drilling. The commission expects to have everything in shape to begin work on the building about the middle of September.

TO BUILD MINING TOWN.

Several Farms Purchased for Coal Development Near Canonsburg.

CANONSBURG, PA., July 1.—(Special.)—Henry Wick of Youngstown, O., has purchased farms, both coal and surface, of H. O. McKnight, Edward Mercer, Joseph Rea and the McDowell heirs, in Chartiers and Mt. Pleasant townships, and will at once begin the development of the coal.

A mining town will be laid out and an extension of the Western Washington branch of the Panhandle will be built to the new mines. The average price was $250 per acre for coal and surface.

Street Fair at Charleroi.

CHARLEROI, PA., July 1.—(Special.)—The Elks street fair opened Monday, though owing to the weather conditions, nothing was done until today. The city is artistically decorated and the fair is free from fakirs and gambling of all description.

STATE AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

STEUBENVILLE, O.—The Bell weld furnace at the LaBelle tube mill has just broken the world's record by turning out 10,110 three-fourths-inch pipe in 22 hours.

ALTOONA, PA.—The body of John Repa, the miner entombed in the Conemaugh slope of the Cambria Steel Company Monday, was recovered.

LATROBE, PA.—Seeing his son drown and powerless to aid him, was the experience of Michael Zrock of Baggaley, whose 5-year-old son fell from the bridge across Four Mile run Monday and was carried by the current almost a mile.

MORE TESTIMONY IN SHERADEN INQUEST

Railroad Men Explain the Accident Which Resulted in the Explosion.

The truth of the Sheraden explosion on May 12 came to the surface yesterday at the second session of the coroner's inquest into the death of the 27 persons who lost their lives because of the explosion of naphtha. The truth is, too, just about as was published in the newspapers the morning after the accident.

The best story came from J. M. Wilson, who was the conductor of the train handling the cars that exploded. He said that with his crew he was making up a train. After the caboose had been set where wanted, eight cars were set against it. The engine then got 16 cars from another track to attach to the eight set against the caboose. These cars broke loose from the engine, unknown to the two brakemen on them, who, thinking they were in control of the engine, did not attempt to check their speed until too late. There was a collision in which the end sill of a tank car was broken so that it penetrated the end of another tank car.

The oil was allowed to run out, there being no way to prevent it. After the tank was supposed to be empty the wrecked car was drawn up the yard with the intention of putting it over on another track. In going up the yard the oil dripped on a switch light and this caused the fire. Wilson said that there were from 7,000 to 8,000 gallons of oil in a tank car. He was questioned closely about one of his brakemen named Bodle, whom he had been told cut the cars loose that caused the trouble. He said he did not know that Bodle cut the cars, and would not say that there was carelessness even if he did.

Another good witness was Thomas R. White, assistant yardmaster of the Corbs Run yard, where the explosion was. He told about the same story that Wilson did, and said he thought that Bodle had cut the cars in ignorance of the rules of the company. It is not customary to let oil cars drift or to kick them, as is done with other cars, he said. White said that as soon as the naphtha caught fire the crews in the yard went to work to draw cars away from the fire, but that in some way unknown to him five other oil cars were allowed to run down to where the cars were on fire and that they, too, caught fire and burned.

Charles H. Crentzer, John Gugan, Joseph Price and Charles Carter, all railroad men, testified to about the same as Wilson and White. In some minor details they differed, but in the main their stories were the same. Whether there was carelessness or not in the handling of the cars that night is for the jury to decide.

The inquest was adjourned until Tuesday, July 8, at 10 a. m. At that time, if any person has any information to give the jury as to the cause of the accident, an opportunity will be given them to tell what they know. It is probable that the session next Tuesday will be the last.

TWO KILLED BY COLLISION

Locomotive Crashed Into the Middle of a Train on a "Y."

BODIES TAKEN FROM DEBRIS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

FREEPORT, PA., July 1.—Shortly after last midnight a side-swipe collision between two trains at Kiskiminetas junction killed two men. They were:

J. H. FLEMMING, engineer, of East Brady.
HARRY HOAK, fireman, of Freeport.

The collision occurred just below the station at the Y. A West Penn freight was backing in on the Y when the Valley freight was going south, the engine crashing into the middle of the freight, causing a general smash-up. The engine was overturned and the engineer and fireman were killed instantly, being pinioned under the debris. It was three hours before the wrecking crew got the dead bodies out, and they were brought here this morning.

Flemming was 28 years old, married, and leaves a widow and one child at East Brady. His body was sent home this afternoon. Hoak was single, aged 19 years, and was the only child of Mrs. Hoak, a widow of this place.

PREPARING FOR ENCAMPMENT.

Canvas Being Shipped from State Arsenal to Gettysburg.

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(Special.)—Shipments began today on the canvas from the state arsenal for the division encampment of the National guard of Pennsylvania at Gettysburg on July 12 to 19, and a large force of laborers from the arsenal will be employed in getting the camp in readiness for the troops.

Company D, Eighth regiment, Harrisburg, and the Second City troop, Philadelphia, have been detailed to do provost duty during the arrival of the troops. The detail will be under command of Lieutenant Colonel Hutchison of this city and will be sent to Gettysburg on July 9, to insure the safety of property against damage by the soldiers.

Purchased Home for Elks.

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(Special.)—Meade D. Detweiler, chairman of the National home committee, has purchased at receiver's sale the Hotel Bedford, at Bedford, Va., for a home for aged and indigent Elks. Mr. Detweiler said today on his return from Bedford that the committee may select another site in the near future west of the Mississippi river.

Allegheny School Controllers.

At the meeting of the Allegheny board of school controllers last night the high school committee was given full power to carry on the work of the new addition to the high school. The following teachers were elected—First ward, Adda M. Purdy; Second ward, Bell M. Hanna. Leitha Path, Ethel V. Caraway; Fourth ward, Stella Agnew; Eighth ward, Mary Omslear, Hanna Von Moss; Ninth ward, Maud Northend. The report of John Morrow, superintendent of schools, was as follows: Teachers employed, 408; pupils enrolled, males, 7,442, females 7,576. The pay roll for the month amounted to $28,100.

Body of Storchie Found.

The body of William E. Storchie, second engineer of the towboat Harry P. Jones, who fell overboard on the night of April 11, when the boat was near lock No. 2, Port Perry, was recovered last night at the foot of Eleventh street, Braddock. Storchie was 32 years of age and his home was in Syracuse, O. His father is engineer on the sandboat John C. Fisher.

4TH OF JULY SPECIALS.

Arrangements For Visitors to Pittsburgh Via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to Pittsburgh for the big 4th of July celebration Friday will be sold via Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio. The low rate covers stations from Stoneboro, Erie, New Castle, Ashtabula, Warren, Youngstown and other points on the Erie & Ashtabula division; from Cleveland, Ravenna, Bellaire, East Liverpool, Wellsville and points on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh division; from Crestline, Mansfield, Canton, Alliance and stations on the eastern division of the Ft. Wayne route, and from Columbus, Wheeling, Washington, Pa., and points on the Pan Handle route.

Arrangements to take care of the excursionists are complete and besides the extensive regular service to Pittsburgh, include a special train from Massillon and intermediate points to leave Massillon at 5:00 a. m. on the morning of July 4, and arriving Pittsburgh 8:20 o'clock central time. Returning it will leave Pittsburgh Union station at 10:30 p. m. central time, or half past eleven, Pittsburgh time, after the fireworks display. The special will stop at points between Beaver Falls and Massillon, to let off passengers. Another special train will leave Wellsville at 5:25 a. m. central time, arrive Allegheny at quarter past eight, city time.

Train No. 213, leaving Pittsburgh Union station at 11:20 p. m., city time, will run through Sharon and Youngstown on the night of July 4 in order that excursionists may return to their homes after the night festivities. Train No. 45, leaving Pittsburgh Union station at 11:55 p. m., Pittsburgh time, will also be extended on the night of July 4 to take passengers through to Wheeling and intermediate stations.

The sale of excursion tickets will commence tomorrow, July 3. Tickets will also be sold on the 4th, and will be good returning until Monday, July 7, which will allow ample time to take in all the exercises of the big celebration on Friday, the ball game between the Pittsburgh and Brooklyn clubs on Saturday, and the amusement parks on Sunday.

A bigger stock of both Silk and Wool Bunting Flags than we ever had, and sold for lower prices than good Flags ever sold for.

The Third Day of the Clearance

presents the same attractive underprices, the same interesting variety that drew such great audiences yesterday and Monday.

The very fact that thousands upon thousands of people came out in a pouring all-day rain, like that of Monday, goes to show that this Clearance Sale is of absorbing interest, and that people will spend money when there is a chance to save. Sort of paradoxical, but quite true.

It must be clearly understood that we cannot give a tithe of the clearance news for each of the week days in our daily news morning and evening. Every department is brim full of just such goods as are wanted right now, and they are sold for the most liberal reductions.

If the thing you most want does not happen to be mentioned, please do not accept that as evidence that it's not here.

Come and see. Most likely it is here, for we have pretty nearly everything for personal and household use—each and all with clearance prices attached.

The Little Prices on White Goods.

Every woman knows there hasn't been a season for many years in which white played so prominent a part in feminine dress as this present season. Everything is white, even white woolens.

Knowing this and seeing how we are clearing white goods, is it any wonder we are doing a tremendous white goods business?

Such clearance prices as these, for instance:

At 5c a yard,
You can buy 10c Lace Striped Lawns,
You can buy 10c Checked Nainsooks.

At 10c a yard,
You can buy 15c Striped Madras,
You can buy 15c Checked and Striped Dimities,
You can buy 15c Apron Lawns.

At 15c a yard,
You can buy 25c Mercerized Stripe Madras,
You can buy 25c Piques,
You can buy 25c Checked Dimities,
You can buy 25c Dotted Swisses.

At 20c a yard,
You can buy 25c and 30c a yard Persian Lawns, Embroidered Mulls, Stripe Madras and fancy Piques.

At 25c a yard,
You can buy 35c and 40c Mercerized Oxfords and figured Piques.

At $1.25 for the piece,
You can buy 12-yard pieces of English Nainsook that sold for $1.50, and for $1.50 you can buy 12-yard pieces that sold for $1.75.

Among the Silks for Clearance

none is attracting so much interest as the dress lengths in Black Grenadines that are selling at 78c a yard. Ordinarily Grenadines at that price would not be very satisfactory. But these are uncommonly good Grenadines—Grenadines that sold for $1.50, $1.75 and $2 a yard. And what is so becoming as the dress of black grenadine?

There is a lot of Black Silks for clearance at 65c a yard, comprising 90c and $1 grades of 24-inch figured Pongee, 20-inch Paillet de Soie, 21-inch Armure Brilliant, 20-inch Black Moire Velour and 20-inch Plain Louisine.

Also clearing away a lot of Black Faconne Taffeta for 48c a yard that sold for $1 a yard.

Colored Silks

are walking out at a lively rate. Couldn't be otherwise, seeing that prices are a half and in some cases two-thirds less than former prices.

On the whole the woman who has in mind to buy a silk dress will not have such another opportunity again this Summer to get something she can depend upon, and not pay very much for it.

D. & J. Anderson's Ginghams 25c a Yard

Sell regularly for 40c and 50c a yard.

You can't buy Anderson Ginghams before the 15th of June for less than those prices—40c and 50c. The firm does such a tremendous business that it sets the time when they can be reduced. Great firm that can do that.

Very few women but what know all about Anderson Ginghams—very few who have never used them.

Anderson Ginghams never change—just as good at 25c as they were at 40c and 50c.

Clearance Prices on Women's Fine and Finest Silk Petticoats.

The Women's section of the second floor, where the undermuslins and fine lingerie is on sale, has a number of handsome Silk Petticoats that will be sold at prices far from the originals.

It is one of the times when women can indulge in Petticoat finery and not pay very much for it.

Take the following as samples:

$6.50 for Petticoats that sold for $7.75 and up to $9. Graduated accordion flounce and ruffle, and, of course, under ruffle.

Beginning at $9.75 and graduating easily to $32.75, a fine collection of Silk Petticoats, not one of which did not sell for $5 and up to $10 more than what we now ask. The variety of designs and the different color shades are entirely too diversified to enter into concise description. About everything women like, including black and white and all black.

Dressing Sacques 50c—Sold for 75c and to $1.25.

Pretty Dressing Sacques that no woman could have made for the price we are now selling them for.

Choice of colored lawn with neat figures, or white lawn with colored borders.

And this is only a specimen of how women can buy these house garments under price. The finer ones, even those from Paris, have to come into this clearance.

Half Prices on Fine French and English China Plates.

Any woman who likes fine China can fill her desires by coming to our Basement China Department.

While the prices given are by the dozen, single plates can be bought at the proportionate price.

$80.00 Plates are now $40.00 a doz.
$50.00 Plates are now $25.00 a doz.
$40.00 Plates are now $20.00 a doz.
$30.00 Plates are now $15.00 a doz.
$25.00 Plates are now $12.50 a doz.
$18.00 Plates are now $ 9.00 a doz.
$15.00 Plates are now $ 7.50 a doz.

We are selling $20 hand-decorated Punch Bowls of finest French China for $12.50.

Safe From Summer Complaints

All mammas, and papas too for that matter, dread the heat of summer with it's danger for the little folks, especially the babies. It is simply heart-breaking to read year after year about the great death rate among children caused by the summer's heat. Yet it is easy to protect the infants against all summer complaints, because we know that all these fearful perils have their beginning in stomach and bowel troubles, and we have a perfect family medicine that will keep the delicate machinery in a child's body clean, regular and in healthy working order in the hottest weather—CASCARETS Candy Cathartic. The plump, bouncing, crowing baby shown here is a CASCARET baby. He feels that way winter and summer. Nursing mammas take a CASCARET at bedtime, and it makes their mother's milk mildly purgative and keeps the baby just right. Older children like to take the fragrant, sweet little candy tablet, and are safe from colic, gripes, diarrhoea, summer rash, prickly heat and all the mean troubles that summer brings with it.

NINTH ANNUAL MEETING HELD IN ALLEGHENY

Convention of the Eastern Manual Training Association in Session.

J. A. BRASHEAR'S ADDRESS

Papers Were Read by Prominent Educators on Topics of Interest to the Profession--The Evening Meeting Contained Social Features.

With few exceptions the convention program of the Eastern Manual Training association, which opened its ninth annual meeting yesterday in the Third ward public school in Allegheny, was carried through as previously arranged. About 100 delegates, men and women, are in attendance. The various features of the work and pleasure of yesterday passed off with much enthusiasm. The convention will end this afternoon with an excursion, the details of which will be announced this morning.

The sessions began yesterday morning with an address of welcome by John Morrow of the Allegheny public schools. Most of the morning session was devoted to a paper on "The Educational Value of Fine Arts Studies" by Dr. R. G. Boone, superintendent of public education of Cincinnati, O. A paper was to have been read by Miss Clara Isabel Mitchell of the school of education of the University of Chicago on "The Correlation of Manual Training in the Elementary Schools," but it was postponed until this morning.

Address by John A. Brashear.

Opening the afternoon session was an address by Dr. John A. Brashear, acting chancellor of the Western University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Brashear spoke on "The Care of Fine Tools." He entered with some detail into the requisites for keeping the finer instruments used in laboratories and workshops in the condition that produces the best results. He was followed by Prof. Charles P. Binns, director of the New York School of Clay Working and Ceramics. Prof. Binns spoke upon "Handicraft in Clay." After describing the methods of preparing clay for use in manual training he told of its part in the modern world of art and practical use. The need of better methods, more economical and certain, in its preparation is being realized more and more generally, he said, and there is a great demand for the inventor who can improve the present methods. Ceramics as a means to livelihood offers many attractions to women, who have both the artistic taste and the technical training needful to succeed in the work. Prof. Edward Harton, dean of the faculty of the Ohio university, and Paul Krenzpointer, discussed the subjects.

Miss Irene Elizabath McDermott, teacher of domestic art in the Second ward schools of Allegheny, was to have read a paper on "Domestic Science and Domestic Art in the Development of Girls," but owing to the lack of time this paper was postponed until this morning. The afternoon session ended with a trip to the Heinz pickle works.

The Evening Meeting.

Last evening was devoted mainly to social enjoyment. The session opened with music by the Pittsburgh Orchestra club. A solo by William McDonald Dorrington and Bostonians followed. Dr. R. H. Holbrook, in charge of the South Side High school, spoke on "The Relation of Manual Training to the Industrial Situation of the Country." The evening ended with a general reception to visiting delegates and friends.

This morning the convention will assemble again at 9:30 o'clock. In addition to the postponed papers there will be the following new ones: "Development of the Individuality of the Child Through Sloyd," by Gustaf Larson of the Sloyd Training school of Boston; "Manual Training as a Factor in Ethical and Aesthetic Development," by Dr. W. N. Hallman, superintendent of the Dayton (O.) schools, and "A Craftsman's View of Manual Training," by Charles Rohlfs of Buffalo, N. Y.

This afternoon E. P. Chapin, principal of the Hackley Manual Training school of Muskegon, Mich., will discuss "The High School Problem." There will be a round-table led by President Daniel Upton of the association, and the election of officers for the coming year will be made. The rest of the day will be devoted to an excursion.

The officers of the association at present serving are: President, Daniel Upton of Buffalo; vice president, Mrs. Ida Hood Clark of Nashville, Tenn.; secretary and treasurer, Clifford B. Connally of Allegheny. The executive committee is composed of the president and secretary, ex officio, with George A. Stebbins of Chicago, George H. Bryant of Newport, R. I., and J. H. Tryhorn of Detroit, Mich.

The first day of the convention was considered a great success and it is said that this meeting is to be in all respects the best in the history of the association.

When delicate children grow strong through its use, you may be sure that it is safe for grown people, this pure strength-giver, Dr. D. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge.

GREAT SALE CHADWICK PLACE PLAN OF LOTS

Postponed on Account of Rain, Will Occur Next Friday & Saturday,

JULY 4th and 5th.

Remember that this is the choice East End property of which last week's newspapers contained pages of valuable information.

It's the property that's going to have the new $10,000,000 P. R. R. improvements which will open up a vast residential territory between the Lincoln and Frankstown avenue neighborhoods and Brilliant Station.

It's the only high-class East End property left that a person can purchase at acreage prices and not have to wait many months for big, quick premiums on the investment.

It's the only property with city improvements in the heart of a refined, compactly inhabited district, with magnificent colonial residences already built and being built all over it, that it was ever possible to buy at figures one-half to two-thirds lower than prices the owners of real estate next door to it paid.

It's the only fine realty in all Pittsburgh that a man who has only $15 to $50 in his pocket can buy and then hold by paying as little as $5 to $12 a month.

It's the only realty surrounded by property that has increased in value two to three times within a year.

It's the only realty that is traversed by good traction lines, within 28 minutes' ride of the city and near the boulevard, that is selling today at prices beneath actual market value.

$80 a foot was paid for Lincoln avenue frontage that bounds this property, and that portion of this very property itself fronting on Lincoln avenue (sold before the promoters had time to organize a sale) cannot be bought today from the lucky purchasers for less than five times the prices made possible by the present sale.

After this sale a meeting of the Board of Directors will be held to consider the question of advancing prices, but no action will be taken until the grand new Lincoln Avenue Bridge spanning Silver Lake, en route to the property, has been completed.

But your best interest lies in getting to the property and selecting your lot before the directors get together. When you see the lay of this land, and how it is improved, you will not wonder at the anxiety of the stockholders to revise the price list.

DON'T WAIT FOR YOUR NEIGHBOR!
ATTEND THE GREAT SALE AT ONCE!

Salesmen on the Property Day and Night.

Perfectly level lots commanding magnificent views, situated near the car line and railroad stations, will go in this first great sale at

$150	$190	$200
$250	$260	$275
$300	$325	$350
$375	$400	$425
$450	and	$500

There will be no lots offered at this sale at a higher price than $500, and there will be plenty of lots at all of the above prices for investors who are on the grounds early.

THE TERMS ARE 10 Per Cent Down; Balance $5 to $12 a Month. 10 Per Cent Discount for Cash.

The title is perfect, having been examined and guaranteed by the Fidelity Title & Trust Company of Pittsburgh.

Remember that the prices and terms are exactly as stated. We do not resort to the practice of advertising lower prices than we have, nor quoting catchy prices on only a few lots. Attractive prices are on all the lots.

Read These Directions Before Starting for Chadwick Place:

You can take traction cars at the corner of Wood street and Fifth avenue and get to the property in 28 minutes. The cars marked "Lincoln and Liberty Avenues" and cars bearing signs reading "East Liberty via Center Avenue" run direct to the plan without transfer. If you take the cars marked "Penn Avenue via Frankstown" you can transfer at Lincoln avenue. Wilkinsburg people can also transfer at this point.

Until the grand new Lincoln Avenue Bridge is finished passengers on the car line will have to transfer at bridge to cars in waiting at other end. The bridge is rapidly being pushed to completion; the American Bridge Company will have the structural steel work ready for erection as soon as the abutments are up.

FOR FREE CAR RIDE AND ANY FURTHER INFORMATION APPLY TO DAVIES & CO., Agent, 6128 PENN AVE., EAST END, Pittsburg, Pa., or AT OFFICE on the Property.

The members of the association have spent several busy days attending meetings, excursions and entertainments provided by the members of the local committees.

Many of them will remain in Pittsburgh for the celebration of Independence day, which promises to be one of the greatest ever held in the United States. Some of the members, however, will leave their homes tomorrow night, but Saturday will be generally considered as a holiday by the majority of the delegates and guests.

They have aided in the accumulation, increased the productive utilization and fostered the diffusion of wealth, but I submit that they are now supplemented and, in the course of progress already foreshadowed, will be still more powerfully reinforced by a greater force—that of the industrial combination and its legal adjunct, the business corporation.

"As the advantages which great corporations offer to those who can, through their agency, become sharers in the profits of capital as well as recipients of wages are more completely understood, and as the public realizes the great truth that the necessities of industry must always supercede legislative decrees, it will be seen that the general welfare of society will best be served by eliminating the element of speculation as much as possible from corporate affairs, by withdrawing the threat of adverse legislation, and by the uniform definition of the rights of owners of corporate securities and the duties of corporate managers."

Some Interesting Papers.

At Section B, the section of physics, yesterday morning a large number of important papers were read and discussed. Prof. Carhart brought forward some experiments which point very strongly toward a new theory of electrical cells.

J. S. Shearer has taken up the study of expansion co-efficients between the temperature of melting ice and that of liquid air. This work was called for in order that standard apparatus for low temperature work may be properly designed. Prof. Mohler of Cornell described a very interesting plant, in which a potential of 12,000 volts is gotten by running 24 dynamos of 500 volts each in series. W. Ambler and F. Allen, after a careful set of experiments on a liquid air machine, find that 116 grams of this substance can be made by one-horse power in one hour, and that only about 2 per cent of all the energy expended is stored up in the liquid. Nichols and Hull have revised their determination of the pressure exerted by light, and find that it varies only 4 per cent from that deduced from theory. Dr. F. Allen presented some results of important bearing upon the theory of how we see colors.

LOCAL NEWS OF GREATER PITTSBURGH

Yesterday's Health Report—Four cases of typhoid fever and one of scarlet fever were reported to the Pittsburgh bureau of health yesterday.

Want Principal to Resign—The Tarentum school board has requested Prof. C. E. Carter, principal of the borough schools, to resign. Prof. Carter has two years of his term to serve.

Miner Met Instant Death—Adam Jacobs, 40 years old, a miner living near Carnegie, was instantly killed yesterday morning at Gladden station by being struck by a Panhandle railroad train.

House Wrecked by Landslide—The home of Matthew Brown at Lashells landing on the Ohio river opposite Sewickley, was wrecked yesterday morning by a landslide. The family escaped injury.

Father Charged With Neglect—The Western Pennsylvania Humane society has lodged an information against Frederick Hammer of No. 2117 Wylie avenue, charging him with the neglect of his three minor children.

Will Not Remove Academy—The report that the Ursuline academy is to be moved from Pittsburgh to Butler county is denied by the Ursuline sisters. They recently had extensive improvements made to their property.

Keefe Robbed of $20—Rose Borden, 23 years old, colored, and Patrick Keefe, 35 years old, white, were arrested last night at No. 450 Water street and locked up as suspicious persons. Keefe says the colored woman robbed him of $20.

Injuries Cause Death—John M. Dougherty, 32 years old, of No. 420 Rebecca avenue, Wilkinsburg, died yesterday at the West Penn hospital as a result of being struck by a train while riding a bicycle near Brushton. He was married.

New Summer Home Secured—The Meeds residence in Oakmont has been secured by the Children's Day Nursery of Allegheny for a summer home for poor children. It is being arranged for the reception of a number of children this week.

Drowning at Tarentum—While playing in a boat moored directly in front of his parents' home, Edward Weiss, aged 12 years, of Pearl street, Tarentum, fell into the Allegheny river yesterday afternoon and was drowned. His body was recovered.

Old Railroader Pensioned—John Power, 69 years old, an old-time railroad conductor living at Pleasant Valley, near Sharpsburg, has been notified that he has been placed on the pension list created by Andrew Carnegie for his aged friends and employes.

Was Shot by His Brother—Frank Burgess, colored, is at the Allegheny General hospital suffering from a gunshot wound in his arm. Monday night he had a quarrel with his brothers John, at their home, and the latter emptied the contents of a shotgun into his arm.

Interesting Snapshots—"Snapshots of Africa, Asia and Europe" will be the subject of the free stereopticon lecture by the Rev. S. Edward Young in the Second Presbyterian church this evening, the pictures being made and colored from photographs just taken abroad.

Officers of Painters—Pittsburgh local No. 6 of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers has elected the following officers: Frank E. Griggs, president; James A. Clark, vice president; Alexander Hunter, conductor, and Charles E. Campbell, warden.

Will Reorganize—A reorganization of the Ferguson Tinplate company, which has its plant at Torrens street and the Pennsylvania railroad, is contemplated, and a charter will be applied for on July 24. The incorporators are M. S. and J. McD. Ferguson and A. S. Speer.

Coroner's Work in June—Coroner Jesse M. McGeary during June investigated 162 cases. Of that number six were murders and 10 suicides. Ninety-three were killed by railroads, 20 died of heart disease, 15 of burns, six were drowned and 13 died of injuries received by falls.

Lumberman Was Drowned—James Forness, a lumberman of Clarion, was drowned in the Ohio river at McKees Rocks at noon yesterday. He was working on a fleet of rafts and fell into the river, and was drowned before assistance could reach him. His body was taken to the morgue.

Another Traction Victim—Frank Parsons, 46 years old, of Powell, O., who was struck by a traction car at Glenwood station yesterday morning, died at Mercy hospital in the afternoon. He had been living with his brother-in-law, L. M. Davis, at No. 430 Flowers avenue, Hazelwood.

Barbers' Schedule Arranged—The boss barbers of Duquesne Heights, West End, Elliott borough, Crafton and Ingram have decided to close their shops at 7 o'clock Thursday evenings and at 8 o'clock other evenings, except Saturday, when 11 o'clock will be the closing hour. Uniform prices have also been arranged.

Named After an Old Family—Hays Park postoffice, with Charles Schultz as postmaster, opened yesterday. The office is in Mifflin township, near Monhall, at what was formerly known as Whittaker. The Hays family, in whose honor the new office has been named, were early settlers in the lower Monongahela valley.

Mortality Among Children—Sixty-seven children under 10 years of age died in Pittsburgh last week. The whole number of deaths was 130. Typhoid fever caused 8, pneumonia 12, consumption 14, and violence 11, of which two were "legally executed." During the week there were reported 43 cases of typhoid fever, 15 of scarlet fever and 15 of diphtheria.

Will Divide a Charge—The Pittsburg and Allegheny classis of the Reformed church has decided to divide the Homestead and Duquesne charges. The Revs. John H. Prugh and J. Grant Walter have reported the receipt of word from Hungary that the Rev. Paul Konvali is not in good standing in his home church. He has been given 90 days in which to explain the situation.

Alleged Wife-Beater in Jail—Anthony Williams has been sent to jail by Alderman C. F. Over to await the result of injuries which it is alleged he inflicted on his wife. Agents of the Western Pennsylvania Humane society allege that while drunk he beat his sick wife with a horsehide shoe and after dragging her from her bed and about the room kicked her in the stomach.

Want a Charter—An application for a charter incorporating the George P. Schmidt company will be filed in Harrisburg on July 14. The company is an incorporation of the roofing business of George P. Schmidt & Co. of No. 1020 First Ohio street, Allegheny. The incorporators are George P. Schmidt and John Feldheimer, Herman R. Schmidt and Edward C. H. Schmidt.

Man and Boy Fined—Arthur Rowe, 15 years old, and Jacob Kiland of Homewood were fined yesterday at No. 2 police station by Magistrate John H. Armstrong. Rowe was arrested for corner loafing and Kiland was arrested on a charge of interfering with the officers. The police claim a bad gang of boys infest Homewood, and many more arrests will be made in the hope of breaking it up.

Firemen to Get a Flag—There will be a flag presentation to engine company No. 5 and truck company H on the evening of the Fourth at the engine house in Center avenue, near Kirkpatrick street. The flag is the gift of Mrs. S. Arnold of No. 2164 Center avenue. Dr. George H. Vaux will make the presentation for Mrs. Arnold and Archibald Mackrell will receive it in behalf of the firemen. Miss Cora Denison will unfurl the flag. There will be good music and the usual Fourth of July noise.

Machinists on Strike—The first of a number of machinists' strikes that are expected to take place in the Pittsburgh district started yesterday. The men of the Pittsburgh Shear, Knife and Machine Company, Forty-seventh street and the Allegheny Valley railroad, were notified that they must continue work under the old wage conditions or quit. They quit. The machinists' organization is now practically general among the men of the craft in this district. The committee settlement for a new scale covers 75 per cent of the men and the other concerns, among them the one whose men are on strike, have been called upon to meet this settlement.

NO STOPPAGE IN JULY.

Unusual for Iron Mills to Be Operating Now.

For the first time in the history of the Amalgamated association most of the iron mills are running in July. The old scheme of a suspension for repairs and during the time when the final wage scales were still pending is unnecessary through the scales being made practically continuous, although some are as yet unsettled in minor details. Many of the independent mills are sending in the signed scales, providing for the same terms as the scales adopted by the United States Steel Corporation concerns and the Republic Iron & Steel Company.

The Amalgamated association officers have been in New York adjusting the details of the tin plate scale. Few changes of importance were proposed in relation to the general scale, which was renewed months ago. The conference settled these details. Today or tomorrow there will be an adjourned conference at the Hotel Lincoln to close the details of the scale for the American Steel Hoop Company.

THE PIANOLA
The Only Perfect Piano Player.
The average person's craving for music in summer seems even greater than during the cool months. Hence, the multitude of bands and orchestras employed at summer resorts. Those who have no music in their homes are actually in want, whether they know it or not.
Do not deny yourself the pleasure of the best music.
The Pianola will reproduce for you the finest music ever written—yes, and play it on your own piano. That's the beauty of the Pianola—it plays any piano and any person can operate it. You don't need to be experienced. Even a child can operate the Pianola, which is everywhere admitted to be the only perfect piano player.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1902.

FOURTEEN PAGES.

Passed Into History.

Congress adjourned yesterday evening as had been expected. Speaker Henderson's verdict that the house transacted more business than at any other session since the adoption of the constitution is probably accurate, though even then it was much hampered by Democratic political oratory. The senate did not do as well. It managed to get through a few measures of the first importance, but was lame and impotent in dealing with others. Very notably so in the case of Cuban reciprocity, which was held up by a small minority of the majority party.

As a whole the record of what was done by congress is creditable. Its sins are mainly those of omission. The isthmian canal bill, as finally passed, is a thoroughly good act and the Philippine civil government bill is the next most important piece of legislation passed. The war tax repeal is fully justified by the fact that the surplus has increased during the fiscal year to more than $90,000,000 and all classes are satisfied to see the taxes go.

The blot on the record is the failure to adopt the reciprocity bill. To prevent a recurrence of that sort of thing the senate owes a duty to the country to adopt practical rules of procedure. The term republican government is a misnomer when an irresponsible minority can override the will of the majority. Under the senate's antiquated methods that has been done frequently, as it was done in this instance. The house, under working rules, can and does transact more business with its unwieldy membership than the senate. It is time for the latter to reform.

Mills Will Not Close.

There will be no general closing of the mills in the Pittsburgh district this month, either for repairs or the adjustment of wage scales. This is the first time in the history of the Amalgamated association that it has been so. Other years when there were no extensive repairs to make the mills were closed pending the adjustment of wages. This year the mills are too busy to stop and the workmen are too well satisfied. It is eloquent testimony to the brand of prosperity that prevails at this time. Pittsburgh is on the top of the wave and going forward with it.

The Philippine Currency Question.

The house of representatives has saved the Philippine islands from the silver dollar which the senate tried to foreorize, but it was not able to substitute the gold dollar upon the archipelago. In the shape in which the Philippine government bill finally emerged from congress, the currency question, so far as it relates to the money standard, was dropped, and the Philippine government was empowered to supply subsidiary coinage to meet commercial requirements.

The senate's determination to put the Philippine coinage on a silver basis must not be interpreted as a wish to "do something for silver" according to the desires of free silver enthusiasts, but it rested upon a belief that business in the archipelago would be upset by establishing the gold standard in a country where the silver standard has prevailed so long, and which has intimate commercial relations with the silver standard countries in the far east. The house contention, on the other hand, was that the people of the United States have declared emphatically, in two presidential campaigns, that they prefer the gold standard, and that it would be politics to give the silver standard to Oriental possessions.

The people of the United States will have a view of the house of representatives. They want the best money for themselves and they are disposed to give money of the same quality to the Filipinos. We are opposed to fifty-cent dollars, either in America or in the American possessions. The experience of this country with the "trade dollar," made to compete with the Mexican coin, should be enough to cause a national resolve never to put into circulation money which will not command its face value. Every dollar issued by the authority of the United States should be worth just as much as every other dollar, and it should be worth one hundred cents in any part of the United States and in any portion of the American possessions.

Rewards for Veterans.

It is somewhat surprising to find reputable journals endeavoring to make a sensation with statements of the sum of money the country has lost in four years by "promoting army officers one day and retiring them the next." This is not money lost, or if it is, the nation not only has consented to it, but has applauded the loss. Everyone has been well advised of this manner of rewarding veteran officers by advancing them to a higher grade on the eve of retirement, by which operation they receive three-fourths of the pay of the higher rank instead of three-fourths of the pay of the lower rank for the remainder of their lives.

The men who have been awarded such honors are without exception veterans of the civil war, who served their country gallantly in the trying days of the 60s, and almost without exception they are veterans of successive Indian campaigns and of the Spanish war. These men have deserved well of their country, and, on nearing the age of retirement, have been promoted to the next higher grade, if a vacancy existed in such grade, for the well understood and well published purpose of adding to their dignity and comfort in retirement.

In the navy, by force of law, the veteran of the two wars retires with the rank and retired pay of the next higher grade. In the army it should be the same, but as it is not, the president by common consent exercises his power to promote, which power, however, can only be exercised in case there is a vacancy. The people of the United States are neither poor spirited nor parsimonious. They do not complain that men who have risked life in their behalf are given a few more hundreds of dollars in their declining years, nor will they.

Settlement of Siberia.

Statistics recently given out by the Russian government show that a larger number of emigrants to Siberia returned to their old homes during the past year than during the year before. About one-half of all who went to the new country to investigate with a view to settlement returned to their villages with adverse reports. In short the situation is discouraging to the government which has gone to tremendous expense to open its vast territory to settlement by the construction of the trans-Siberian railroad and many other public works. It begins to look as though Russia will never realize its dreams of an industrial empire rivaling the United States in its Asiatic territory.

Reasons for the apparent failure are not far to seek. The climate of Siberia is most inhospitable. It runs the gamut from the lowest known temperatures in the winter to as high as 100 degrees Fahrenheit in the summer. In the region near Lake Baikal winter temperatures have been recorded of 75 degrees below zero, followed by extreme warmth the next summer. There are sections less rigorous, but generally speaking it is only the hardiest specimens of humanity who can enjoy its climate. There is difficulty, too, in protecting live stock against the extreme cold and in preserving a water supply for man or beast.

Siberia's plains have fertile soil. Wheat thrives in wide areas. The hills hold much mineral wealth. Yet there is no probability of a boom in population or development in that part of the world unless some means can be devised to render men indifferent to the weather. Emigrants will go out on the inducements offered, but only a comparatively small portion will stay.

The Coronation Ceremonial.

With the rapid progress toward recovery made by King Edward and the consequent abatement of the anxiety of the English people during the past week, discussion has been revived as to when and under what circumstances the coronation services will be held, in the event that the king fully recovers his health, a result now quite probable. It has been intimated that a quiet coronation service might be held in October, and the king given the insignia of the office under circumstances befitting his strength and in keeping with the desire not to have him again overtax himself. Opposed to this idea are quite a number of prominent members of the king's official household, who favor postponing the coronation exercises, in the event of the king's complete recovery, until next spring, when an opportunity will be offered to carry out to some extent the elaborate designs arranged for the event last week. Just how far either of these two propositions will be supported by the British public it is impossible thus early to tell, but we imagine that the entire question will be left for the king to decide when his condition will permit.

Viewing the situation from the present state of the British mind, we believe the weight of public opinion would be on the side of a quiet, unostentatious coronation. Not only would this judgment appeal to the majority of people on the ground of expense and the further risk for the king's health involved in the preparation for an elaborate pageant, but the people will in all probability feel that a quiet service, unmarked by excessive hilarity, would comport better with the spirit of the event. We have no doubt the king himself will share these views, and unless his desire to gratify his subjects by again undertaking a ceremonial of world-wide scope and display would lead him to favor the postponement until spring, he may be expected to quietly receive the crown, attended only by such display as will be appropriate to the dignity and importance of the ceremonial.

Quiet Conventions.

By the withdrawal of J. J. Sweeney from the contest in the Fourth legislative district the Democrats were enabled to hold quite harmonious conventions yesterday. Fusion with the Citizens party was quite generally indorsed. The county convention has not been held, however, and it may yet afford opportunity for an old-time Democratic exhibition of fisticuffs and uproar. Present indications are more favorable to a quiet gathering and orderly proceeding, from which and yesterday's conventions it may be inferred the Allegheny county Democracy has learned something by experience and may yet become as well behaved in its delegate meetings as any other political organization.

Defends Co-Education.

Chancellor William R. Day of Syracuse university comes forward as a defender of co-education in the large universities and colleges. He advances the opinion that even the chief objection to the system, the distraction suffered by the students through the tendency to form sentimental attachments, may be set down as advantageous to both sexes in the long run. Dr. Day evidently holds the proper mating of young people to be of more importance than the acquisition of a thorough collegiate education on the part of those who start out to secure it. But the question of co-education, its success or failure, does not hinge on the opportunities it affords for courtship and marriage, and however sincere the able chancellor of the Syracuse university may be in his support of marriage as a result of the commingling of the sexes in education, that result is the least objection to the system. Professor Harper of the Chicago university came west from Yale with enthusiastic purposes concerning a trial of his pet scheme of co-education. He has been forced to change, not only his views, but the practices of the great institution over which he presides.

The movement against co-education is widespread for reasons that in no way affect the good sense or discretion of either sex. The education of men should be pursued under conditions entirely dissimilar from those best adapted for the training of women. The objections to a mingling of the sexes are organic and relate to the very genius of education. That the subject has been taken up in earnest and that it will constitute the principal theme of educational discussion for some time to come is plainly evidenced in the recent action of the Chicago university, confirmed by the recent order limiting the number of women admitted to the general classes both at the Leland Stanford university and the Wesleyan university at Middletown, Conn.

Coal is going down the Ohio at a rate that assures abundant supply for the southland for some time. The movement has been, thus far, very successful, and miners and operators are alike thankful for the rains which were not over welcome to the farmers who had hay ready to put up.

Of course Senators Carmack and Patterson know more than they did about Aguinaldo and the Philippine islands since Admiral Dewey enlightened them, but they manifest no gratitude for the increase of knowledge.

Conventions are coming swiftly. That of the Eastern Manual Training association is the latest. It will find something of interest here, no doubt, and Greater Pittsburgh is certainly glad to welcome its delegates.

A Georgia paper says the present gubernatorial campaign is the first in many years in which the candidate's war record wasn't the chief issue. It's a good thing that Georgia is catching up with the times.

It begins to look as though that portrait of King Edward fell from the wall in Windsor castle all for nothing. Perhaps the nail was worn out.

Carmack is not content with his lurid failure, but wanted to continue his show and take an excursion to the Philippines at Uncle Sam's expense.

France doesn't care if Germany, Italy and Austria have renewed the triple alliance. She smiles sweetly at her big cousin, the czar of Russia.

If the report from Chicago be true that Carrie Nation has joined Lise Dowie's church, why, Dowie had better look out, that's all.

Danish West Indian islanders are regretting that they won't celebrate the Fourth of July this year. Some other year.

The opinion is spreading that Admiral Dewey made an accurate size-up of Aguinaldo and his assistant brigands.

When the amnesty proclamation is issued Aguinaldo will have more freedom than he really deserves.

Men who are looking for work with the express intention of avoiding it are giving Kansas a wide berth.

William Waldorf Astor won't come in for anything in the postponed coronation honors, either.

July made a fine start.

CHUNKS OF THOUGHT.

It is very seldom that you see a man whose profanity shows any originality.—Youngstown Telegram.

Our devil was absent from his procrastinating haunts the other day, and when the religious editor asked him where he had been he replied that he was taking his "vaccination vacation!"—Westmoreland Democrat.

A man jumped into Lake Michigan to save his $20 Panama hat. He valued it more than his life, and perhaps it was actually worth more.—East Liverpool News Review.

Because a man happens to be a deacon in the church is no assurance that his pants will wear out at the knees before they do at the seat.—Falls Creek Herald.

Prof. Starr of Chicago is worrying about latter-day superstition. He claims that educated people are superstitious to an alarming degree. The professor has probably seen some well dressed pedestrian dodging a ladder on which a hod carrier was ascending, bearing a load of mortar heavy enough for two or many men.—Bradford Era.

Consider the robin as he inserts his bill in mother earth, brace himself sturdily on his feet and yanks forth a yard of vainly resisting worm. It is but one of the curiously interesting sights which greet the lover of nature's studies at every hand.—Oil City Blizzard.

SCHWAB'S UNIQUE NEW CHARITY

Preparing to Give 1,500 Children a Day's Voyage on New Steamer.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, July 1.

Charles M. Schwab is busy with the preliminary work on one of the finest charities New York city has ever known. He has purchased Richmond beach on Staten island and intends to convert it into a resort for children, all the entertainment, including a boat ride and dinner, to be at Mr. Schwab's expense. As is usual with him, he is trying to keep his good work secret. When questioned he will only smile and shake his head, without saying a word as to his plans, or even admitting that he has bought the place; but he could not keep a big thing like that away from the world. It is known that he is having a special steamboat built at the Crescent shipyards, with Lewis Nixon himself as the designer, and the craft is to be unlike any other on the Atlantic or ever seen in New York harbor. In the first place it will be roomy, and, moreover, fitted so that passengers shall have the maximum of sea view and ocean air. Then, as Mr. Schwab has determined that the largest number of children carried at one time shall be 1,500, he will have capacity for 3,000, thus giving each child the room set aside for two. There will be a sea voyage every day. At the end of it the children will go to the beach and have a rollicking time on the sands, with merry-go-rounds, roller coasters, swings and other amusements thrown in. Above all, there will be a tremendous dinner. It will not be sandwiches, a banana and a cup of milk, which is the bill of fare usually for free excursions. Mr. Schwab realizes that little boys and girls have stomach capacity disproportioned to their size, and that they want a big meal in the middle of the day—especially with appetites sharpened by sea air—which would make an adult "sit up." So there will be several large dining rooms in the new building he will put up at the beach, and in them will be served a course of wholesome viands, with plenty of milk, tea and coffee to wash it all down. It is hardly likely that arrangements will be completed this season, but it is understood to be Mr. Schwab's desire to begin early next summer, giving 1,500 children a day's outing every day until real cold weather sets in.

Beats Oliver Optic's Heroes.

General comment, by press and public, is rife in this city over the wealthy "Bertram Cutler," who has such a large slice of the United States Steel Corporation. The Evening World has an editorial that voices the general sentiment one picks up in places where men congregate and chat. After remarking that in the old stories Oliver Optic and his kind, the poor but deserving youth got a place in a store at $2 a week, and eventually married his employer's daughter, the editorial writer goes on thus: "The case of Bertram Cutler shows how things have changed. New times, new manners. Bertram is a fresh-faced young man of 22, fond of tennis and flannels, and wont to bathe oftener than Sunday school heroes of an earlier generation. He is a farmer's boy, as such heroes usually are, and after four years' employment in Mr. Rockefeller's office, he holds $12,000,000 in United States Steel stock, as the records of that corporation show. Bertram is an example of the industrious apprentice whom Ben Franklin would have liked to see. 'Seest thou a man diligent in his calling? He shall stand before kings,—even before oil kings. We are a rich nation now, and our expansion seems to include the aspiring poor boy."

A Beggar's Blasphemy.

Piety or blasphemy? A sturdy rascal who looked as if he had just had a good dinner, and a few drinks of something stronger than water after it, was beseeching help of Fifth avenue promenaders this evening in these words: "For the honor of the Lord and the love of the blessed mother, give a few cents to save the life of a starving man." Occasionally he got a dime. When he did not he turned away with muttered curses that were only a little worse than the hypocritical supplication which had gone before. "There are no street beggars left in New York," according to a high official in the municipal government. The fellow tonight must have been only an accident.

Artist Martin's Conemaugh Valley.

One of the important pictures on view in an art gallery near the Waldorf is a landscape by the late Homer D. Martin. It is a small canvas, showing one of the prettiest spots in the Conemaugh valley, and it has become a regular thing for Pittsburghers and others from Western Pennsylvania to drop into the gallery to admire the work. Painted some 25 years ago, it is a fine example of poor Martin's style. His taste and skill in depicting autumnal scenes have full sway, the brown tints of the trees, shrubbery and foliage generally being brought out with the rare skill characteristic of the man who has come to be known, since his death, as one of the foremost of American artists. The picture is for sale, and as a similar work by Martin, a scene in his adored Adirondacks, brought $12,000 not long ago, some idea can be gained of the market value of "The Conemaugh River." Withal, Homer D. Martin had a hard time of it scraping along in this life, if traditions are true.

A Little Church's Memorial Window.

One of the show places of this metropolis, which enjoys a steady patronage, is the Church of the Transfiguration, known the world over as "The Little Church Around the Corner." There is an old, white-haired sexton there who knows the various memorial windows and other special objects of interests by heart. He takes you around and dilates on each splendid window as volubly as, and more interestingly than, any of the guides one meets in cathedral towns in Europe, and he gives you a decidedly pleasant half-hour if you have time to stay with him. There is the Edwin Booth window, which cost $7,000; the window in memory of Mrs. Houghton, wife of the original Dr. Houghton, who built the little church, which cost $12,000, and the window for Harry Montague, the actor of 25 years ago. There are other famous windows, including that of the famous picture of the Transfiguration, from which the church takes its name. Setting aside everything else in the church—and there are many other striking features in the edifice—the memorial windows are one of the big sights of New York, although comparatively little known.

Extension of the Fourth.

Municipal employes in this city probably will have two holidays this week, instead of the usual half-holiday on Saturday. As Friday is Fourth of July, that day, of course, will be a holiday. The mayor has signed a resolution of the board of aldermen, providing that Saturday also be a holiday. The enforcement of the resolution is not compulsory, but in all probability most of the heads of departments will take cognizance of it and follow its provisions. The exchanges will be closed on Saturday also, so that things will be exceedingly quiet down in Wall street at the end of the week, noisy as they may be elsewhere.

Gilmore Musician Found Starving.

It would have made Pat Gilmore mad could he have seen one of his old musicians picked up starving from the street and taken to Bellevue last evening. His name is Martin Morgan. He says he used to play regularly in Gilmore's band, but of late has subsisted by playing the violin in saloons. He said, when picked up, that he had not eaten anything for a week. How he had got into such straits was not explained; but assuredly it never would have happened if Pat had been alive.

India Curry Cafe a Failure.

New York does not care much for Indian curry as a steady diet. That is proved by the fact that the Omar Khayyam restaurant in Fifth avenue, where Ranji, the curry cook who fooled all London in believing he was an Indian potentate, held forth, is closed. Ranji and his swarthy servants have disappeared. The dim lights and Indian draperies are gone. It is said Ranji has returned to London, whence he came three years ago to become curry cook at Sherry's.

Special Tug for a Tardy Beauty.

There is always a fair amount of excitement when an ocean liner departs from a New York pier. Today a pretty girl who had missed the ship made the departure of the Kronprinz Wilhelm interesting to the police. The maiden had bought a ticket to sail in the second cabin of the steamship, but by some mischance did not arrive on the pier until the ship was leaving. The last gangplank had been taken in and it looked as if she was to be left. Almost frantic with disappointment the young woman rushed out to the end of the pier in the midst of the crowd crying to the police there to help her. The crowd sympathized with her and rushed toward the police, calling to them to get a tug for her. And the gallant police, after some hesitation, did get the tug, and the pretty girl is now on the ocean.

A Puzzling Coal Decision.

Magistrate Hogan today issued the edict that if consumers of coal cannot get anthracite they must use some other kind. All the same, he did not dismiss the complaint against a soft coal user. "The law must be obeyed," he ruled. New Yorkers in his jurisdiction are trying to make out what his decision means.

Saw His Wife and Fainted.

This theatrical sketch of contemporary life in New York comes from Upper Broadway, dialect and all: "B'George, 'tis true I fainted dead away," exclaimed the Right Hon. I. Lindsay Nicholson, chief of the honor guards at Buckingham palace, an officer of the Royal Grenadier guards, also attached to the Coldstream regiment, and nephew of the earl of Craven, at the Hotel Navarre today. "I say, I had a knockout drop from a stranger I met. I made a blasted fool of myself, getting wobbly at the knees and bolting over like an old woman." The Hon. Mr. Nicholson is 20 years old. He is also the husband of May Boley of "The Chaperones," and at the performance of that piece at the New York roof garden last night he suddenly took a tumble to his knees and had to be carried out. It was said that he had fainted at the sight of his wife, from whom he has been estranged. He met and married May Boley when she was playing with Edna May in London.

Well-Known Pittsburghers Sail.

George Westinghouse, Jr., will sail for Southampton on the American liner St. Louis tomorrow. Other Pittsburghers on the St. Louis passenger list are Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bigelow, Miss Abernathy, George Lauder, Jr., Mrs. Lauder, Mrs. A. W. Mellon and infant, the Rev. Frank Sheed, Mrs. Sneed and Mrs. E. White.

The Dividend Month.

It is estimated that dividends and interest payable in this city during July will aggregate nearly $125,000,000. Opinions differ as to whether the aggregate will exceed that of last July or not, as some new issues have been made in the last year, while payments on others have been postponed. The Standard Oil Company makes it a practice to pay its July dividends during the last of June, to save work for the banks, and the United States Steel preferred dividends recently have been postponed till August for the same reason.

An Oyster Market Pointer.

Drumfish in big shoals are destroying oysters in New Jersey waters, according to Fulton market men; but oyster stews will be the same old price of 20 cents a stew in Bowery restaurants and 50 cents in Broadway, as always. You cannot knock out the "succulent bivalve" with a few fishy drum taps.

Consul General Nast Sails.

Thomas Nast, the old-time cartoonist, sailed on the Orizaba at 1 o'clock today for his post at Guayaquil, Ecuador, where he will be consul-general.

Tammany's Celebration Program.

Here is Tammany hall's official program for the Fourth of July celebration at the wigwam in Fourteenth street: The function will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning with an address of welcome delivered by Grand Sachem O'Gorman, who will be followed by the Tammany Glee club in patriotic songs. The Declaration of Independence will be read by Eugene L. Bushe, and after more music a "long talk" will be given by Senator Charles A. Culberson of Texas. Senator Culberson will be followed by W. Bourke Cockran. The board of sachems will then sing "The Star-Spangled Banner," after which there will be short talks by Tammanyites of less degree but the usual volubility.

A FATAL MISTAKE.

Across the golf-links strayed a goat,
A hungry goat was he.
A joyous golfer golfed a ball
Straight from a near-by tee.
The hungry goat observed the sphere—
He did not know the game—
"Aha," said he, "a ping-pong ball,
I'll just eat up the same!"

An hour passed, but still he felt
His presence in his throat,
His theft lay heavy on his—heart,
He was a troubled goat.
But though he coughed, the golf-ball stuck;
So to a friend he went,
(He told him he was off his feed),
And to his fears gave vent.

But sympathy, though pleasing, does
Not cure ills that are bad,
And ere the night had passed away,
The hungry goatist had.

* * * * *

A modest sign and small:
"Beware the patent food Bill ate—
A hard-boiled ping-pong ball."

SOME GOSSIP FROM A SEASIDE MECCA

A Braddock Man Is Nearly Drowned in the Surf at Atlantic City.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 1.—George P. Sauers, a visitor here from Braddock, was instrumental today in causing considerable excitement along the beach. He attempted to swim around the Steeplechase pier, but after he had gone down once Lifeguards Monroe and Parker managed to rescue him. Physicians were in waiting on the beach, and after working with Sauers about half an hour he regained consciousness and soon was in his normal condition.

The social event of the day was the opening reception at the Children's Seaside home. Many visitors from Pittsburgh and vicinity were present.

Dead drumfish are coming ashore the result of the use of dynamite by Ocean county oystermen in their crusade against these big creatures which have been playing havoc among the oyster beds.

The Atlantic City council has decided to purchase one trust and one anti-trust fire engine, the manufacturers making the best showing in a test to receive a contract for another engine.

PERSONALS.

Prof. L. W. Wilkinson of Tulane university, Louisiana, who has been attending the meeting of the American association for the Advancement of Science, went to New Orleans last night. He is professor of industrial and sugar chemistry at Tulane. "The reception of the delegates to the convention," he said, "by the people of Pittsburgh will not soon be forgotten. All our comforts were looked after and everything done to make our stay in Pittsburgh pleasant." The meeting is one of the greatest ever held in America, inasmuch as the scientists have been given a chance to visit the biggest industrial center in the world."

President Loree of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, who was expected in the city last night, completed his business before his arrival from Fairport, O., and went to Baltimore by the Laughlin cut-off. He left Sandusky, O., yesterday morning and took a short run to Fairport, accompanied by Superintendent Haas.

Ximena Brooks of Sterling Run, Pa.; Frankie and Nellie Huntley, and Mattie M. Collins of Driftwood are at the Monongahela house.

W. E. Brown and wife of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. B. M. Armstrong of San Antonio, Tex., are at the Hotel Lincoln.

A. J. Baggs, a representative of the Watt Car Company of Barnesville, O., is at the Monongahela house.

Miss Bickel of Allegheny entertained a party of friends at the Hotel Henry last night.

Dowie's Fourth of July.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

An incomparable Fourth of July is the one at Zion City, presided over by John Alexander Dowie. Not a firecracker is to be fired, or even an anvil exploded. There won't be any salute at sunrise, or any little girls in white dresses carrying painted flags, which their little brothers will try to take away from them; none of the boys will drop a match into a tomato can of gunpowder for the toy cannon, and have to lie in bed for three weeks with his hair and eyebrows burned off and come forth forever freckled blue. There will be no picnic in the grove, where the Declaration of Independence will be read to a group of perspiring and fatigued mothers holding their babies in their arms, while most of the men have gone over to the ravine where there is a beer stand. Missing also will be the tin washtub filled with ice water and many disks of lemon peel, but slowly and surely losing its savor and character as the day wears on, though every slice of lemon is religiously returned to it; absent will be the tablecloth spread upon the grass, with the current jelly cake in the middle of it, and a caterpillar making frenziedly across the unaccustomed surface. There will be no 5-year-old in sorrel-colored knee trousers laid flat by the backward vibration of the swing and two teeth knocked out. Not a glee club, a recitation or a rocket will there be, and the country folks driving home seated in chairs two by two in the heavy wagon will not get caught in the rain five miles out. It will not be the Fourth of July at all.

IN THE SMALL TOWNS.

When will people have pride enough to clean the weeds off their pavements?—Canonsburg Herald.

Quite a crop of hay is being grown on some of the lawns on lower Main street, this borough. Must be that some of our citizens believe that hay is going to command a good price this year.—Smethport Democrat.

How would it do to appoint a whisky inspector? It is almost certain that some of the whisky which comes to Wellsville is unfit to be swallowed, and almost bad enough to drive a man to drinking river water.—Wellsville Union.

Seems as if every unmated person around here is getting married. Just now there is a marriage epidemic that rakes Cupid's eyes dance and bulge. The list printed elsewhere shows the issuance of 23 licenses by Register Dodds during the week. This surpasses the record of any week in Venango county. It is rumored that there are still some couples left who are liable to apply for hitching permits.—Venango Spectator.

The season has arrived when both good and bad dogs are prone to show their animal nature and all kinds of dogs will bear watching during the heated term. Belle Vernon appears to have her share of dogs, and some people say the most of them are of the worthless variety. Having dogs aplenty it is not surprising to learn that some of them commit depredations dangerous and alarming to our citizens. During the past week the vicious and therefore worthless canine has been exhibiting his nasty temper here.—Belle Vernon Enterprise.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Mrs. Elizabeth McCleary.

Mrs. Elizabeth McCleary, a member of the Sutch family, one of the oldest in Western Pennsylvania, and bearing the distinction of being the third family to settle in "Braddock's Fields," now Braddock, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ellis Jones, Lehigher avenue and Third street, Braddock, after an illness of almost five years. Mrs. McCleary was born in Oakland on February 25, 1831, being a daughter of Thomas Sutch, a son of a prominent Revolutionary family. On December 21, 1851, she went with her husband to the then little known "Braddock's Fields." The Pennsylvania railroad had been completed to Brinton station scarcely a year before. Braddock was then a hamlet of but six dwellings. The Wallace house in North Braddock, where Gen. Lafayette visited in 1824, and the Mills homestead on what is now Fifth street and Braddock avenue, were the only residences of any importance. Mrs. McCleary was married to James McCleary at East Liberty September 26, 1850. Her husband died at Braddock on June 21, 1869. He was the first justice of the peace of Braddock's Fields, and was one of its most progressive citizens. He owned a large portion of the territory of the original borough. Mrs. McCleary was a charter member of the old Sellers Methodist Episcopal church, built 46 years ago in Braddock, now the First Methodist Episcopal church of that place. She was always active in all its religious and benevolent enterprises until her last illness, and was a large contributor to the present fine church building at Parker avenue and Burton street. She is survived by five children, all well known in this section: Mrs. George N. Riley of Braddock, wife of the general sales agent of the National Tube Company of the United States Steel Corporation; Mrs. McDonald, wife of Thomas McDonald, of Youngstown, general manager of the National Steel Company's plant of the United States Steel Corporation; William W. McCleary of Braddock, superintendent of the Monongahela Light and Power Company's plant, Braddock; Mrs. Stephen D. Mills, wife of one of the sons of the first settler of "Braddock's Fields," and Mrs. Sophia Jones, wife of Ellis Jones, a merchant of North Braddock.

Archibald McGregor.

CANTON, O., July 1.—(Special.)—Archibald McGregor, one of the early editors of the Stark County Democrat, which position he held for 40 years, died this evening at the age of 83. He was born in Scotland, but his parents came to the United States when he was a mere lad, locating in New England. Later they came west, and in 1842, when carrying mail on horseback as a substitute, young McGregor learned that a school teacher was wanted in Canton. He secured the position, which he filled until called to the Democrat office. He was always a Democrat of most pronounced views, and during the civil war had some exciting experiences in publishing a Democratic newspaper in this territory.

J. W. Zimmerly.

J. W. Zimmerly, 61 years old, for many years a resident of Beaver county, is dead at his home in New Sheffield, Pa. He was a veteran of the civil war, having served with Company I, One Hundred and Fortieth Pennsylvania volunteer infantry. Mr. Zimmerly, whose death occurred last Sunday, was for many years a member of the Mt. Carmel Presbyterian church and superintendent of the Sunday school. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Martha Cooper Zimmerly, and three daughters, the Misses Martha, Blanche and Myrthma Zimmerly.

Mrs. Julia A. Irwin.

Mrs. Julia A. Irwin, 88 years old, a widow, until recently residing at No. 718 Lang avenue, Pittsburgh, died at the home of her son-in-law, M. H. Patton, No. 1110 Franklin avenue, Wilkinsburg, yesterday morning of old age. The remains of deceased will be taken to Irwin, Pa., her birthplace, for interment.

Obituary Notes.

Mrs. Bridget Murren, 76 years old, widow of James Murren and mother of George Murren, a city employe, and of Actor James Duffey, is dead at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Sloss, Magee and Gibbon streets.

Found a New Route.

From the New York Sun.

While Policeman Corbett was walking down South street last night he saw some distance ahead a moving object wound round with rope. He followed it and grabbed a loose end which trailed behind. The object then began to spin like a drunken top, its coils falling away one by one, until the policeman discovered they had encased a man.

"What are you doing with the hawser?" asked Corbett.

"Going to heaven," was the answer. The man went on to explain that he had once heard a Hindoo fakir say that in India the elect got to Paradise by throwing a rope's end high in the air and "swarming" up it into the sky.

"Come too!" he begged.

"I'm not fit," said Corbett, "and neither are you, yet awhile."

At the Madison street station 50 feet of two-inch hawser awaits an owner and Samuel Moore of 1 Coriears street is being held on this earth.

LAWYERS ACT A UNIT ON PROPOSED LAWS

Bar Association Discusses Transfer of Corporation Stock.

NEW RULE FOR STUDENTS

Effort to Make Supreme Court Examination Sufficient for Admission to Practice in All the Courts of the State—Objections to Historian.

By JAMES HARTLEY MERING,
Staff Correspondent.

Cambridge Springs, Pa., July 1.—Important technical discussions on proposed acts of assembly to be recommended by the Pennsylvania Bar association occupied the morning session of that body today. The opposition of Richard C. Dale and other prominent corporation lawyers of Philadelphia to the recommendation of an act relating to the transfer of stock in corporations, they alleging it was acceptable to bankers and money lenders as it puts stocks in the same category as coupons, furnished the surprise of the day.

ALEXANDER SIMPSON,
President of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Judge Harry White of Indiana and William Macrum of Pittsburgh upheld Mr. Dale's views, and forced Walter George Smith, chairman of the committee on uniformity of legislation, to agree to postponement of action after a long discussion.

The committee on uniformity of legislation refused to recommend acts relative to the acknowledgment and execution of written instruments, execution of wills, estate in this state of foreign wills, mortgory divorce and insurance policies, to consideration of the association, because Pennsylvania laws are more liberal. The association changed the by-laws to provide for a standing committee on uniformity of legislation, but with a recommendation that, as the last legislature expressed its confidence in the association by passing every act recommended by it, it adopt a conservative attitude. A motion was offered that the commissioners appointed by the governor to represent the commonwealth at the meeting of state boards, Richard C. Dale and William H. Staake of Philadelphia and Thomas Patterson of Pittsburgh, take up the question of uniform legislation.

New Rule for Students.

Ex-Judge John B. McPherson of Philadelphia offered the following resolution on the report of W. N. Hensel on the appeal to the supreme and superior courts relative to admissions to the bar:

Resolved, that committee on memorials of the supreme and superior courts relative to admissions to the bar, after approval by the supreme court upon the report of trial, if favorable, be directed to confer with the committee on legal education and admission to the bar, in conjunction with it to take such steps as may be deemed advisable and necessary to secure an acceptance by the courts, in the various judicial districts of the admission standard of the supreme court as the sole test of the professional qualifications of candidates for admission to the local bars. Proof of good character to be as heretofore in accordance with such regulations and requirements as the local courts shall prescribe.

The resolution was carried unanimously and it is said that in the near future but one state court examination will be required to admit students to practice in every county in the state.

Colonel Crumrine of Washington county read a short talk on legal biography work in Washington county and its historical value. He asserted that the war which existed in France from the United States existed in Washington county, and was discovered by an investigation into the history of its bench and bar. He made no commotion by stating that not a member of the present bar indulged excessively in intoxicating liquor.

Objected to Historian.

Dr. Craig of Altoona attempted to criticise the committee for its lack of action, but was corrected by Alfred Percival Smith, who gave a history of what had been done. Some members, including Judge Lloyd and District Attorney Weaver of Philadelphia, objected to paying a historian $1,200 yearly, also to the salary, but the association voted to leave this to the discretion of the standing committee.

Upon the report of the committee on uniform laws reached Mr. Simpson moved to postpone action on the recommendation that Borough laws for a year, and it was so over. Judge McPherson took up the act relative to practice as prevailing in Allegheny county. An argument followed on its phraseology in which George Wilson, George D. Riddle and William Rahme of Allegheny county proclaimed its fulness.

Judge Harry White and W. I. Schaffer of Delaware county talked on the propriety of admitting all facts not in controversy. The act will be considered further tomorrow.

A number of visiting lawyers with their wives and families took a trolley ride to Meadville returning tonight. Golf has attracted many and matches between Allegheny and Philadelphia will be arranged.

Many Pictures Collected.

It was reported that Judge Robert S. Frazer had presented the standing committee on legal biography a small half-length picture of all the present members of the bench, of some deceased members as Edwin M. Stanton, Lincoln's secretary of war, formerly an Allegheny county lawyer. Hundreds of portraits of living and past judges of the state have been collected for the museum.

This evening session, Richmond L. Jones of Reading read a paper on "Business Corporations" and Samuel W. Cooper of Philadelphia on "The Abolition of Actions for Breach of Promise of Marriage and Alienation of Affections." Mr. Cooper denied the right of any person, man or woman, to recover damages in such cases and said it was injurious to the state and degrading to the finer feelings of her citizens to make love and sympathy a chattel to be hawked about in the market and bartered and sold as a vulgar commodity. A general discussion of the papers followed.

James H. Harrison, T. S. Brown, Richard H. Jackson, A. Leo Weil, Willis McCook, John L. McCutcheon, E. E. Kiernan, A. P. Burgwin and S. N. Huss, Pittsburgh, lawyers, are new arrivals.

At the close of the evening's session the Pittsburgh Legal Quartet gave a concert in the theater of the hotel.

CHILDREN'S HOME WORK.

Interesting Features Marked Eighth Annual Convention of Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania.

The eighth annual convention of the Children's Home society of Pennsylvania was held yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, Wood street. The afternoon session was presided over by President John J. Jarrett. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, John J. Jarrett; secretary, William A. Zahn; treasurer, the Rev. R. H. Hood; vice-presidents: honorary, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Cortland Whitehead; the Hon. C. C. Townsend of New Castle; the Rt. Rev. Bishop Cyrus D. Foss of Philadelphia; Charles Lockhart of Pittsburgh; the Rev. Dr. Russell H. Conwell of Philadelphia; the Hon. Thomas Phillips of New Castle; the Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberts of Philadelphia. Active: the Rev. Dr. Alfred W. Arundel, the Hon. J. B. Showalter, the Rev. B. L. Beasell, J. W. Marsh and the Rev. W. A. Stanton.

The following directors were elected for the term ending in 1903: John J. Jarrett, Pittsburgh; Dr. J. W. Fawcett, McKeesport, Dr. S. W. Cunningham, the Rev. Dr. S. A. Hunter, the Rev. Dr. Alfred W. Arundel, John Murphy and James W. Houston of Pittsburgh, and the Rev. B. L. Beazell of Blairsville.

Dr. Amelia Dranga, in her address, told of the destitute condition of some of the children she had come upon during her practice. She heartily applauded the work of the society in giving homes to children in the country. She spoke at length of the amount of food a child should be given during the first year of its life.

Other topics were presented and discussed by Mrs. Mary White, district superintendent of the Indiana Home society, the Rev. G. W. Terbush and the Rev. S. A. Hunter.

One of the features was the presence of a delegation of children from the children's home in the East End. They were presented by the Rev. W. Henry Thompson, superintendent of the society, who gave a short talk on the methods used in preparing the children for a new home.

At the evening session E. D. McGonigle made an address upon the best methods of conducting charity organizations. He thinks this city needs more charity organizations and advocated some plan for the centralization of societies devoted to this cause.

The Rev. W. Henry Thompson, superintendent of the state society, read his report. There are 24 societies in Pennsylvania and they expend more than $100,000 a year, and care for more than 2,000 children annually.

The committee on resolutions presented a resolution approving the establishment of a juvenile court. The resolutions pledge the society's co-operation in any efforts on behalf of needy children.

THE GOLDEN JUBILEE.

Preparations for the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Passionist Monastery.

The arrangements for the celebration of the golden jubilee that will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Passionist Monastery of St. Paul of the Cross on the South Side are almost completed. It will be one of the most memorable events in the history of the Catholic church in this section of the state. The Passionist priests and brothers connected with the monastery of St. Paul of the Cross and a score of monasteries throughout the country will participate. It is announced that the exact date will be given out about the latter part of this month. Invitations are to be sent out to the leading dignitaries of the Catholic church in the United States, and it is expected that many of them will accept, as the order is one of the great missionary institutions of the church.

It was originally intended to have the celebration open the early part of this month, but owing to the delay in the retouching of the Monastery church on the South Side, it has been decided to postpone the event for some weeks yet. Artists are now engaged on the remodeling of the church from the choir loft to the sanctuary. A magnificent new altar, made of Italian marble, will be placed in the center. This altar is said to be one of the costliest in the country. It is of Gothic design throughout. To the right and left of this main altar will be two smaller ones designed in carra marble. To the left entrance of the church will be another altar of the same finish and design. The artists are working rapidly to complete this work at the earliest possible date.

The Passionists have in view the bringing here of the relics of some saint from the repositories in Rome. The officials of the order are now in communication with the authorities at Rome to this end. Other improvements are being made about the monastery proper, as it has to be enlarged considerably to accommodate the numerous priests of the order and prelates who will attend. The Rev. Father Michael, rector of the monastery, has charge of the entire work of remodeling.

Society

ONE of the prettiest and most interesting social affairs ever conducted at the Pittsburgh Golf club was the tea given yesterday for the ladies attending the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and affiliated societies. It was a 4 o'clock tea and the clubhouse was placed at the disposal of hostesses and guests for the afternoon. Though the number of visiting ladies is disappointingly small, the large assembly room where tea was served and the adjoining rooms were well filled with ladies. The hostesses were the Daughters of the American Revolution, the United States Daughters of 1812, and the Daughters of the Confederacy, who rallied to the support of the committee of entertainment, composed of women. The receiving group consisted of Miss Mathilda Denny, Miss Mary L. Jackson, Mrs. Mabel Loomis Todd and Miss Julia M. Harding. There were two tea-tables, one being presided over by Mrs. George A. Gormley, Mrs. Frank H. Murdock pouring tea at the other.

The decorations were very artistic, consisting of potted plants, together with great masses of garden and field flowers. Pink sweet-peas adorned the tea-table at which Mrs. Frank H. Murdock sat while the old-fashioned bachelor buttons graced the table where Mrs. Gormley poured tea.

Yesterday morning the visiting ladies were given a trolley ride through the most beautiful and picturesque sections of the city, the cars leaving the Hotel Schenley at 10 o'clock. The trolley party was conducted under the direction of a committee of ladies including Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon, chairman; Mrs. Henry C. Bughman, Mrs. Darwin C. Woleott, Mrs. William H. Sivlter, Mrs. William Warren Card, Mrs. Samuel Harden Church, Mrs. George Macbeth, Mrs. Frank F. Nicola, Mrs. C. F. Scott, Mrs. Charles C. Mellor, Mrs. Heber Ker and Miss Mary Lippincott.

A reception was held in the lecture rooms of Carnegie institute last night after the meeting, and over 800 persons attended it. Banks of palms, ferns and other greenery were placed at the ends and sides of the rooms, while cut flowers were in abundance. The reception party was composed of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Holland, John W. Beatty and Mrs. Beatty, E. H. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, Col. Samuel Harden Church and Mrs. Church, Prof. John A. Brashear and Mrs. Brashear, Mrs. James R. Mellon, Miss Julia Morgan Harding, Miss Kate C. McKnight, C. C. Mellor and Mrs. Mellor, John B. Jackson and Miss Jackson, John A. Harper and Mrs. Harper, Prof. David P. Todd and Mrs. Todd, Miss Thurston and Mrs. William Thaw, Jr. During the progress of the reception refreshments were served in a large tent at the side of the building.

Today's entertainment for the visitors will include Mrs. William Thaw's tea at Lyndhurst this afternoon for the delegates and members of the various societies represented in the convention and for the visitors. This morning the Heinz factory in Allegheny will be visited under the direction of the committee, including Miss Kate McKnight, chairman; Miss Mary L. Jackson, Mrs. George H. Clapp, Mrs. Herman Griffin, Mrs. William J. Holland, Mrs. E. E. Keller, Mrs. W. A. Magee, Mrs. William H. Mercur, Mrs. James H. Park, Mrs. Wallace H. Rowe, Mrs. G. W. Allyn, Mrs. John Caldwell, Miss Mathilda Smith and Miss Jane Smith. The party will start from Joseph Horne & Co.'s store at 10 o'clock.

Beauty Prizes.

The employes of the Westinghouse Airbrake Company in Wilmerding have been stimulated in the culture of flowers and the care of their lawns and small yards by prizes offered by the company this season. The air of thrift and careful attention to details has been noticeable in a trip through the little borough, but the many cold days this spring and early summer have retarded the grass and flowers more than in other seasons.

The Westinghouse Airbrake Company recently offered this series of prizes to be awarded its employes for improvement of yards and lawns. Other prizes were offered for the finest and healthiest flowers and vegetables, while many other smaller prizes and several honorable mentions will be awarded at the close of the season by the judges for various other features in the improvement of the exterior of the homes of the workingmen.

The prizes include the following: For the ground as a whole, first prize, $25; second prize, $20; third prize, $15; fourth prize, $10. For the best work in vegetable culture a prize of $10 will be given; for the best work in flower culture, $10. For the best lawn, $5, and for the best window or porch box, $5.

The offering of prizes by the Westinghouse Airbrake Company for lawn and flower culture is in the line of the improvement in the homes of the working people which has been receiving so much attention lately from students of social science.

Concert to the Tent Endeavor.

The chorus consisting of nearly 800 voices which will lead the singing at the 15th convention of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor union in this city next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, will give a concert on Monday evening. The chorus is under the leadership of James P. McCollum, conductor of the Mozart club, and has been in training for a number of weeks, preparing for the work which it will take up during the days of the Christian Endeavor convention. The concert on Monday evening will be given in the immense tent which will be erected in the vacant property fronting in Forbes street and St. Pierre, and facing both the Carnegie institute and the Schenley hotel in Oakland. The tent has been especially constructed for the occasion and will accommodate 5,000 people. The chorus, which will preclude the opening of the convention has prepared a fine program, including the "Hallelujah Chorus" and several solos from "The Messiah," the "Twelfth Mass" and other notable musical works. An admission of 25 cents will be asked at the entrance to aid in defraying the expenses incident to organizing so large a chorus and providing the music for its work. The chorus will be assisted by an orchestra of 40 men and several noted soloists.

Reception for Bride.

A reception was given last evening in Wilkinsburg in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Marion Miller, who returned yesterday from the east, where they have been spending their honeymoon. Those who assisted in receiving were, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Milligan, Mr. Frank Monroe, Mr. Thomas Allen and Misses Minnie and Eva Hewitt.

Muller—Fairland.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon occurred the wedding of Miss Melusina Theresa Muller of Sewickley, to James Remington Fairland of New York city. The ceremony occurred at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick Muller, in Frederick avenue, Sewickley, before a small number of close friends and the immediate families of the couple. The Rev. Robert A. Benton, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church of Sewickley, officiated, and there were no attendants. The bride was handsomely gowned in white mull over silk, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The house was decorated with garden flowers and daisies. At the conclusion of the ceremony the couple started for an extended trip east, and at the end of their honeymoon will be at home in New York. The bride has been quite popular in the valley, her father being widely known in newspaper circles throughout Pennsylvania. Mr. Fairland is a well-known pianist and musical composer.

Dinner and Dance.

The last of the affairs in honor of Miss Jane Blair and her house guests was given in Sewickley last evening, at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Charles R. McVay of Bank street, entertaining with a dinner party. Covers were laid for 18 and very pretty favors were used. From the dinner the party proceeded to the Edgeworth club house, for the subscription dance given by the young men. The committee in charge was Howard Muzzy, J. T. Brooks and Robert Davis. The following were patronesses: Mrs. H. S. Howard Blair, Mrs. C. F. Holdship, Mrs. Frederick McVay, Mrs. A. B. Starr, Mrs. John Slack, Mrs. Wallace G. Muzzy, Mrs. J. J. Brooks and Miss Dewitt B. Nettleton. The club house was handsomely decorated, refreshments were served and music was furnished by an orchestra. Miss Blair's guests all leave for their homes today, after 10 days of continuous social events. Miss Marjorie Maxey of the East End entertained them at luncheon yesterday afternoon.

Summer Travelers.

Marvin F. Scaife, formerly of this city but who now makes his home alternately in New York and Paris, is in Pittsburgh for a few days visiting his mother and sisters, Mrs. W. B. Scaife and the Misses Scaife, in North avenue, Allegheny.

Mrs. Joseph B. Hunter and her little daughter, Miss Dorothy Hunter of Stratford avenue, left Monday for Ocean Grove, N. J., where they will spend the month of July.

Miss Beulah Little of Bellefield, who went to California in May, returned home a few days ago. Miss Little was in Los Angeles at the time of the meeting of the General Federation of Women's clubs and after visiting friends in California went to Oregon and Washington, on her way home, also stopping for some time in Salt Lake City.

Luncheon for a Sister.

Mrs. Charles W. Brown was hostess at a very pretty afternoon reception and tea at her home in Academy avenue, Sewickley, yesterday. The affair was from 4 to 6 o'clock, and in honor of Mrs. Brown's sister, Miss Greenleaf of Newburyport, Mass. About 150 guests were present from the valley and the city. Mrs. Brown and Miss Greenleaf received and the aids were Mrs. George E. McCague, Mrs. William S. Clause, Mrs. DeWitt B. Nettleton, Mrs. Robert Wardrop, Mrs. George E. Tener, Mrs. Wallace Tener, Mrs. Robert J. Cunningham, Mrs. W. W. Collins, Mrs. George P. Rose, Mrs. James L. Patty, Miss Eleanor Bravo and Miss Mary Campbell. Several young girls assisted at the punch bowl.

Kuester—Adams.

Miss Katherine L. Kuester and Charles Adams of Allegheny were married in the Second Presbyterian church on Monday evening, June 30. The marriage ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, the Rev. S. Edward Young. The young people will be at home to their friends after September 1.

Johnson—Ballard.

Miss Agnes B. Johnson, daughter of Judge and Mrs. O'Key Johnson, was married last evening at 7 o'clock, at Morgantown, W. Va., to Prof. Charles C. Ballard of New York city, by the Rev. John Markey, of the Episcopal church. The wedding was attended by about 25 relatives and intimate friends of the parties. Miss Johnson's only attendant was her sister, Miss Sarah Johnson. Prof. Ballard was attended by Mr. James Johnson of Parkersburg, brother of the bride. A wedding dinner followed the ceremony and at its conclusion Prof. and Mrs. Ballard left for a trip up the lakes.

Lawn Fete for the Aged.

The annual lawn fete for the benefit of the United Presbyterian Home for the Aged, will be an important semi-social affair of tomorrow. It will be conducted at the home in Trenton and Penn avenues, Wilkinsburg, both afternoon and evening. Supper will be served from 5 o'clock until 8. The booth for the sale of needlework, candy and refreshments will be erected upon the lawn if the weather be fair.

Sopher—McNeill.

Cards have been received in Pittsburgh announcing the marriage of Miss Nelle Thompson Sopher, daughter of Thomas H. Sopher of Kansas City and Albert Russell McNeill of St. Louis, Mo. The wedding took place on Wednesday evening, June 25. The bride was formerly a well-known Allegheny girl and is a graduate of the State Normal school in California, Pa.

PRSCILLA'S PENCIL

In taking notes among the modish jacket suits the other day, I was struck by the multiplied Persian effects in the trimmings. Scarcely a light broadcloth jacket is without its little inner vest or band of bright Persian silk, and where it is used for strappings to gather in the fullness of sleeves and skirt plaits it is especially effective. A handsome gown of pale ash gray in smooth finished cloth had round buttons of enamel in delicate pink combined with deep green, and every edge of tucks and flounce and jacket was finished with a quarter-inch band of Persian silk in the same tones. The sleeves were flared to the fullest possible extent at the cuff and were caught with bands of the silk just above the wrist ruffle. Altogether there is a bright picturesque air about the "tailor-made" these days which strikes a note of smartness absent from previous and plainer seasons.

A Feminine Fad—

Which has just struck Pittsburgh, coming from Paris by way of New York, is the lace or silk half stocking. This is precisely like a man's sock, only that it is smaller; it is supposed to be worn with summer gowns and more particularly with bathing suits. Whether the knees are to be left bare, a la Highland kilter, the fashionable deponent sayeth not, but as rumor has the popularity of this novelty set very high on eastern bulletins, there is little question that it will receive due attention from Pittsburgh.

In Wrist Bags—

Something new is heard of in London. This is no less than a flat bracelet of the same color as the bag, to clasp around the wrist so that the bag may swing quite freely from the wrist without any effort on the part of the owner. Some of these bracelets are provided with several links depending from the main band, and into these links are slipped the strings of small parcels so that a dozen of the "little things" which may be picked up in a day's bargain searching may be carried easily and comfortably. This fad has not yet reached Pittsburgh although some of the women accustomed to Paris conveniences have had their smaller packages tied so that a loop might be slipped over the wrist for comfortable carrying.

Coiffures—

Of young girls are drooping lower and lower, although the pompadour holds its own against the loosely waved partings which are heralded as the chief thing abroad. Broad, short black bows, preferably of dull finished silk, are worn at the crown of the head and low on the neck, finishing the broad braid which gathers in all available locks, but the loose loop of uncurled hair, made popular by the French favorites a season or so ago, are too pretty to discard, suiting, as they do, almost every facial contour.

Belt Pins—

Of gun metal are set with small bright jewels, let down close in the band. Where these are of coral or turquoise they are especially pretty, and one with small sapphires is unique in its combination.

Hats and Birds—

Are mostly in green for ultra-fashionable wear just now. A very smart hat finished by a local house for an Allegheny woman the other day had a huge green bird set flat on the front, wings and tail extending back, while the head perched itself directly on the brim.

MANY FINE TROPHIES.

Country Club Offers a Superb Collection of Golf Cups.

The Country club, although golf was only taken up this season, is one of the busiest clubs about the city just now and offers an unusually handsome collection of trophy cups to be competed for over the new course recently opened in the Nine Mile Run district of the Twenty-second ward. An especially handsome cup is the one offered by the Hotel Schenley, where quite a number of the Country club members board. The cup must be won three times, having been taken last Saturday by Mr. Robert Pitcairn, Jr.

The busiest week since the opening of the new course for the Country club golfers is the present, with a heavy list planned for Friday and Saturday. The national holiday will witness a handicap match play competition against "Bogey" for the first and second cups, offered by the Greens committee. There will also be an approaching and putting contest for a cup offered by Wilbur Shenk. On Saturday there will be an 18-hole handicap competition for the handsome cup offered by J. R. Taylor.

League Games Today.

Cincinnati at Exposition park.
St. Louis at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Brooklyn.
Boston at New York.

The two-thousand people at Exposition park yesterday afternoon who watched the opening game of the series between the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati teams were given a treat in the way of championship ball playing. The crowd was about to get up, brush out the wrinkles and go home with a frown over a Pirate defeat, but the sadness was suddenly turned to joy, and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse when they saw the Pirates stem the tide of defeat and snatch a game right out of the fire, the final score being 4 to 3 in Pittsburgh's favor.

The game had gone along to the ninth inning and it looked as though that crowd of Heinies were going to walk off with the victory, as the score was 3 to 2 in their favor. An ending of that kind would have been a deathblow to the hopes of President Dreyfuss, who has offered his players a bonus if they take every game this season from the despised Reds. The offer is the result of the action of John T. Brush, owner of the Cincinnati club and chairman of the National league executive board, in the Conroy-Tinker case. The Pittsburgh players also are worked up over the matter, and when it came their turn at bat in the ninth the rallying cry was, "Don't forget Brush."

Bill Phillips Was Badly Fooled.

Bill Phillips, the leader of the Allentport, Pa., brass band who was doing the pitching for the visitors, and doing it well, girded up his loins in the ninth and smiled as though it was all over and he had the game stored away in the Reds' batbag, but Bill was wrong, and admitted so after the game. Beaumont was first at bat in the ninth and he dumped one down and started like a limited express for first. Steinfeldt, of the Reds, retrieved the ball and, having to make a quick throw, his aim was bad. Beckley made a wild scramble for the ball but failed to get it, and Beau, who had slid into first, pulled the sphere out from under him and handed it to big Jake.

Here was the start for the Reds' undoing, and the spectators, who a moment before had been awe stug at the fates that threatened a Red victory, suddenly took a renewed interest in the game. Honus Wagner, who was next up, didn't try to knock a board off the fence with the ball, as he was expected to do, but he just dumped one to the left of the Allentport band leader and reached first before Phillips could get his mitt on the ball. That made two on bases, none out and only one run needed to tie the score. No wonder the crowd howled.

There Was No Time for Kicking.

Bransfield was the next batter and he also bunted the ball, it rolling down towards third, giving the runners ample time to move up a base. Kitty was on first before the ball reached Beckley, but to the surprise of everybody Umpire O'Day called Bransfield out. On any other occasion this decision would have caused an awful objection, but the champions were too busy just then to do anything but put in a feeble kick and let it go at that. O'Day made the thing worse by first calling the runner safe, then changing his decision.

It was now up to Claude Ritchey, and perhaps "Little All Right" wasn't there with the goods. The first ball that Phillips pitched Ritchey landed on and started it off with rocket speed towards right field. Maroon tried to head the ball off, but the best he could do was to touch the sphere, thus deflecting its course, and before big Sam Crawford could get his hands on the ball Beaumont and Wagner were across the plate with the two runs necessary for a victory.

The display of good heady baseball put up by the champions in that one inning was the treat of a season and the spectators as they filed out of the park patted each other on the back and talked about Pittsburgh's wonderful ball team. The game had been an interesting one all the way, but was marred a trifle by O'Day's poor work, the umpire seeming to have a day off on both balls and strikes as well as on base decisions.

Phillippe Had One Bad Inning.

Deacon Phillippe was on the rubber for the champions and outside of the sixth inning pitched a very clever game. In the sixth the Reds found his delivery for a single and two doubles, which netted them two runs. Their other run was scored in the first as a result of a base on balls to Dobbs, a two-bagger to left by Crawford and Clarke's poor return of the ball.

Phillips' pitching for the visitors was also clever, but his support at the critical moments was none too good. The Pirates scored in the first when Clarke reached first on Davis' out at third, stole second and scored on Beaumont's single to center. In the second Ritchey led off with a two-bagger to right. This should have been an easy fly catch, but Crawford badly misjudged the ball, Ritchey reached third on Leach's safe bunt and scored when Zimmer forced Leach at second. The other two runs have already been described. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The sporting editor of The Gazette has a letter for Dick Pearce, formerly of Cincinnati, which Mr. Pearce can have by calling at this office.

Tommy Leach gathered in a liner from Hoy's bat in the third inning that almost lifted him off the ground. Tommy ducked his head, but he held on to the ball.

There will likely be a battle between left handers today, when Tannehill and Hahn are called on to oppose each other. Both pitchers are cracker jacks when they are in winning form.

Wid Conroy, the suspended Pirate, was out in uniform and practiced with the players before the regular game was called. The early spectators gave Wid a hand when he appeared on the field.

Jack O'Connor is on deck again, ready to take his turn back of the bat whenever needed. Jack got in from St. Louis yesterday and his overstay was due to a bit of politics he was mixed in over in the Mound City.

Honus Wagner contributed the prettiest play of the game in the ninth inning, when he by a side jump headed off Dobbs' liner and held to the ball. It was a great play and was warmly applauded by the spectators.

Lefty Davis got a fumbled two-bagger in the first inning. Like as pulling away from the plate to avoid one of Phillips' benders and the ball accidentally struck his bat and sailed out into right field, where none of the Reds could get at it.

Owing to the erection of new bleachers in the right and middle field there was a ground rule. If a ball rolled under the bleachers so a fielder could not get at it, the hit counted for three bases, otherwise the batter was allowed to take as many bases as he could get.

Big Jake Beckley was guilty of a very Heinie like play in the second inning when he fielded Leach's bunt in such a way that Tommy easily beat him to first base. The crowd gave big Jake the merry ha ha, and Eagle Eye looked very cheap when he fielded the ball back to Pitcher Phillips. It was about the stupidest bit of work seen on the home grounds this season.

Wahoo Sam Crawford, the Reds' right fielder, made an awful mishadge of Ritchey's fly in the second inning. The ball was a bit high and far away and Crawford had plenty of time to get under it, but he circled about the right garden like a recently released homing pigeon, trying to get its bearings. Even a muddy, slippery field was no excuse for such a blunder as Crawford made.

The display of baseball put up by the champions in the ninth inning yesterday was well worth any man's price of admission. The players discovered that they could get to anything in the long hit line with the delivery of Bill Phillips, so they resorted to bunting, and the moment they started that kind of work the Red infield went up in the air as high as the famed Gilderoy's Kite.

Umpire Hank O'Day certainly was away off in his decisions yesterday. He gave the locals one or two bad dopes, but his worst display was in the ninth inning, when he called Bransfield out at first. Kitty had beaten the ball by a mile before Beckley had the ball. It was an off day for Hank and that is something unusual, as he always umpires good ball in this city and is well liked by the spectators.

As a result of the recent rains Exposition park was in very bad playing shape yesterday. The infield was all right, but the outfield was a regular marsh and the ground, particularly in right and middle field, was as slippery as a banana peel. Lefty Davis and Beaumont disappeared into when they went to field grounders, as each took a hasty seat and brought back to the bench a coating of black, sticky mud.

Pitcher Bill Phillips, the sage of Allenport, Pa., was badly disgusted after that ninth inning, and he had a right to be disgusted with the support given him. He pitched good enough ball to win most any game and it's pretty hard to steal a ball game of that kind clip away at the very last moment. The game was certainly a tough one for Phillips to lose.

BOTH FOR BROOKLYN.

First Was Pitchers' Battle and Second a Slugging Match.

BROOKLYN, July 1.—The Brooklyn and Philadelphia teams played a doubleheader at Washington park today and Brooklyn won both games, the first by the close score of 2 to 1 and the second by 8 to 6. The first game was a battle of the pitchers, with honors about even. The second was a fine hitting game, in which the home players knocked Iberg out of the box in the sixth inning, when every man on the Brooklyn side went to the bat. The six hits made in this inning, two of which were doubles, scored five runs. The scores:

EVANS WAS WILD.

Boston Had a Picnic With the Poor Giants.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Boston won the second game of the series from New York at the Polo grounds today by the bunching of hits, together with Evans' wildness. The New York pitcher forced in two runs and gave six men their bases on balls. The score:

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Philadelphia, Pa., July 1.—One of the most remarkable games of ball ever played on a local diamond took place this afternoon at Columbia park, the Athletics and Baltimores being the participants. The local team won by the score of 2 to 0. Sensational fielding and phenomenal pitching marked the game. Neither team had the shadow of the appearance of an error, while the duel that was waged in the pitchers' box between Waddell and Cronin is seldom witnessed.

There was but little difference in the work of the two men, Cronin pitching a remarkably effective game. Under any other circumstances such work would have won the game, but it happened that today Baltimore was facing pitching that was a trifle better, and the fortunes of the game were against them. But three hits were made off Cronin, one more than off Waddell, and but 30 men faced him, three men more than the usual number, and five bases on balls partly accounted for this.

Waddell's speed was tremendous, while his control was perfect. He did not hit a man or give a base on balls, and only once did he pitch three bad balls. Thirteen men struck out. The last three men on the batting list, Gilbert, Howell and Cronin, struck out in quick succession every time they came to bat, one only being so fortunate as to foul the ball. Selbach, Seymour and Bresnahan were the only men who escaped strike-outs. Another remarkable feature about the game was that only 27, the legal number, faced Waddell. Two men made safe hits, but in each instance they were retired before they went beyond first base. Seymour made a single in the second, but was caught by a good throw by Schreck. Robinson placed the ball into left in the fifth inning, but was the second out of the inning, attempting to steal second. Thus summarized, but two men reached first during the nine innings, and not a man traversed the circuit beyond the initial bag, and not a man was left on bases. The score:

MOBBED THE UMPIRE.

Detroit Crowd Threw Rocks at O'Laughlin.

DETROIT, July 1.—Pitcher Joss shut out the Detroit team this afternoon by the finest kind of pitching. Only two hits were made off him. Poor base running in the first inning, when the first two men up were given their bases on balls, spoiled Detroit's only chance to score. Umpire O'Laughlin's work was very bad and in the ninth inning, after he had put Gleason out of the game for kicking on a questionable decision, the crowd made a demonstration against him. Several rocks were thrown from the bleachers, but the police arrested the thrower and checked the crowd before anything serious happened. Score:

SPLIT A DOUBLE-HEADER.

Yerkes' Poor Work Cost Cardinals the Second Game.

CHICAGO, July 1.—St. Louis and Chicago split even in their double-header. St. Louis won the first by bunching four hits. The first run was forced in by a base on balls, then Hartman cleared the bases with a clean two-bagger. Yerkes was responsible for his team's loss of the second game, a gift, his muff of an easy throw, followed by a single scoring two runs. Outside of these two innings all four pitchers were very effective. Attendance 2,360. Scores:

ROUND ROBINS TOURNEY.

The Best Tennis Experts Are Pitted Against Each Other at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—The Round Robin lawn tennis tournament between Beals C. Wright of Harvard, William J. Clothier, Pennsylvania state champion; Dwight S. Davis St. Louis and R. D. Little of Princeton, the four experts, began today on the courts of the Germantown Cricket club. The exhibition given by the four contestants was the best seen on any of the courts in this city in a long time. The tournament was scheduled for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, but owing to heavy rain yesterday the first pair, Clothier and Wright, were able to play only four games of the first set when a postponement was made until this morning. Wright won his match in brilliant style. The other morning match was won by Davis. In the afternoon contests Davis beat Clothier and Wright defeated Little. The summary:

Morning games—Wright beat Clothier 6—1, 8—6. Points—Wright 95, Clothier 50. Davis beat Little, 6—2, 4—6, 6—1. Points—Davis 90, Little 86.

Afternoon games—Davis beat Clothier, 3—6, 6—3, 6—4. Points—Davis 95, Clothier 92. Wright beat Little, 6—4, 8—6. Points—Wright 89, Little 69. Tomorrow Wright will play Davis and Clothier will meet Little. After these matches are over Wright and Clothier will play Little and Davis a match in doubles.

TO STOP THE FIGHT.

Circuit Attorney Folk of St. Louis After Corbett and Sullivan.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—Circuit Attorney Folk today, in a communication to the chief of police, called attention to the proposed prize fight scheduled for Thursday night at the West End Coliseum, between Young Corbett and Dave Sullivan, and says it comes under the Missouri statutes prohibiting such public exhibitions. The circuit attorney adds:

"My opinion, after a full investigation, being that this is a prize fight within the meaning of the law, it is my duty to prosecute all who may participate, aid or abet in the commission of the felony."

THE KIEL REGATTA.

Mrs. Ogden Goelet Offers a Fine Cup for Special Race.

KIEL, July 1.—The official award of the schooner race of Sunday last is as follows: Cicely, first; Lasca, second; Clara, third; Iduna, fourth; Meteor, fifth, and Nordwest, sixth. Cecil Quentin, the owner of the Cicely, says the Meteor has not yet had a fair test, as she has not been sailed in a good breeze.

Mrs. Ogden Goelet has offered a consolation prize of 2,000 marks to be raced for Thursday by the special class boats which were defeated by the Uncle Sam.

HOMERS' LONG FLIGHT.

Allegheny Club Held Its Last Old Bird Race of Season.

The Allegheny Homing club held its last old bird race of the season, from Vandalia, Ill., the 500-mile station. The birds were liberated by A. T. Kirk Sunday morning at 7:15, weather very unfavorable. Only three birds reported up to Tuesday night. The first bird to report was "True Blue" of H. Slaney, at 9:43 Tuesday morning, speed 450.58 yards per minute; second, Bertha, of C. Merker, at 10:09, speed 474.19 yards per minute; third, Mercury, of J. Teit, at 12:03, speed 448.01 yards.

Preparing for the Trotting Races

DEPOSITS ARE PLACED FOR BIG TROTTING RACES

The Owners of Boralma, Lord Derby and The Abbot Put Up Cash.

FORTY THOUSAND POSTED

That Much More Is to Be Put Up Before the Races Take Place. Likely Both Events Will Take Place at Hartford.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, July 1.—Forfeits aggregating $20,000 were deposited today in the Boralma-Lord Derby and The Abbot-Boralma trotting races, scheduled for August. Thomas W. Lawson, owner of Boralma, sent a certified check for $5,000 as his second deposit on the forfeit to bind the race between Boralma and Lord Derby and another certified check for a similar amount to bind the meeting between Boralma and The Abbot. E. E. Smathers, who owns Lord Derby, sent a certified check for $5,000 to fulfill his part of the conditions and John J. Seannell, owner of The Abbot, also sent his certified check for a like amount.

As Mr. Lawson had previously deposited $10,000 and Mr. Smathers and Mr. Seannell $5,000 each there is now up as forfeit money on the races the sum of $40,000. Forty thousand dollars more remains to be put up on the days of the races. According to the agreements the winner takes all in both races.

The Boralma-Lord Derby race is to be decided at Hartford August 2 and it now looks as if the Boralma-The Abbot contest would also go to Hartford, taking place on August 28 or 30. In each race the conditions call for the best two in three heats.

VICTORY FOR VERNERS.

eated Liberty A. C. in Evening Game at Friendship Park.

The Verners defeated the Liberty A. C. in a one-sided but interesting game at Friendship park last night, by the score of 9 to 5. The features of the game, outside of the pitching of Loy and Sheeting, were the all-around playing of Jordan and Ashbaugh and the batting of Jordan, Lyons and Loy. Verner A. C. plays C. A. C. of Braddock two games on July 4 at Friendship park. Score:

RENCHMAN GETS RACE.

hmen Are Indignant Over Committee's Decision.

NNA, July 1.—The committee having control of the recent international race from Paris to Vienna has ruled not to disqualify Marcel Renault because he failed to stop at the station at Florisdorf where the finishing line was to be taken. Renault therefore takes first prize. Henri Farman second prize, Edmond is awarded third, Maurice Farman gets the fourth and Zborowski the fifth prize. The decision to award Renault the race has proved with widespread and intense indignation, everywhere outside of Paris. The English newspapers are especially indignant, freely declaring that only Frenchmen were given the best show.

THE YACHT RACES.

day's Tests Called Off Because of High Wind.

CK ROCK, CONN., July 1.—A strong wind from the northwest was blowing today when the boats entered for the final races for the Seawanhaka Challenge cup prepared for the start. The course was laid out upon was straight away to windward, leeward and return, each leg of which was two miles in length.

Bridges today announced the points won by each boat yesterday, as follows: Columbia 21, Crusader 18, Tecumseh 17, Constellation 13, Nutmeg 12, Seeress 10, Gloria 9, Filibuster 8. By the method of scoring every yacht starting is given points and one additional point for each place she passes. The races for today were called off on account of high wind.

THE BIG HANDICAP WENT TO HERBERT

RACE WAS A GREAT ONE AND FINISH VERY EXCITING.

Only the Judges Were in a Position to Pick the Winner—Death Robbed Captain Brown of His Valuable Filly Mattie Lewis.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 1.—Herbert, closing with a rush in the last furlong, beat Kamara in the Long Island handicap at Sheepshead Bay today. The distance was one mile and a furlong. Despite the fact that he was carrying top weight, 121 pounds, and was to meet such fast ones as Kamara and Roehampton, he was installed favorite, with Kamara second choice and Roehampton the outsider. Roehampton was an added starter and for the first time this year he had the weight that he likes, 105 pounds, but he performed very badly, finishing eight lengths behind Kamara.

The finish was so close that none but the judges were in a position to decide, Kamara and Herbert coming to the wire head and head.

Captain Brown Loses Valuable Filly.

Capt. S. S. Brown lost his most promising filly, Mattie Lewis, by Sir Dixon-Lady Wayward, today. After being exercised this morning she was taken suddenly ill and died soon afterward. Mattie Lewis ran third in the Great Trial stakes Saturday. The weather was warm and the track slow. Summaries:

ONE GOOD THING.

Dick Welles Beaten by a 15-to-1 Shot for Kenwood Stakes.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 1.—Today's races at Washington park were run on a very sticky track. A sensation developed in the defeat of Dick Welles, the 2-year-old wonder, in the Kenwood Stakes. There were only three starters and Dick Welles was held at 1 to 8 in the betting, while 15 to 1 could be had against either of the others. There was a long delay at the post and then the horses ran close together to the stretch, when Stemwinder fell back and the others fought it out, Tom Cogan winning by a length. Cogan belongs to S. C. Hildreth, who took in $2,370 as a result of the victory. Weather clear; attendance 7,000. Summaries:

First race, six furlongs—Hanover Queen, 98, T. Dean, 10 to 1, won; Stuyve, 108, Beauchamp, 13 to 5, second; C. B. Campbell, 117, Meade, 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:21. Herodiade, Brigadier, If You Dare and Hans Wagner also ran.

Seibel.

Sharon Will Celebrate.

SHARON, PA., July 1.—(Special.)—Preparations are being made by the citizens of Sharpsville for celebrating the Fourth of July. Indications are that the horse races and other athletic sports at Speedway park will exceed those of previous years. One of the features will be the attempt of Dave Eye, owned by George Carr of Orangeville, to lower the track record. The Mercer Grays and Sharpsville clubs will play a game of ball during the afternoon. There will also be bicycle and foot races, ending with a fireworks display in the evening.

Lehigh Gets Lafayette Coach.

BETHLEHEM, PA., July 1.—Dr. S. B. Newton, formerly of Lafayette college, today signed a three-year contract with the Lehigh Athletic association to coach Lehigh university's football team, at a salary of $2,000. He will take the football squad in hand September 1.

BELOW BILLION MARK.

Uncle Sam Begins His New Fiscal Year With a Healthy Financial Statement.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—The statement of the public debt at the close of the fiscal year, June 30, 1902, shows that the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $968,457,241, a decrease as compared with May 30, 1902, of $13,012,852. This decrease is accounted for by a corresponding increase in the amount of cash on hand. The debt is recapitulated as follows:

Interest bearing debt	$ 951,070,340
Debt on which interest has ceased since maturity	1,280,980
Debt bearing no interest	395,380,156
Total	$1,348,031,336
This amount, however, does not include $839,879,089 in certificates and treasury notes outstanding, which are offset by an equal amount of cash held for their redemption. The cash in the treasury is classified as follows:
Gold reserve	$ 150,000,000
Trust funds	830,579,089
General fund	193,724,103
In national bank depositaries	126,506,517
Total	$1,270,819,710

Against which there are demand liabilities outstanding amounting to $912,245,594, leaving a cash balance on hand of $358,574,115.

The comparative statement of receipts and expenditures issued by the secretary of the treasury today shows that for the fiscal year ended June 30, the total receipts amounted to $563,105,187, as against $587,685,337 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1901. The total expenditures were $471,266,041, against $509,987,355 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1901. The surplus for the year just closed is $92,166,000.

On November 1, 1901, Secretary Gage estimated the expenditures for the year at $472,000,000, which was only $730,359 in excess of the actual figures. He estimated the receipts at $572,000,000, which was $8,894,813 below the estimates. This difference, however, was due to the loss of internal revenue receipts as the direct result of the revenue reduction act of April 12, 1902, which amounted to about $9,000,000.

The monthly circulation statement issued by the comptroller of the currency shows that at the close of business June 30 the total circulation of national bank notes was $356,072,091, an increase for the year of $2,929,904, and a decrease for the month of $75,983. The circulation based on United States bonds was $314,238,811, a decrease for the year of $6,651,673 and an increase for the month of $28,974. The circulation secured by lawful money was $42,443,280, an increase for the year of $12,881,777, and a decrease for the month of $704,067. The amount of United States registered bonds on deposit to secure circulation notes was $317,163,630, and to secure public deposits $124,718,650.

BAILEY UNREPENTANT.

Will Not Apologize for Attacking Beveridge Because Senate Was Not in Session.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—Mr. Bailey says that he does not intend to apologize for his attack on Senator Beveridge. He would rather have the senate expel him, he declares.

"If I had so far forgotten myself as to strike Mr. Beveridge in the open senate," he said, "I would submit to the penalty which the senate imposed upon me, but if a gentleman cannot defend himself against imputations and insinuations designed to prove him a libeler of honest men, after the session is over, it is news to me. I will not apologize."

POSTAL MATTERS.

Three Rural Delivery Routes to Radiate from State College.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—Three rural free delivery routes will be established August 1 at State College, Center county, Pa. The postoffice at Housersville will be discontinued and the postoffice at Shingletown supplied by rural carrier.

The following postmasters were appointed today: Pennsylvania—Edenborn, Fayette county, W. J. Sheets; Lafayette, McKean county, C. A. Taylor. West Virginia—Lerona, Mercer county, W. H. Caldwell; McConkey, Taylor county, J. H. Summers; Reader, Wetzel county, Lemat Ankrom.

The president sent to the senate the nomination of George G. Sedgwick to be postmaster at Marietta, O. The nomination was confirmed.

Lyman, Akron, $8; George Caldwell, Guysville, $10; Thomas Searchet, Cambridge, $10; Thomas J. Johnson, Canton, $10; William Gallentine, Maynard, $8; minors of George Britt, Strasburg, $12; Irene Scott, New Cumberland, $8.

West Virginia—Jackson R. Stoker, Howard, $8; James Youell, Hartwood, $6; Mary Smith, Wick, $12.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

The act abolishing the war taxes took effect Tuesday.

Senator Foraker, who was threatened with peritonitis, was able to attend the senate during its closing hours.

The defalcation of William S Yeatmans, formerly disbursing clerk of the war department, as far as known, amounts to $18,000.

President Roosevelt Tuesday afternoon placed the first layer of mortar upon the foundation of the new Grace Reformed church.

Frank E. Scales, the man who has been bothering Admiral Dewey with frequent warnings of "terrible danger," has been committed to the insane asylum.

The senate committee on the Philippines has decided not to visit the archipelago during the recess, as urged by Charles Francis Adams and others. The committee divided on party lines.

The four new battleships authorized by congress will be named the Washington, the Tennessee, the Louisiana and the Connecticut. The two gunboats will be called the Paducah and the Dubuque.

The president will not give a recess appointment to T. J. Jones, pension agent at Columbus. The nomination of Jones was sent to the senate some time ago, but its confirmation was blocked by Senator Hanna.

Among the changes announced in the clerical force in the interior department were the following: George F. Schley, Walter Boughton, John C. Morgan, Arthur F. Lewis, Thomas L. Mead, Jr., George W. Kirk and Adolph A. Tomasch of Ohio, and Ellis B. Eyles of Pennsylvania, appointed fourth assistant examiners in the patent office at $1,200 a year each; Charles A. Boynton of Ohio, promoted from $1,800 to $2,000 a year.

LOCAL MATTERS GOT ATTENTION FROM CONGRESS

Liberal Appropriations for the Rivers, Except for the Allegheny.

MANY PUBLIC BUILDINGS

One of Them a Marine Hospital for Pittsburgh—A Long List of Private Pension Acts—Lake Erie Canal Bill Goes Over.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
603 Fifteenth St., N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.

The session of congress that adjourned this evening, was an unusually favorable one for local interests. The delegations from Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia were effective in their work, and as a result nearly all of the local legislation desired was enacted into laws.

Liberal appropriations were made for all the river and harbor improvements in the three states, except for the Allegheny river, and that this important river was not better cared for was the result of the neglect of the river men interested, and not the fault of the members of the delegation. However, it is the intention of Senator Quay and the other members of the delegation to take up the subject when the next river and harbor bill is being perfected and see to it that a general system of slackwater navigation for the river is authorized.

In the matter of public buildings, Pittsburgh gets a $150,000 marine hospital building, and many of the nearby cities have been granted their desire for federal buildings to cost large sums. More local pension bills have been passed at this session than at any two sessions for years.

Of the legislation of local importance that failed to become laws at the session, one of the most needed was the general immigration bill. That it was not enacted into a law was not the fault of Senator Penrose, chairman of the senate committee on immigration, as he worked day and night to secure its passage, but was blocked by other matters over which he had no control.

"We hoped to pass it at the present session," said Senator Penrose, "but as there was strong opposition to some of its features, and as practically all of the senators desired to adjourn, the committee had to consent that the bill should go over to the short session. However, you can say emphatically the bill will be enacted into a law at the coming session. It is rarely the case that congress passes such an important measure at one session. A majority of the senators favor its passage, and it will be pushed to the front and kept there until it becomes a law."

Another local bill that failed to pass either house was the Lake Erie and Ohio river ship canal measure. It was reported favorably from the house committee some time ago, and Representative Daizell hoped to at least secure its passage through the house at this session; but the rush of matters during the closing days frustrated his plans. Mr. Daizell is confident that the bill will pass at the house at the coming session.

WOOD SHOWS ACCOUNTS.

Accompanied by Vouchers He Gives a Detailed Statement of Money Spent for Reciprocity.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—Acting Secretary of War Sanger today sent a communication to the house of representatives in answer to the resolution directing the secretary of war to furnish information as to what amounts have been paid out of the Cuban treasury or funds of the Cuban people to F. B. Thurber or any other person, corporation or association, for advocating reciprocity with the United States. The answer is accompanied by certified copies of vouchers.

"The disbursements made," says Gen. Wood, "were made by me as military governor of the island of Cuba and were made for the purpose of presenting to the people of the United States without reference to party or section, the desires of the people of Cuba as to the trade relations which should exist between that country and our own. The action taken was approved by the industrial and commercial classes of Cuba. It received the unqualified approval of the secretaries of the insular government, and was expenditure of Cuban funds for the purpose of promoting Cuban interests."

Expenses of special commission of Cuban planters	$ 1,330
Salary and expenses of F. B. Thurber	740

EIGHTH STREET PROPERTY SOLD FOR $65,000

Now Occupied by the City Morgue and Was Bought by Business Firm

WAREHOUSE SITES BOUGHT

Two Allegheny Sales of $100,000 Reported—Good Deal Beyond the Hump—Improved Property Exchanged for Farm and Lots.

The property in Eighth street now occupied by the city morgue has been sold for $65,000. The purchasers are Edwin Gensenleiter, George Gray and Frank A. Gaut, doing business under the firm name of Gensenleiter & Co. Title to the property was secured from the Third National bank of Allegheny. The lot is "L" shaped, having a frontage of 58.5 feet on the west side of Eighth street about midway between Penn avenue and Duquesne way, and a depth of 100 feet to Maxfields alley. In this alley there is an "L," measuring 20x41 feet. The morgue building, a three-story brick, and stables are erected on the lot. The property was formerly owned by George Crawford and adjoins the holdings of John F. Parry and James K. Hamilton. It is understood the new owners will take possession as soon as the new morgue building at the corner of Diamond and Ross streets is completed.

Warehouse Syndicate Clears Ground.

The so-called warehouse syndicate is beginning to show its hand in the district below Penn avenue, and by September 1 a great change will have taken place. The H. n. Walter Lumber Company, at the corner of Duquesne way and Second street, has disposed of its lease, which ran till April 1, 1903, to F. F. Nicola, and it is now negotiating for the purchase of a site in Allegheny. Next to its present location are the Marvin stables, a three-story brick building, owned by several years ago, and a new 75-story brick structure. An agreement has been practically reached between the Marvin company and the syndicate, by which the former is to sell its lease and local its present building as soon as a site can be secured and suitable buildings erected.

On the Penn avenue end of the block a force of men is now dismantling the brick and steel boiler works of the James Rees & Sons Company, and the material is being moved to the company's new building now going up in Duquesne way, near Fourth street.

With these changes the syndicate will have vacant in a few months the entire square bounded by Penn avenue, Duquesne way, Second and Third streets, except the plant of the Haugh & Keenan Company, which will be torn down as soon as their new warehouse in Duquesne way, near Ninth street, is built.

Is H. C. Frick the "Syndicate?"

Losses on other properties in the Point district are being picked up quickly by agents of the warehouse syndicate, and some of the hard blow given the promoters by the court decision relative to the block house, it is generally believed by business men in that locality that the original scheme has been altered but little.

This belief is shared, too, by many of the Daughters of the Revolution, one of whom remarked yesterday that the warehouse projectors still had the hope of an appeal in a higher court.

Another belief is gaining ground among well-posted real estate men, and this is that Henry C. Frick figures much more conspicuously in the so-called warehouse syndicate than has been generally supposed. The McCormick lot in Penn avenue was bought by F. F. Nicola, according to reliable information, for Mr. Frick. It is also reported that a number of other deals in the neighborhood have been made in his interest. This leads many to believe that whatever the railroad plans are regarding this territory, Mr. Frick is directly interested in their consummation.

Two Allegheny Sales of $100,000.

A large property in Allegheny is reported to have been marketed during the last few days by the Commonwealth Real Estate & Trust Company. It is a lot facing 70 feet in Stockton avenue, between Federal street and Sherman avenue, and extending back 240 feet to Park way, where it has a similar frontage. A three-story brick house stands on the front of the lot. The property was formerly owned by the Thurman estate and is said to have been sold at $45,000. The purchaser, whose name is withheld pending the delivery of the deed, takes the lot for an investment.

The same brokers have about concluded a sale of another Allegheny property for a sum approximating $55,000. The lot measures 60x240 feet, at the corner of West Diamond street, and extends through to Park way. This lot is also improved with a three-story brick building. Regarding the latter purchase the brokers declined to give any information, but it is understood the deal has been practically completed.

A $20,000 Deal in Outer Fifth Avenue.

Through the agency of S. A. Dixon Charles and Elizabeth Burkhart have sold to William M. Saunders of Allegheny, the property at Nos. 1932-34 Fifth avenue, for $20,000. The lot has a frontage of 42 feet on the south side of Fifth avenue, near Junonville street, adjoining Elks hall, and a depth of 120 feet. The improvements consist of two brick houses of nine rooms each. These the purchaser will remodel for flats.

An exchange deal involving $36,000 has been made by Shaler, Martin & Evans, and James McCartney. By the transaction the latter secures seven five-room brick houses in Morrison street, near Chatsworth street, Twenty-third ward. The houses stand on lots 50x100 feet, and are valued at $18,000. In exchange for them Mr. McCartney tendered a plot of vacant frontage in Bellevue, valued at $8,000, the difference being paid in cash. The Bellevue lot faces 50 feet in Gregson street, near Spruce avenue, and has a depth of 190 feet. It adjoins the property on which George L. King is now building 20 high-class brick houses and is in a part of Bellevue where property is changing hands rapidly.

Farm Traded for McKeesport Lots.

Another realty exchange, involving $20,000, was closed yesterday, through Joseph P. Rankin & Co. They conveyed from Mrs. Eva Gray of Charleroi to Albert Pantzer, a farm of 23 acres, commonly known as the Marks farm, located in Hopewell township, near Sharpsburg, Beaver county. The farm is improved with three frame houses and was valued in the deal at $10,000. Mr. Pantzer gave in exchange for the farm four lots, 105x120 feet, in Bennett street, Thirteenth ward, McKeesport, valued at $2,000, and an improved lot, 50x120 feet, in the same street, valued at $8,000. The difference was paid in cash.

An interesting transfer was registered yesterday at the city hall, a deed dated August 27, 1895. The transfer was from Jane Porter of Pitt township, to John Brown of Allegheny, and the property in question was a lot, 40x97 feet, on the west side of Kirkpatrick street, between what are now Bedford and Webster avenues. The consideration was $880, or $9.50 a front foot, less than one-fourth what the property is worth now.

Bank Deal Closed.

The deed was registered yesterday in the sale of the Third National bank property, at the east corner of Wood street and Virgin alley, to Henry W. Oliver, for $200,000. The lot measures 50x99 feet, and the bank building is a three-story structure. The deal was made last winter by P. D. Nicols. A peculiar feature in the transaction is a covenant added to the deed stating that no doors or windows shall be made on the north side of any building erected, and that no other than a two-story brick building be erected on the site. This provision was made originally, it is said, to protect the First Presbyterian church, but as Mr. Oliver has secured control of its stock, it is believed that there will be no difficulty in overcoming the technicality.

The Real Estate Trust Company yesterday issued its semi-annual statement. The showing is particularly strong in the banking department where $3,002,-885.16 is on deposit, although it was only created 15 months ago. Since January 1 the company has paid $120,000 in dividends which have been deducted from undivided profits.

A SINGLE PAVING STONE BLOCKED TRAFFIC ON A MAIN THOROUGHFARE

One paving stone blocked one of the main thoroughfares of Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon. About 3 o'clock a wagon loaded with paving blocks passed through Wood street. Half way between Fifth avenue and Virgin alley one of the blocks fell from the wagon. A street car then came along. The block lay near one of the rails. The fender struck it but failed to push it to one side, and in a second it was jammed between the wheel and the fender in such a way that it locked the wheel.

The motorman and conductor got off the car and looked under it. A messenger boy joined them. In 30 seconds there were 20 in the crowd, and it was increasing every second. The driver of a wagon stopped so he could take a look under the car, and that settled the street for traffic. Cars and wagons gathered from both directions. Men and boys fought to get a look under the car, where it was thought some poor unfortunate lay. Inspectors of the Pittsburgh Railways Company came. The first one ran to the nearest telephone. In less than five minutes from the time the car struck the block the "hurry-up" wagon was on hand. The men put a jack under the car, raised it a little, took out the block and let down the car.

The blockade was over. A minute later traffic was resumed and everybody was going his way as if nothing had happened. But that one paving stone had blocked Wood street all the same.

One-Half Interest for $14,000.

C. G. Kiskadon, Allegheny, has sold to A. B. Ivory, an undivided one-half interest in a property at Colwell and Vine streets, Eighth ward, for $14,000. The lot measures 38x70 feet and is improved.

It develops that the purchaser of the Charlotte E. Berkhelmer property, at Marion and Ann streets, Sixth ward, was Joshua Neft. The deal which was noted when made was closed yesterday by Geo. Schmidt & Son, the exact consideration being $10,000. The lot measures 20x113 feet, and is improved with two three-story brick houses and one frame dwelling.

Smith Bros., architects, are preparing plans for a frame chapel for the Methodist Episcopal church of West Pittsburgh. It will be erected in Oakdean avenue at a cost of $2,500.

Crafton & Orr, J. Stewart & Co. sold for Cooke, Stewart & Farrar, to Dr. H. P. Crawford three lots, 45x100 feet each, in Ridge avenue, Crafton Bridge plan, Crafton, for $5,000. The purchaser will build two $5,000 brick houses.

IMPORTANT CHANGES MADE.

Two Big Concerns Have Made Shifts in Officers' Corps.

The Rodgers Sand Company reorganized yesterday and the fact that some of the local sales department officials of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company resigned, evidently themselves with the Rodgers Sand Company caused numerous changes.

Samuel Reed, who was night manager of the local sales department of the coal combination, takes the place made vacant by the resignation of J. Herman Rodgers. William Short, who has been with Wilson, Bailey & Co., takes Mr. Reed's place. Joseph Short resigned his position as chief bookkeeper of the sales department.

The Rodgers Sand Company has been divided into two departments, the productive and the disbursing. J. Herman Rodgers becomes manager of the productive department and J. Norwood Rodgers takes charge of the disbursing department. Joseph Short becomes chief bookkeeper for the company. Capt. W. B. Johnston is its president. W. D. O'Neil yesterday took charge of the local sales department of the coal combination.

Famous Forest Oil Co. Absorbed By the Big South Penn Oil Co.

At a meeting of the officials of the Forest Oil Company and the South Penn Oil Company, held in Oil City yesterday, the holdings of the first-named company were transferred to the South Penn Oil Company for a consideration not made public. The property transferred is the third largest of the Standard Oil Company's producing interests in the east and consists of leases on about 25,000 acres of producing territory in Allegheny, Butler, Beaver and Washington counties, on which are about 3,709 producing wells (including gassers), having an aggregate production of 5,000 barrels a day.

With the passing out of the Forest Oil Company one of the Standard's oldest affiliated producing branches ceases to exist. It was organized in the early days of the Bradford excitement, in 1879, and secured as the nucleus of its future possessions the Young, Vanmeter-guift & Co., holdings. Later its operations were transferred to Butler county, where it acquired the holdings of Thomas W. Phillips, at that time the largest individual producer in that county.

By purchase and development it, at the time of the formal transfer to the South Penn, was the largest producing company in the counties named and had a larger daily production than all others combined. The transfer of the Forest to the South Penn Oil Company makes the latter the largest producer in the eastern fields and all told gives it between 7,000 and 8,000 producing wells, with an aggregate production of about 25,000 barrels a day, or less than 30 per cent of that of all other companies producing Pennsylvania oil, as shown by the average runs from all fields during the month of June.

Officials and Employes Retained.

With the transfer nearly all of the officials and employes go along, there being few changes or vacancies filled in the personnel of the former.

W. J. Young, formerly vice president of the Forest and South Penn Companies, retains the title and is the official head of the big concern. S. E. Crocker, formerly general superintendent of the Forest Company, was appointed general manager to fill the vacancy made a few months ago when C. T. Braden resigned to accept the presidency of the Hope Natural Gas Company. John W. Worthington and William Edwards retain their positions as general manager and general superintendent respectively. R. W. Cumings is resident solicitor. Captain James T. Bishop is treasurer and S. G. Hartman and E. H. Northrop, first and second assistants.

There will be no changes made in the policy of the company, its operations will be conducted along the same conservative lines that have marked the development which it owes a quarter part of its success in all fields.

New Ritchie Well Is a Hummer.

The Three Joes Oil Company's new Keener sand strike, on the Wagner farm, in Clay district, Ritchie county, W. Va., is a hummer. It was drilled for a few minutes yesterday and increased its production to 40 barrels an hour. It is still holding up at better than 700 barrels a day. Holders of territory in the vicinity of the property are now busy in the starting of new work. Mallory Bros. & Co. are getting in material for two rigs, one on the Freeland and the other on the Butcher farm. This company holds leases on a good block of territory and lends a contribution toward drilling the Wagner gusher, as it tested some of their territory. The Three Joes Oil Company has made locations for Nos. 2 and 3 on the Elroy Wagner farm.

In the new Big Injun sand development, north of Center Point, Doddridge county, the Daniel Carter farm, located 850 feet east of the initial producer on the Carter Harris farm and has a producer good for 100 barrels a day from the Big Injun sand.

The Carter Company is drilling Nos. 2 and 3 on this farm and has the rig up for No. 1 on the E. C. Powell farm.

In the Folsom, Gordon sand development in Wetzel county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed its test on the Keener heirs' farm and has an 80-barrel producer in the Gordon. In the same district, on the west side, the same company has completed its No. 11 on the Genins Robinson farm and has a small pumper.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, the Patterson York Oil Company has completed its No. 6 on the R. T. Lowder farm and has a 10-barrel pumper.

In the Beallsville district, Lewis county, the South Penn has completed No. 5 on the C. W. McCutcheon farm and has a 25-barrel producer.

Southeastern Ohio Territory.

East of the new Keener sand pool one and one half miles, near Jerusalem, Monroe county, Ohio, the Fisher Oil Company has drilled its test on the J. W. Tomlinson farm through the Keener and found nothing, and is now drilling in the Big Injun sand, with no better prospects.

On the same side of the Harper development the Ohio Oil Company has drilled its test on the E. W. Eaton farm through the Keener and will probably have a 10-barrel pumper in this and the Big Lime formations.

In the Lewisville district the Fisher Oil Company has completed a test on the Amos Kessner farm and has a 15-barrel pumper. The Ann Oil Company has drilled its test on the Joe Readenbaugh farm through both the Keener and Big Injun and has a duster.

In the Bowerston development, Harrison county, the Southern Oil Company has completed No. 2 James Crimmins and has a 5-barrel pumper. The Ohio Consolidated Oil Company has completed its test on the Isaac Miller farm and has the same kind of a pumper.

In the Murdocksville extension, in Washington county, Pa., the Hanover Oil Company has completed No. 6 on the Dorman heirs' farm and Patterson & Riddle have completed No. 15 Thomas Patterson. The first is good for 25 barrels and the last-named 15 barrels a day.

Word has been received from Beaumont, Tex., that James O'Donnell, formerly with the United Pipe line, in Bradford, and later with the Southwest Pipe line, at McDonald, was last Thursday morning found dead in bed at that place.

NEWS FROM THE MINES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 1.—The state mineralogist of California has just issued an important report on the copper resources of the state. It shows in a general way that there are two copper belts, extending nearly the whole length of the state, one following the coast ranges and the other the foothills of the Sierras. Most of this is virgin territory, and it is claimed that, with the possible exception of Alaska, no other mineral-bearing section in the world can duplicate this showing. Comparatively little exploration has been carried on, but during the past six years $17,500,000 of copper has been produced. When the vast deposits are systematically developed, the experts are now predicting, California will become the greatest copper producer in the world.

A dispatch from Mackaye, Ida., says the White Knob Company has shut down its mines and smelter indefinitely. This order, which affects 400 men, has caused consternation in the camp, for up to a short time ago it was believed that John W. Mackay and his associates would make a big financial success of the enterprise. Fully $1,000,000 has been spent to get at the mountain of low-grade copper ore. The plant includes an electric railway running up the side of White Knob mountain from the smelter to the mine, 30,000 feet of tunneling, 700 of shafting and a smelter with a capacity of 600 tons a day.

In the Adelia, in Webfoot gulch, near Silver City, Ida., a strike has been uncovered at a depth of 400 feet that assays from $25 to $100 a ton. A claim in the Flint district that has found a 12-inch vein at 40 feet that runs four ounces silver and $8 gold.

Advices from Nevada note that copper prophets have been made good by a 270-foot level in the Jarbidge, in the White Pine district, and that the Horn Silver, at Ray, has uncovered a rich body of ore.

Reports from Wilcox, Ariz., confirm the news of several good strikes of silver-lead ores in the Chiricahua mountains.

The output of the King of Arizona mine, Yuma county, for May, was $40,000, which was shipped from the mine by express.

The North Pole, near Sumpter, Ore., is preparing for the installation of 20 stamps, in addition to the present crushing capacity of 20 stamps and a tramway to Cracker creek.

Fool's peak, at the head of Life creek, on the divide between Eagle and Summit counties, is the scene of the latest mining excitement in Colorado. A vein has been opened for four feet in a short tunnel that averages $50 to the ton, while a one-inch streak yields five ounces gold.

H. L. Patterson has started work on the big dumps of the Old Victor at Cripple Creek. They have been previously worked over by hand, but the present lessee will operate on a larger scale and wash and screen the rock. Recent tests show values of from $16 to $40 a ton.

On the Jessie claim at Grand Encampment, Wyo., a shaft has been sunk 53 feet, with ore all the way down, showing a big lead which carries copper values in carbonates, oxides and glance.

The Metal Market.

The local market for copper was quiet and weak, with standard, spot to August, at $11 87½@11 75; Lake, $11 87½@12 25; electrolytic, $11 87½@12 00, and casting, $11 75@12 00. At London copper was unchanged, with spot at £59 15s and futures at £63 2s 6d. Tin was again 41 lower at London, which closed spot at £128 10s and futures at £120 17s 6d. The local market for tin was lower on the decline abroad, and an increase in the world's visible supply of 1,100 tons. Spot closed weak at $27 25@27 75. Lead was steady here at 4.15@4.20. London was unchanged at £11 2s 6d. Spelter ruled firm locally at 5c and unchanged in London at £18 12s 6d. New York iron was steady. Warrants continue nominal: No.

THE PROSPERITY OF THE PRESENT NOT TRANSIENT

A Steel Manufacturer Tells Why It Is Sure to Last in Rails.

HEAVIER MATERIAL USED

Roads Must Be Kept Up Whether Companies Pay Dividends or Not. Amalgamated Association and Tin Plate Conference.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, July 1.—In speaking of the prospects of the steel rail output of 1903, a prominent steel rail manufacturer makes this comment:

"It seems to be the popular thing at present to criticise the prosperity the steel industry is now enjoying by saying that it is due to the unusual conditions existing in an exceptionally prosperous year, and that a continuation of the production at the present rate will soon result in an over-production which will inevitably cause a large decline in prices. These apparently overlook the great change which has occurred in the industrial conditions existing in this country during the last few years.

"To take only one branch of the steel industry, steel rails. The statement is often heard that the large output of rails during the current year is due to the great prosperity the railroads are now enjoying, and that as soon as earnings begin to decline the demand for steel rails will fall to a minimum. Those who make this statement overlook the fact that a railroad must continue to operate, whether it earns 1 per cent or 15 per cent on its capital stock. To compete for traffic at the present low rates, it must continue to purchase rail and rolling stock irrespective of what percentage is being earned on the capital stock. It must also be remembered that the life of a steel rail is an item in the calculation.

"Another fact which must be remembered, is that the weight of the rails which the railroads are now laying is much heavier than was the case a few years ago. The fact that 100-pound rails are being ordered instead of 60-pound rails means considerable to the steel rail manufacturers. A few years ago the average weight of the rails on all the railroads of the country was not over 60 pounds. The weight of the rails now being purchased average at least 80 pounds. On 150,000 miles of road, this means a difference of over $10,000,000 to the steel rail manufacturers."

Merely a Tin Plate Footnote.

"The conferences between the wage committee of the Amalgamated association and officials of the American Tin Plate Company were continued today. President Shaffer of the Amalgamated association said no statement would be issued until an adjournment had been taken. It was said, however, that the meetings were merely formal affairs and that what transpired was of little interest to the public, as the scale for the current year was signed last April.

As one of the officials of the American Tin Plate Company put it, a few "footnotes" of minor importance were being added. It was announced today that practically all the western mills of the Republic Iron and Steel Company would be idle for the next two weeks.

A Steel Story Discredited.

Officials of the United States Steel Corporation here place little credence in the Philadelphia reports that Percival Roberts is to engage in the steel industry on a large scale and that back of him is the Pennsylvania railroad. A representative of one of the largest steel concerns today pointed out that the relations between the United States Steel Corporation and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company are too close to warrant the statement that the railroad would attempt to compete with the corporation in the matter of finished steel.

"The railroad company," said he, "receives from the steel combine millions of dollars a year in freight. It carries more of the steel corporation's products than any other railroad in the country. Besides, a close working agreement exists between the Steel Corporation and the Pennsylvania and Cambria Steel companies, both of which concerns are controlled by Pennsylvania railroad interests." E. W. HARDEN.

Rains Hurt the Wall Street Market

DAMPENS ARDOR OF THE BUYERS OF SECURITIES

Grain Carrying Roads Are Driven Down, but Cotton Transporters Helped.

MONEY RATE IS EASIER

Large Bank Increases Its Capital, Putting More Cash in Reserve. Exchange on Paris Takes Tumble. Bonds Quiet and Irregular.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, July 1.—There was not much increase of interest in today's stock market, but the firm undertone was maintained, and a number of important stocks were advanced. The opening prices were very generally lower, owing to the alarmist reports of the damage done to the grain crop by yesterday's storm. Today's weather map and the somewhat sensational advances in wheat gave color to the fears for the wheat crop. The strength of corn in the market was taken less account of, as it was attributed in part to sympathy with wheat and in large part to the heavy speculative commitments which are supposed to threaten a corner in corn. The damage wrought by wet weather to wheat is supposed to be balanced by the advantage of cotton, and there were signs of strength among the cotton carriers. This helped Missouri Pacific also. There were fears this morning that yesterday's money flurry would be repeated today, and the decline in the call loan rate after opening at 6 per cent helped the recovery in stocks.

Helps the Rock Island.

The action of the Rock Island directors in giving their stockholders the right to subscribe at par for new stock to the amount of 12½ per cent of their holdings caused a spurt in that stock and helped the grangers generally, St. Paul recovering its 1 point loss and Chicago & Northwestern rallying from a point loss to a point gain. Chicago & Eastern Illinois rose 6⅜ points to 201 without a solution of the mystery of the ultimate disposition of the road. The New York public utilities were advanced during the day and Sugar had upward movement. The coal carriers were neglected or easy, especially the soft coal roads. The strike of the Union Pacific machinists and the threat of the Chicago freight handlers to go on strike had a depressing effect during the morning. The taking effect of the repeal of the war taxes is a favorable influence in Wall street from every point of view. A long list of railroad bonds sold ex-interest today, but it is not probable that much of the large disbursement on that account found its way directly back into the money market.

Bank Increases Capital.

An important influence in the immediate ease of today's market was the increase in capital of the largest bank in the city, which made available an increase of loanable resources today of about $18,000,000. The turn of the half year made itself immediately manifest in the London money market, but sterling exchange at Paris promptly fell 1½ centimes. Exchange here was steady to firm. In connection with New York's large indebtedness to foreign money markets the London Statist points out the important fact that "There is an inclination on the part of French capitalists to embark in promising American enterprises." This is an inclination that has been conspicuously lacking heretofore, in spite of the large amount of French capital placed here in loans. The market closed dull and steady.

The bond market was quiet and rather irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,315,000. United States 3s declined ¼ and the old 4s ⅛ per cent on the last call.

WALL STREET FEATURES.

Total sales for the day, 278,700 shares.

Wet weather causes trouble for the grain carriers, but helps the cotton belt roads, chiefly Missouri Pacific among the latter.

Rock Island's decision to sell new stock at par to stockholders causes a boom on that line.

CLAIRTON STEEL COMPANY

Five Per Cent Mortgage, Coupon Gold Bonds, For $1,000 Each, Dated July 1, 1902.

Both Principal and Interest Guaranteed by the Crucible Steel Company of America. Subject to Registration as to Principal.

TOTAL ISSUE, = = $5,000,000

The Union Trust Company of Pittsburgh, Trustee.

COUPONS PAYABLE JULY 1st AND JANUARY 1st.

Both principal and interest payable in gold coin of the United States, of the present standard of weight and fineness, and without deduction of any TAX or TAXES now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any State, County or Municipality therein, which, under any present or future law, said Company may be required to pay, deduct or retain therefrom.

Payment of Principal and Interest of these Bonds is guaranteed by the Crucible Steel Company of America, which company has no mortgage indebtedness, and has a capital of $50,000,000.

The Bonds are due and payable as follows:—

500,000 July 1st, 1905	500,000 July 1st, 1910

The Bonds and Mortgage were prepared by Messrs. Knox & Reed, of Pittsburgh, and all legalities connected with the issue were conducted by them.

OFFICE OF CLAIRTON STEEL COMPANY.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 25th, 1902.

To the UNION TRUST COMPANY OF PITTSBURGH and MELLON NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH,

I wish to state for your information that the payment for the issue of bonds of the Clairton Steel Company, dated July 1st, 1902, is secured by a mortgage on the merged plants of the St. Clair Steel Company and the St. Clair Furnace Company into the Clairton Steel Company. The amount being expended at Clairton and covered by this mortgage is about eleven million dollars. When completed we will have in operation three blast furnaces of the capacity of fifteen hundred tons pig iron daily, and twelve open hearth furnaces. This steel plant and furnaces I consider the finest, and subject to the most economical operation, of any steel plant or furnace in the United States.

The open hearth furnaces will be ready by September 1st, and the blast furnaces by the first of the year.

I estimate the net earnings of the Clairton Steel Company on present prices at $3,500,000 per annum.

The principal and interest of the bonds are also guaranteed by the Crucible Steel Company of America, which Company owns all the capital stock of the Clairton Steel Company, and which Company had net earnings for the first fiscal year of $3,500,000 and the earnings this year are at a greater rate than $300,000 per month.

The Crucible Steel Company of America has a capital of $25,000,000 preferred, and $25,000,000 common stock, and has no mortgage indebtedness.

Respectfully yours,
W. P. SNYDER,
President Clairton Steel Company.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 30th, 1902.

The undersigned offer $4,000,000 of above described bonds at par and accrued interest. Subscription lists will be opened at the respective offices of the undersigned on Thursday, July 3d, 1902. The right is reserved to reject any applications or to award a smaller amount than applied for.

Payment for bonds allotted must be made on or before July 5th, 1902, and transferable interim certificates will be delivered pending the engraving of the bonds.

The undersigned consider the bonds above described as of the highest class of local industrial bonds; and recommend them as an investment of undoubted security.

UNION TRUST COMPANY OF PITTSBURGH,
337 Fourth Avenue.

THE MELLON NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH,

Earnings and Dividends.

The First National bank of Birmingham declared a quarterly dividend of 4 per cent, payable forthwith.

The regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent has been declared on the stock of the Duquesne Brewing Company.

The Second National bank of Allegheny declared a semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent and an extra dividend of 4 per cent.

Checks were received yesterday by Equitable Trust Company stockholders for the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent.

The First National bank of Sewickley declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent. This is an increase of 1 per cent in the semi-annual rate.

The Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Pittsburgh declared a regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent, and an extra dividend of ½ per cent, payable forthwith.

The American Window Glass Company yesterday declared a dividend of 1½ per cent on the common stock. This completes a year of quarterly dividends at that rate, though they have never been called "quarterly" ones.

Another melon was cut in Wall street yesterday when the Rock Island directors met and voted to distribute to stockholders 12½ per cent of their holdings in new stock at par. The stockholders of Peoria and Rock Island and the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern are notified that the time during which they can exchange their stock for Rock Island stock has been extended to July 15. Any stock exchanged by them for Rock Island stock will be entitled to share in the above distribution.

The United States Steel Corporation yesterday afternoon declared the regular quarterly dividends of 1¾ per cent on its preferred and 1 per cent on the common stock. The net earnings for the quarter ending June 30 were $37,091,098, against $28,925,840 the same time last year. For the six months ending June 30 the net earnings were $64,407,162. The surplus for the six months, after charges for depreciation, dividends, etc., was $29,455,825. Joseph Cayley was elected a member of the executive committee to fill a vacancy.

In New York yesterday payments of $126,000,000 in dividends and interest began. The Standard Oil Company makes it a practice to pay its July dividends during the last of June, in order to save the banks, and United States Steel preferred dividends have been postponed till August for the same reason. Bonds of a par value of $8,651,172,812 paid interest yesterday to the amount of $71,284,533, and stock of a par value of $1,873,752,529 paid dividends to the amount of $45,732,750. Government disbursements amounted to $4,509,000 interest and $12,250,000 pension payments.

IN THE MONEY MARKET.

RESULTS IN A MURDER.

John Markoff, Shot Four Times in a Melee at Borland, Is Dead.

Another murder has been added to Allegheny county's long list of tragedies. John Markoff died at the West Penn hospital yesterday from the effects of wounds received in a shooting affray at Borland station, near Carnegie, on June 16. Burd Saunders and James Duee, both colored, are incarcerated in the Allegheny county jail charged with the shooting.

These negroes, with several others, had been drinking at Markoff's place. Saunders abused Mrs. Widner, a neighbor, living next door to Markoff's establishment. She threw a club at him and Saunders knocked her down. Her husband went to her assistance and a general shooting affray resulted. Some 20 shots were exchanged, and Markoff, who was standing near the scene, was hit four times.

Local Stocks Were Still Very Dull, but the Market Was Firmer

BANK SHARES WERE FIRMER AND HIGHER

Renewed Demand Caused by the Payment of the July Dividends.

STEEL STOCKS WERE DULL

Window Glass Common Rallied on Light Trading—Fire Proofing and Coal Issues Were Quiet—Brewing and Airbrake Shares Were Higher.

The market on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday was again exceedingly dull, the total sales showing an increase of only 170 shares over Monday's record of 2,002. The tone, however, was distinctly firmer and the changes in the selling prices at the close were generally for the better. As was the case Monday, the feature was in the banking group, which showed up considerably firmer in response to the declaration of the July dividends. The only decline in this group, and, in fact, the only appreciable decline of the day, was in Keystone bank shares, which sold 25 at 370, against 395 paid May 28 last. More of the stock was wanted at 370, but none offered at less than 400. Federal National again sold at 130, but was immediately bid up to 132 without offers. American Trust Company was unchanged at 119@118 and United Realty sold a small lot at 130, also the last previous price. Colonial Trust sold at 305 ex-dividend $3 a share, which is equivalent to 308, and a gain of $8 over Monday's closing sale. Commonwealth Real Estate & Trust Company advanced $1 to 230, but offered at 228½ at the close. Real Estate Trust advanced $4 to 290. In the quotations Iron City National was higher at 128½ bid. There were no other material changes in the group.

In the miscellaneous list Window Glass common was firmer and ½ higher at 64½. 415 shares changing hands. The strength was possibly due to the declaration of a dividend of 1¼ per cent for the last three months. This makes four such dividends for the year. The preferred was ½ higher at 92½ for 10 shares. The Steel shares continued quite dull at narrow fluctuations. Fire Proofing and Coal issues were also dull and narrow. Westinghouse Air Brake showed some firmness and advanced ½ to 183½. Pittsburgh Brewing common was firm at 27½ and the preferred advanced to 46½ bid without sales. The Electrics were very dull and normally quoted at or about the list prices. Bonds were extremely dull.

The following is a complete summary of yesterday's official transactions on the Pittsburgh stock exchange. It shows the change in the closing selling prices, compared with the last preceding sales, the total sales of each security, the opening, high, low and closing prices and final bids and offers.

The officers are: President, John W. Herron; vice presidents, Samuel Bailey, Jr., and A. J. Kelly, Jr.; secretary and treasurer, George D. Edwards; manager of real estate department, John F. Baxter. The company controls the business of W. A. Herron & Sons and John F. Baxter & Co.

PITTSBURGH FEATURES.

Bank exchanges were heavy, being over $9,251,000.

Sales Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday, 2,172 shares and $1,000 bonds.

Keystone bank sold at 370, a drop of $25 between sales.

Colonial Trust was $8 higher at $305 ex-dividend.

Real Estate Trust advanced $4 to $290.

Window Glass common sold 415 shares and advanced ½ to 64½.

Crucible Steel common closed at 21½ and the preferred at 85⅝. Both dull.

United States Steel common closed at 37½ and the preferred at 89, both being very dull.

Pittsburgh Brewing stocks were firmer and higher.

Westinghouse Airbrake advanced 1½ to 183½, ex-dividend.

FINANCIAL DRIFT.

Miller bought and sold Window Glass at 64½.

R. J. Stoney, Jr., returned yesterday from Atlantic City, where he has been resting for about three weeks.

Preston, Watt & Schoyer bought 20 American Trust Company from Sproul & Co. at 119; then Sproul sold Hill & Co. 10 at 118.

Only one bond—$1,000 Pittsburgh Brewing Company 6s at 110¾, ex-dividend—changed hands, and Stoney sold that one to Walker.

During the first half hour only 13 separate sales were made, of which John D. Bailey made five—all Crucible Steel preferred at 85½.

The first sale of the day was 35 Crucible Steel common at 21⅝, and the last 50 Real Estate Trust Company at 290, Carothers & Co. selling the latter to R. C. Ball.

Edison Mazda stock will be listed on the London exchange after the demand created there through the absorption of the Bryant & May Company last year.

The further advance in Chicago & Eastern Illinois looks like confirmation of the story that Illinois Central will take over the property on a lease. Such a deal, it is claimed, would be greatly to the advantage of Illinois Central.

The Mellon National bank of Pittsburgh and the Corn Exchange National bank of Chicago have been appointed fiscal agents of the First National bank of Somerset. The Mellon National has also been made a reserve agent for the Temple National bank of Sistersville, W. Va.

The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company has purchased the Peoples Natural Gas and Relief Gas companies. The deal involves about $1,500,000. This gives the Manufacturers so much gas that it may enter the local field as a competitor with the Philadelphia Company, to which it has been supplying gas at wholesale prices.

The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company's lease of the Union Traction Company and its subordinate lines for a term of 999 years, became operative yesterday. It is estimated that the net earnings over all charges and expenses for the fiscal year ended amounted to at least $1,000,000.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Duquesne Brewing Company was held yesterday at the office of the brewery, South Twenty-second and Mary streets. The following board of directors were reelected: John Harris, C. J. Stocker, Peter Hermes, Justin Maier, James S. Grimes, Albert Pravecli and Charles Ott.

The meeting of the stockholders of the Peoples Savings bank for the regular election of nine trustees was held at the bank yesterday noon. The following were elected trustees: D. McK. Lloyd, Robert Pitcairn, Edwin H. Stowe, W. J. Moorhead, A. E. W. Painter, David P. Black, William E. Thompson, Robert Wardrop and Edward E. Duff.

The Real Estate Trust Company has issued a statement under date of June 1902, compared with the statement of May 22, shows an increase in deposits of $714,000, the total now standing at $4,067,885. The net undivided profits are $102,751, showing that the 2 per cent quarterly dividend declared last month was more than earned in the 38 days between statements made to stockholders.

London did about 10,000 shares, selling 8,000, nearly all United States Steel. This selling was based on the report of Chairman Mr. Morgan and Mr. Carnegie, which has no foundation, since Mr. Carnegie is known to have no interest in Steel stocks. The decline was checked by Bessemer Steel, a Morgan interest, regarded as representing Mr. Morgan in Steel transactions.—Dow, Jones.

You do not want to overlook the fact that on existing earnings Missouri Pacific is cheap compared with other similar stocks at 125 or 130. These earnings were on a short corn and cotton crop last year. Earnings this year in all probability on good crops will be much larger. The Steel stock is also discounting the prospect now and will probably be thrown by the time the harvest is made.—Randolph.

The annual election of the Union Bridge Company was held yesterday afternoon, and the following directors elected: H. W. Oliver, W. V. Gallery, S. S. Marvin, J. M. Bailey, D. H. Hostetter, Addison Hill, F. N. Nimick, A. H. Childs, Joseph Ford, J. F. Walton, H. R. Rea, D. C. Byers and T. F. Stevenson. There were three changes in the board and all were caused by the deaths of directors during the year.

A western grain authority wires as follows: "Do not think there has been very much damage to the corn crop only in the low bottom lands. I have never known a piece of corn to be ruined by too much rain. There has been a little damage to wheat; that is, in the quality, and receipts will be held back until the weather is better. Some damage has been done to oats, but not to any extent. From a railroad standpoint, I think the crops very favorable."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Iron and Glass Dollar Savings bank of Birmingham, was held at the bank yesterday afternoon. The following were elected members of the board of directors: Edward P. Logan, Robert McDonald, Jr., John Gallagher, John Grace, C. C. Baxmyer, Godfried Miller, William Beck, George F. Bayer, G. Henry Schmuck, Lewis F. Wentz, Thomas B. Alcorn, Joseph Keeling and Harry Meuschke. There were no changes in the board.

Charles E. Lambing has voluntarily retired from the firm of James Carothers & Co., brokers, and has been succeeded by William E. von Bonhorst, for many years cashier of the Manufacturers' National bank. Mr. von Bonhorst will continue the business of Mr. Lambing, who has been succeeded by J. S. Brooks as cashier. Mr. Lambing retired from the brokerage business to get married and spend a long honeymoon in the west, and in case he has changed his mind, as Carothers said yesterday that most men marry and then go to work, but that Mr. Lambing has reversed that order. Mr. von Bonhorst was at his new office yesterday.

Webb, beginning today, Uncle Sam will remit his claims to taxes which has put each year recently $70,000,000 in his treasury, says the New York Telegram, and the banks, national, state and savings, are to feel the effect of this reduction in their expenses, together with hundreds of millions of assessed capitalists, the national banks have not been eased by a decision rendered by Judge Lacombe, in the federal court of Brooklyn, holding that the assessors department can not legally collect a tax which was levied on the undivided profits of one bank. Judge Lacombe's decision was given in the case of the Leather Manufacturers bank, brought by the bank to assess that the treasury department could collect $184, which was levied as war taxes on undivided profits of $77,790 held by the bank. When congress passed the recent tax measure act legislation, a tax on those surplus funds in the various banks, objection was made and the Leather Manufacturers bank was the only one to make the payment, leaving the question still to recover. Taking this decision as a precedent, all the banks now will be compelled to pay the taxes, which have accrued in the last three years, as the law is now interpreted until the appeal. Nearly all the banks in the country will make an effort to have this decision reversed, and the American Bankers' association probably will carry the case to the supreme court.

HEAVY EXCHANGES.

Pittsburgh Bank Clearings for Yesterday, Though Smaller Than Last Year, Were Over $9,200,000.

Pittsburgh bank exchanges for yesterday while very large—being over $9,200,000, were still $1,691,000 smaller than those for the same day last year. The increase was due to dividend payments at both times. Compared with the preceding Tuesday, yesterday's exchanges showed a gain of almost $1,500,000. The local money market remains firm and unchanged, the rate for call and time loans standing at 6@6 per cent. The official clearing house reports in detail for the days mentioned are as follows—

	Exchanges.	Balances.

Onward March of Grain Prices Continues

PITTSBURGH PRICES FOR FARM PRODUCTS

Flour Advances Ten Cents a Barrel—Canned Tomatoes Are Higher.

Hay, Grain and Feed.

So uncertain is the condition of the grain market, which has been bullishly affected by heavy rains in growing sections, that quotations seem to extend values anywhere to depend on account of the varied opinions held by different dealers. Oats and corn are both higher than they were day before yesterday, the latter being quoted considerable, and wheat is stronger. No changes had yet been made in hay prices, but the market exhibits increased firmness and higher quotations are probable.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania lines, 3 cars hay, 5 cars oats, 3 cars feed, 1 car husks, 4 cars corn, 1 car hay and straw; Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 1 car hay, 1 car corn; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, 2 cars oats; Pittsburgh & Western railroad, 2 cars hay, 1 car corn; total receipts, 24 cars.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania lines, 13 cars hay, 3 cars oats, 1 car straw; Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 1 car hay, 1 car corn. Total receipts, 19 cars.

Following are the official quotations for hay, millfeed, corn, oats and straw, corrected by the superintendent of the Pittsburgh grain exchange:

Straw—Oat, $7 00@7 50; wheat, $7 00@7 50; rye, $8 00@8 25.

Hay—No. 1 timothy, $15 00@15 50; No. 1 do, $14 50@15 00; No. 2 do, $12 50@13 50; No. 1 mixed, $10 50@11 00; No. 1 clover, $10 00@10 25; prairie, $10 50@11 00; packing, $8 00@10 00; loose from wagon, $16 00@17 00.

Rye—Milling price (delivered), No. 2 Michigan, 66@67c.

Wheat—No. 2 red winter, 75@76c for 1 car 5 cars within radius of 90 miles of Pittsburgh.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, shelled, 72@73c; high mixed, 71@72c; No. 2 mixed, 70@71c. No. 3 yellow, ear, 74@75c; high mixed, 73@74c; No. 3 mixed, ear, 69@70c.

Oats—No. 2 white, 62@63c; extra, No. 3, 61@62c; regular, 60@61c.

Millfeed—White middlings, per ton, No. 2, $21 00@22 00; brown, $20 00@21 00; bran, $19 00@19 50.

Groceries.

Stronger conditions in the wheat market have prevailed and flour has yielded to their influence, quotations for spring patents having 10 cents a barrel. This action has been expected for several days, and creates no surprise. Whether or not further advances will follow depends entirely upon the results of the recent rains in their effect upon crops. Predictions are freely made, but they differ, and nothing certain can be stated until more definite information as to conditions in the west is received.

Flour—Jobbing prices: Fancy spring patents, $4 20@4 30; fancy winter patents, $4 00@4 00; straight winter, $3 80@3 90; bakers' spring, $3 00@3 60; rye, $3 45@3 60; graham, $4 00@4 10; cornmeal, bbl, $3 10@3 20; 10-lb cotton bags, 18@20c.

Canned Goods.

All kinds of prices are being asked to the east for tomatoes and an unsettled market is the consequence. Pittsburgh jobbers are striving to hold the local market as steady as possible, but a variety of quotations exists. There are very few standard goods below $1 00.

Standard pie peaches, 80@85c; gallon pie peaches, $2 50@3 00; California L. C. peaches, $1 80@2 30; Maryland peaches, $1 25@1 50; California Y. Dried Fruit.

Prunes are in good demand and large sizes are becoming scarce. There is also a limited amount of California raisins in the market and prices are very firm. Quotations are unchanged in all lines.

Evaporated apricots, in bags, 11@12c; 25-lb boxes, 12½@14c; apples, in bulk, 10c; 1-lb cartons, 10@11c; peaches, 8@12c; raisins, seeded, 1-lb pkgs, 8@9½c; raisins, Muscatels, 2 and 4-crown, 50-lb boxes, 6¾@3c per lb; Ondaria Valencias, 5¾@6c; Sultanas, 7c; currants, cleaned, 25 and 50-lb pkgs, 7½@7¾c; California prunes, 3¾@8½c.

Tropical Fruits and Nuts.

Lemons—California, $4 50@4 00; Messina, $3 50@4 00.

Plums—California, per box, $1 50@1 75.

Peaches—California, per box, $1 25@1 50.

Fruits and Produce.

Receipts are heavy in nearly all lines, but an active trade is consuming stock with a rapidity which keeps down accumulations and holds quotations steady. New potatoes are coming forward with great freedom, but prices at points of shipment are firm, and local quotations are unchanged. Watermelons are plentiful and prices are the same as on Monday, though lower than last week. Peaches are coming in with greater liberality and quotations have been materially reduced, while plums are also lower. Cantaloupes are arriving from many places and prices vary, requiring a wider range of quotations.

Horse Market.

Trade in the horse market is quiet, partly because the summer season is always more or less dull, and partly on account of the light offerings. Local sales stables are pretty well cleaned up of good stock, and search through the west fails to produce any large quantity of desirable horses.

At the exchange auction yesterday about 100 head of horses were offered for sale, and these were disposed of at prices slightly lower than those which ruled last week.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Coffee futures opened steady, with prices 5 points lower, following bearish cables, heavy primary receipts and clearance, and liquidation of long accounts. Trading was listless and confined chiefly to the professional crowd. The market rallied in the afternoon, shorts bidding prices up to last night's level. Public speculation was quiet, foreign orders few and the room without definite purpose. The close was quiet, prices being net unchanged, sales amounting to 8,500 bags, including July at 4.50c, September at 4.95c, December at 5.20c, March at 5.40c and May at 5.50c. Spot Rio dull; fair refining, 5¾c; centrifugal, 96 test, 5¼@5 1-16c. Molasses sugar, 2 9-16c; refined steady.

CHILDREN WANT TO SHARE IN AN ESTATE OF $5,000

Register Edwards Holds a Partial Hearing in the Steiglitz Contest.

MANY WITNESSES CALLED

Testimony Given That Decedent's Mental Condition Was Not Good. Ammon Bros. Allowed to Collect Fees Due Them in Damage Suit.

Register F. W. Edwards yesterday held a partial hearing in the contest over the estate of Valentine Steiglitz, who died June 2 last. His estate is worth $5,000. By his will the entire estate, except $280, was left to his widow, and the children have begun a contest. About 50 witnesses have been summoned.

It was testified yesterday that the decedent's health had been failing for a year prior to his death, and that his mental condition was poor. It was also testified that he was nearly totally blind, and that when conversing he would change quickly from one subject to another. Another hearing will be held on Thursday.

Judge W. G. Hawkins handed down an opinion in the estate of William Helbling. The wife of the defendant owned property on Butler street, near the Allegheny cemetery. By reason of the clogging of a sewer she suffered damages and an action was brought by Ammon Bros., her lawyers, against the Allegheny Cemetery Company. A verdict of $3,500 was recovered and this was sustained by the supreme court.

As the estate of William Helbling was insolvent this judgment was considered an asset of the estate. Ammon Bros. sought to recover their fees from the estate and it was upon this question the court rendered its decision. Judge Hawkins, in allowing the claim, says it seems reasonable. He declares the case was desperate in character and was refused by several prominent attorneys as hopeless.

Michael Gross took out letters of administration on the $1,800 estate of Elizabeth Gross.

STILL AFTER DAMAGES.

Dr. Anna Schultz, Colored, Wants Redress in United States Courts Against Pittsburgh Detectives.

Yesterday in the United States circuit court Anna B. Schultz, colored, a physician of Chicago, filed a statement in her suit against Roger O'Mara, former superintendent of city detectives, and Detectives Charles McGovern and Richard Kelly, for $15,000 damages for false arrest.

She was arrested at the Baltimore & Ohio station March 7, 1901. She claims that her arrest was unwarranted and that she was grossly insulted by the defendants. The plaintiff also alleges that a diamond pin has been missing since the detectives searched her baggage.

Through her attorney Dr. Schultz entered suit against the present defendants in the common pleas courts of Allegheny county, but after the trial had proceeded a day or two it was thought advisable to take a non-suit, as the question of jurisdiction of the court was about to be raised, Dr. Schultz being a non-resident.

Dr. Schultz is a prepossessing octoroon. She is well educated and has some influential friends at Washington, D. C. The new case will probably be tried at the October term of the United States circuit court.

QUESTIONS ASSIGNMENT.

Claim Set Up by J. H. Weaver & Co. That Assignment of Claim Was Not Made in Good Faith.

An affidavit of defense was filed in the case of the Waverley Coal and Coke Company for use of Thomas A. Nobie, against J. H. Weaver & Co., to recover upon a contract for coke alleged to have been furnished.

The defendant company says it has no means of knowing that the plaintiff company assigned the alleged claim to Nobie and calls for proofs of the same. It is set forth that if such an assignment was made it was not made in good faith, but was part of a fraudulent scheme by which the company sought to divest itself of its assets.

It is also alleged that the company procured, or caused to be conducted, quo warranto proceedings in Dauphin county against the company, which resulted in a judgment of ouster, all for the purpose and with the intent on the part of the company of evading liability upon its part, and hindering, delaying and defrauding the creditors of the company. It is claimed that on account of this judgment the plaintiffs cannot maintain the action.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

Objections were filed to the discharge of Frank B. White from bankruptcy.

An execution was issued as follows: Mary M. Irwin, extrx., vs. James C. Dick, Jr., et al., $4,241.61.

The receiver of John A. Garvey reported that he had sold the latter's saloon at 756 Fortieth street for $4,000.

A bill of particulars was filed in the divorce case of James K. Lyons against Annie M. Lyons, desertion being alleged.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed by Rosa Armbin, a merchant at Springdale. Her liabilities are $8,580.06 and assets $6,156.76.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States district court against Henry Spritzer of Windber, Somerset county. It is claimed he wrote creditors letters offering to compromise at 25 cents on the dollar and that he preferred certain other creditors.

The master in the divorce case of Mary McBride against Edward McBride recommends that a decree be granted. They were married May 29, 1897, and separated January 26, 1902, when the husband says she compelled to leave her husband on account of his abuse. They lived at Homestead.

An affidavit of defense was filed in the case of the borough of Wilmerding against Edward Bishop, Jr., Frank Moore, W. B. Brush and Joseph Redfern. Bishop was the borough tax collector and the other defendants were on his bond. The action is to recover on the same. It is said that the greater part of the taxes mentioned in the suit was paid prior to July 1, 1898, and that the borough took no action to make Burch make a settlement until late in 1898.

COMMON COUNCIL TO TAKE ACTION ON FILTRATION

Committee Will Make Recommendations at Meeting Next Monday Night.

FAVOR CHEAPER PLAN

Sentiment in Councils Is Growing to Favor Sand Filtration, but Believe Proposed Plant Is Too Expensive. Report Adversely on Contracts.

Recommendations as to the disposition of the sand filtration matter will be made to common council next Monday night. This will likely be the last meeting of the branch for the summer. The sub-committee which has the matter in charge will probably recommend that all action looking toward filtration be postponed until it be learned whether a system cannot be instituted with less expense than present estimates call for.

Thomas M. Brown is chairman of the sub-committee. The other members are Harry A. Lamb of the Eleventh ward, W. H. Barker of the Twenty-third ward, George S. Wilson of the Seventh ward and W. J. Zahniser of the Seventeenth ward. Chairman Brown called at the city clerk's office yesterday and took possession of the papers in the case.

The committee has had numerous sessions or conferences, as the members of the committee term them. All of these meetings were held secretly. Members of the old filtration commission called on the committee and explained many features of their report. William McConway, who was a member of the filtration commission, had a conference with the sub-committee in a room in a downtown hotel where the committee held several sessions.

Chairman Brown said yesterday: "I do not care to discuss the matter in advance of the meeting of the general committee. I am thoroughly satisfied in my own mind as to what disposition ought to be made of the matter, but the committee may not think as I do, and for that reason I will not give vent to my ideas."

If a system of sand filtration can be established at a cost within the bond issue, sand filtration will be adopted. The report will not advise radical action, but will advise against any further steps until the city government reduces the cost. W. H. Stevenson, member of common council from the Fourteenth ward, gave it as his opinion yesterday that the sentiment in councils on this matter is changing, and that many are now favoring sand filtration who were much opposed to it before.

It is not the intention of the filtration committee to shelve sand filtration, but they do not believe that the people will indorse beginning work on a plant that will cost $1,000,000 more than the city has on hand with which to pay. They believe that the installation of meters ought to be hurried, and that such installation will reduce the consumption of water from one-third to one-half, and that it will consequently not be necessary to filter so much water, and consequently a cheaper plant can be had.

The ordinances authorizing the awarding of contracts for the beginning of work on filtration contracts Nos. 1, 2 and 3 will be retained by common council with a negative recommendation. It will be necessary for Director J. Guy McCandless to revise his figures before he is authorized to go on with this work.

Director McCandless has another estimate almost ready to submit to councils. His engineers have made a detailed estimate that will cut down the cost of the plant. The price is not low enough yet, however, to get within the sum in the bond issue.
